TO BE CONTINUED.

On last Tuesday morning Bishop Me-Namara's bond was reduced by Justice Nichols from $3,500 to $1,350, and the appealed cases to $750 and the other cases pending to $200. Mr. Gaines C. man, and Justice Niebols approved the bonds and ordered Deputy Marshal Ross to bring the Bishop into court. A short time after Ross returned with the information that Marshal Stewart refused to recognize the authority of the justice to approve these bonds where conviction had been obtained.

Shortly after this Marcy K. Brown, the prosecuting attorney, appeared, and dismissed all cases then pending before Justice Nichols, as he no doubt believed the Romans had lest their grip in Independence, and filed information in the criminal court on all cases except the one convicting. The preliminary hearing was set for Wednesday, at 3 p. m., before Judge Waffords, with the result that his case was set for trial on February 16th. His bond was fixed and immediately furnished, but Marshal Stewart would not approve the bond until the court stenographer could be found. Every means has been resorted to by the prosecution to persecute the bishop and keep him in jail. This only shows what the dupes of the Roman Catholic church will do when they are vested with a little brief authority. The marshal eyen attempted to delay the trial, at least he was closeted with Ed. Findly for nearly one or sheriffs who desire to seem to be in hour while the court waited.

LATER.-The bond of Bishop McNa mara was approved by Judge Waffords, and he was released from custody.

The preliminary hearing in the cases against Parker and Young McNamara was also held before Judge Waffords, they're not. Travel to Chicago still and they were bound over till April 2d, and bonds have been furnished and ap-

PUBLIC SCHOOLS GOOD ENOUGH

Father McGlynn Declares that the Paro chial School System is Improper.

DETROIT, Jan. 31.-Rev. Father Edward McGlynn, in an interview, insists that he has not retracted one word of San Francisco via the Burlington Route his opinions on parochial schools, which will best bring about the transformaled to ecclesiastical censure being placed on him. He now goes further, indeed, and declares that it is not the province of priests, monks and other ecclesiasties to teach anything but religion. The public schools when properly conducted were all that could be desired. Parochial schools were improper, for the reason that the children who attended them were isolated in a manner. Religion should be taught only in church and Sunday schools and at the mother's knee.

REPUBLICANS CARRY DULUTH.

Ray S. Lewis Defeats Jenswold for

Mayor by 2,880 Majority. DULUTH, Minu., Feb. 7. - Special Telegram.-The city election in Duluth resulted in a sweeping victory for the Republicans. The issue of the election was the position taken by Major Baldwin on the tariff, and he has been given a rebuke. Ray S. Lewis, Republican, was elected mayor by 2,880 majority of a total vote of about 10,000. John Jenswold, his opponent, did not carry a single ward in the city. The Republicans elected every alderman and will have the Council without a dissenting

An Inalienable Right.

Two delays of justice that might be classed as curious were not their counterparts frequent, were reported in the Inter-Ocean of yesterday. One of them

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 6.-Justice Nichols, of Independence, today reduced the total bond of J. V. McNamara in the cases against him for slandering Fathers Dalton and Lillis and Sister Rose St. Vincent to $1,350. J. G. Menier was accepted as bondsman, but McNamara was not released this afternoon, owing to the reported ina-bility of Deputy Marshal Rose to find either Marshal Stewart or Prosecuting Attorney Brown.

But in each case the person arrested was bailed by good and lawful bondsmen, and on the instant of the signature of that ball each was entitled to instant freedom. Neither of them got it. At Independence the deputy could not find either the marshal or the prosecutor. At Appleton the sheriff pretended he could not find a blank on which to write a bond. In both cases the imprisenment of the parties was illegally prolonged to their injury and mortification.

Similarly, in February, 1890, a newspaper man while doing business in Detroit for a Chicago newspaper, was arrested on a charge of libeling a certain Catholic priest; the Chicago office sent its city editor to procure bail; bail was procured instantly on his arrival, but though the sheriff's office was aware of the coming of the Chicago man with power to provide bail, when the bond was signed the sheriff was not on aand to approve it; seven or eight hours were consumed in search of him. The Chicago newspaper's agent was delayed of his liberty.
