Berean Bible school Sunday at 2:30.
Mr. B. B. Smith called upon us last week.
A good work team, harness and wagon for sale cheap by John Bartell.

Mr. Geo. H. Turner, the Grammaracy P. M., was trading in this city yesterday.

Mr. Jack took was in town Saturday having his molars repaired and remained over Sunday.

John Bartell had a short but quite severe spell of sickness New Year's day, but is now well again.

Mr. Asa avis has filed a homestead on the quarter section lying adjacent to Mr. Barker's claim, on the south.

Mr and Mrs. Z. uel were in town last week. Mrs. uel was one of the principal witnesses in the Mahoney case.

Several of the friends of Mr. Hesters spent New Year's day with them and were treated to a delicious New Year's dinner.

Albert Bond has been suffering with a felon on the second finger of the right hand for nearly three weeks, but it is fast healing now.

The M. E. church society has purchased five dozen chairs for a temporary seating for the new church and they are expected here next week.

John Bartell is building a couple of rooms on the north side of his restaurant building and will occupy the same as a dwelling for the present.

The Republican has been purchased by P. P. avis and the outfit is now located in Mr. Tubbs' building, second door south of the JOURNAL office.

We publish a notice of change in firm of the Montrose Store. Mr. M. J. Gayhart, we understand, will remain to greet his many friends and customers as before.

Should this judicial district be divided, as is now proposed, we understand that W. W. Wood, of Rushville, is talked of as judge for this district. A better selection could not be made.

Our callers have been "too numerous to mention" this last week, and from among them our subscription list has been increased. Call again gentlemen and bring your friends along.

A communication from Glen was left out this week because the author did not sign his name. Do not forget that all communications must be signed by the author in order to insure their insertion.

Mr. Edward Martin, formerly of Cass county, arrived in Harrison Tuesday and will take land, probably near his brother Henry, south of town. He is exceedingly well pleased with the country like all others who view it.

Mr. S. Woods, of Atkinson, father of Jud Woods foreman of the Herald office, arrived here Tuesday. He is well pleased with the country and thinks our future will be a bright and prosperous one. He intends returning home today.

The question of the annexation of Canada and also of the removal of the capital from Washington is being agitated by some of the papers. The former question should be settled first. Of course if Canada is not annexed the capital will finally go to Omaha, but there is time for all that.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Garton and family, of War Bonnet, left last week for Marathon, Iowa, to visit with Mr. Garton's parents. They expect to be gone several weeks and on the return trip will visit Mrs. Garton's parents in Dakota. We wish them a safe and pleasant journey. The JOURNAL follows to keep them posted on Sioux county happenings.

The case of state of Nebraska vs. Mahoney, charged with assault and battery upon the person of Pat Mahony, was tried in the county court last Thursday, and the jury, after being out all night, failed to agree. It is understood that there were four for acquittal and two for conviction. Attorney Westover, of Rushville, handled the county attorney in the prosecution, and Mr. Springer, of Harrison, an attorney for the defendant. The case closed on Friday morning, the 11th of January.

I don't forget to write it 1889.
After some annoying delay Mr. Tubbs' mill arrived yesterday.

H. Griswold received a new fire and burglar proof safe yesterday for use in his hardware store.

Mr. Wright and family spent several days with friends and relatives at Whiteley, returning yesterday.

Geo. Whitney has the contract and is at work, with several men, on the addition to Griswold's building.

Hanging in the sunshine, the thermometer registered 70 degrees above zero on New Year's day at Harrison.

The Methodist people are proceeding with arrangements that will probably result in securing an organ for the church.

Mr. P. avis has rented Mr. LeBrown's property and will move his family to town soon and occupy the same.

Mr. S. Barker had quite a severe dose of fever and ague last week and is quite sick at present. This is the first case of that disease we have known in the county.

DIED—The wife of Benjamin Bourret, near Bodare, December 25th, after having lingered and suffered for nearly three years with consumption. She was brought to Harrison and buried on the 29th. The services were conducted at the grave by Rev. J. A. Seaman, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, consisting of a few appropriate remarks touching the deceased, when she was buried according to the ritual of the Church. Mrs. Bourret leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss, together with many sympathizing friends.

ALEX.
El Galpin and Massey have set up house keeping in the dwelling of "Peter" fame, in rear of the bank building. Last Saturday night being their inebriatory night, the boys celebrated the event by serenading them. A double quartette of the musical talent, with their instruments, rejoiced to the vicinity of house soon after the occupants had retired for the night. Geo. Whitney played a short solo as an introduction, on the alto horn after which the canon and several other favorite pieces were rendered, among which was a parody on the Anvil chorus. The original piece would have been given but for the absence of the anvils. An extract from some renowned piece entitled "see you Hiding There," was thoroughly rendered by the well known artists, Messrs. Bartlett and Weir, on their favorite instruments, the dinner bell. After several other appropriate selections and the decorating of the building, with a few boxes and other accessories, in close proximity to the door, the meeting adjourned and the boys "set out" for the next morning of course.
