

"Insulting the Irish."

Life, of New York, makes the following humorous comment on recent oc-ir willingness to serve their country in public office has been frequently demonstrated, and that any public officer should stand in the way of their flying the green flag over every public building in the United States, not only on St. Patrick's Day, but on every day in the year, is a 'cruel' insult unparableled in the history of the whole human race. More than this, we cannot conceive how a man of Mayor Schieren's intelligence could inflict such an 'unpatrictic' insult on our Irish fellow citizens as to imply that the Star Spangled Banner ought to be a good enough flag for every American citizen. We think our Irish friends do quite right in threatening the presuptuous officeheolder with a good old Irish boycott. If the people of Brooklyn ever confer another honor on this audacious American, they deserve to How's This! audacious American, they deserve to have every Irishman leave Brooklyn and come over to New York, where Irish have at least some rights that Americans are bound o respect."

Town Topics says. "I never could understand why Mr. Hewitt refused to recognize the Irish flag when he was mayor. There is an Irish nation right here in New York. Irish nation right here in New York.
We are its subjects. Let us bow to our rulers. Take down the American flag. The Irish have no use for that except when they have tried to blow up something in England. Hang out the green flag, not only over the city half but over every other public and every private building in New York, and on St. Patrick's Day make every citizen not of undisputed Irish birth take off his hat and do homage to it. Servants, obey your masters."

Not Wanted in the Penitentiary. The Chicago Inter Ocean of April 16

A correspondent at Fort Madison, lows, writes the Inter Ocean that N. N. Jones, warden of the state peniten-N. Jones, warden of the state penitentiary at that place refuses to appoint Dr. E. L. Trevitt surgeon to the penitentiary, assigning as the only reason for his action that the doctor is a member of the A. P. A. It seems that Dr. Trevitt does not deny the charge, but rather glories in the fact that it is true. The doctor's friends, however, are up in arms because they say that a mem-be-ship in that or in any other organization is no good excuse for refusing to make such an appointment, and that Mr. Jones will hear from them in fu-

Weil after all, taking everything into consideration, any men ber of the A. P. A. would seem rather out of place in a penitentiary. The Romanis's evidently want to maintain a monopoly both on the officials and inmates. - [EDITOR.

Rome has so seared the American people with the shout of "bigotry" that they have allowed her to fill the offices with thugs and thieves, loot the public treasury, attack the schools, subsidize the press, muzzle the preachers and run everything, from the white house to the penitentiary, to suit the pope .-Journal, April 13, 1894.

MOTREAL, Sept. 20.—Archbishop Fabre has decided to suppress the private convent of Dr. Jacques. This institution is one of the strongest of the kind in Canada. It is conducted in the doctor's own house and was founded at the time of the smallpox epidemic. No one knows exactly what is being done within its walls, but the number of sisters at present is thirteen. They are all young, dress in red hats with white vests, and never go on the street.
