Far down the rhythmic cadence of the years Fair memory has led me back to tears. Across the tablets stamped with age and pain. She wakes the echoes of a sad refrain, That lingers ever in my inmost soul. Before my eyes again she stands; control Is lost and only anguish sweeps the chords, Too strong for silence, and too deep for words.

Sad, from some sorrow I had never known; Perchance, for him, into the other flown, Ere yet the wedding ring had lost its shine Swept from her sight beneath the ocean' brine.

Reft from the ties a mother's heart can feel Before her motherhood awoke its zeal. Far searching gaze, a tender, woman's heart In calm submission plays the angel's part; Waits for some summons we may never hear. And sees her pathway through the heavens appear.

Here was the purest love I ever knew, His affection-tender, manly, true. All thoughts of her in such close circles run Father appears, as though the twain were one Both to the silence past; to hap'ly wait My slothful coming to the upper gate. Both apprehensive, lest my steps go wrong Or lips refuse to sing the heavenly song; Yet thrilled by mystic ties that bind to earth Responsive to my love-of little worth. -ISAAC A. POOL. Lockhart's Autritious Condiment.

HEADQUARTERS IN: Glasgow, Scotland, London, England, New York, Chicago, Omaha.

HAVING investigated this Horse and Cattle Food, and having become convinced that it was superior to any preparation on the market today, I have consented to take the general agency for the Middle and Western States. It is now being used by many of the leading horse and cattle men, some of whom testify to its worth and money-saving qualities. Among the number who have endorsed it may be mentioned: Robert Bonner, Esq., of the New York Ledger; William Lockhart, Esq., Veterinery Surgeon; Dan Mace, the famous trainer and driver, and H. E. Bonner, Esq., Veterinary Surgeon, all of New York; H. M. Hosick & Co., Tallow, Hides and Wool; The Lincoln Park Commissioners; John Ford, Metropolitan Market; Armour & Co., Packers; Miller & Armour, Packers; J. C. Pennoyer & Co., Teaming; Gen. Torrence; Lincoln Ice Co.; A. H. Revell; William Thompson Ice Co.; Gen. Newberry; Consumers Pure Ice Co.; E. K. Bond Packing Co.; Thos. J. Lipton & Co., Packers, and others, of Chicago.

This Condiment is recommended by a dairyman who says his cows gave one-third more milk while he used it during the winter. It is just the stuff to build up all stock, and is a great feed-saver on account of its nutritious qualities.
