Ribak was in front of the cash drawer and tossed the man a bill. "Give me all," demanded the robber, pressing his pistol against Ribak's body. The grocer made a move, and the robber fired. The bullet passed entirely through Ribak's abdomen. The murderer grabbed at the cash and fled.

IOWA MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

Vote Was Light Owing to Disagreeable Weather All Over the State.

The Republicans made gains in several cities that have been steadily Republican and in some others gained slightly in vote. Their largest gains were in Iowa City, where they carried everything but one ward. In Cedar Rapids there was a spirited contest, resulting in a victory for the Democrats, they re-electing their mayor by 509 majority and electing all other city officers but the treasurer. At Muscatine the Democrats elected the mayor and two out of four city officers; they also carried two of the four aldermen. At Sioux City the entire Republican municipal ticket was elected by 400 to 600, a gain over last fall. At Council Bluffs Republicans elect mayor and nearly all other city officers. The council will stand, 2 Republicans, 6 Democrats. At Corning the Democrats elect the mayor and the Republicans captured recorder, treasurer and two councilmen.

How He Would Work.

EDITOR AMERICAN: A just request for a few lines on Roman Catholicism, I submit the following: It pays to convert Catholics and it can be done. My mother's children are nine in number. Most of them are in the forefront of all present reforms in the Protestant religion. She was born, reared and educated as a Catholic and gave it up wholly for protestantism. It pays, how can't it? First, by necessity which drove her to seek work from home, second, a desire to read and speak English. Third, by an aged woman too feeble to work who took time to teach the German girl. And further, by the New Testament, which was the best book chosen. Try this plan.

ORANGE PRINCIPLES.
On behalf of the Loyal Orange Lodge of the United States of America, and with a view of correcting the false impression that enemies are endeavoring to convey to the minds of men who are unacquainted with Orange principles, are these few statements made:
The Loyal Orange Institution is a brotherhood and sisterhood, bound by three ties—Justice, Truth and Righteousness.
It has no hidden aims.
It is Fraternal and Benevolent—assisting and protecting members while living and their widows and orphans when they are removed by death.
It upholds the right of private judgment—the untrammelled freedom of opinion; believes the public schools are an essential safeguard of the state, and should be kept free from ecclesiastical or sectarian control and that persons disloyal to the government—who hold a mental allegiance to the pope of Rome—should be rigorously excluded from teaching therein.
It believes primary allegiance is due to the government, which protects the lives, liberties and properties of its citizens, and that ecclesiastical authority should not under any circumstances, be permitted to meddle in the affairs of state, and that coercion of a citizen in the exercise of his or her right of franchise, under the guise of religious or spiritual authority should be punished as a crime against the state.
That it is the duty of every citizen to defend the lawfully constituted authority and institutions of our country against corrupt and injurious influences, as well as against armed assaults, to the end that our glorious freedom be protected and transmitted unimpaired to posterity.
It encourages habits of frugality and industry among its members, and is proud to boast that Orangemen seldom become a public charge or receive pauper aid.
It believes in the restriction of immigration and the extension of time for the naturalization of citizens, and that the public lands shall be held for actual American citizens who become settlers.
The Loyal Orange Institution of the United States of America has certain requirements for membership:
That a man shall be an actual American citizen, having complied with the laws of the United States with regard to naturalization, and without any mental reservation.
That the applicant shall be a Protestant, and also that his parents and wife shall be Protestants.
That he shall be thrifty and successful in his business; honorable and truthful in his dealings with his fellowman, and shall be known as a law-abiding citizen.
That he will endeavor to give his children or any children under his charge at least a good common school education, being careful to avoid all popish doctrines, and that he shall be in sound health at the time of making application.
It is those ailments where a man was born, so long as he meets the foregoing requirements.
These are the qualifications required of every applicant for membership, and we do not think that any patriotic American order can offer a better array of principles and teachings.
