Grand Ball on the 18th.

Oats for sale at the lumber yard.

Call at Montrose—Gayhart & Son.

Corn and oats for sale at the lumber yard.

It was formerly Daniel but now it is "Dennis."

Farm machinery of all descriptions—Gayhart & Son.

Sioux county school warrants bought at the Bank of Harrison.

Geo. Klein is here on a business visit but may conclude to stay.

Of plows and harrows we handle the Bradley & Morrison. Gayhart & Son.

Mr. Jacob Kallmer, of Odebolt, Iowa, is here visiting his daughter Mrs. H. M. Warneke.

"D. P. Davis will be Harrison's next postmaster, reports to the contrary notwithstanding."—Herald.

Harrison at Washington D. C. and Harrison in Sioux county, Nebraska are no places for winged insects.

Esterly binders and mowers are the "Boss." They are durable and work first class. Gayhart & Son.

The Ketchum wagon is well known. There are no no flies on it. We sell them at right prices. Gayhart & Son.

The contest cases of Wm. Schonebauer and M. Kreins vs. Levi A. and T. B. Brumbaugh were quite interesting Tuesday.

Charley, will you approve of the appointment of S. H. Jones as postmaster or will you interpose a veto? Please don't.

F. F. Gray, in his communication in answer to Babcock's article, gets there to the Queen's taste in the Crawford Clipper.

D. P. Davis is "in the soup." In connection with this we here wish to say that there are oats for sale at the lumber yard.

Samuel Holiday Jones has been appointed postmaster at Harrison. In the language of Judge Hunter "whither are we drifting?"

Fancy green ribbon rosettes, suitable for St. Patrick's Day badges for sale at Mrs. Loutzenheiser's. Be sure to secure one for use at the ball.

Mr. Isador Richstein, one of our prominent German farmers, gave this office a pleasant call yesterday and left us two dollars on subscription.

Mr. John A. Pratt writes us to announce that the dance advertised to be held at his residence on the 18th, had been indefinitely postponed.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please get to the front and settle up as I need the money.

D. H. GRISWOLD.

Even if not in want of farm machines give us a call. We at all times are pleased to meet you. Our spring assortments of dry goods &c will soon be on hand. Gayhart & Son.

All parties knowing themselves to be indebted to me must settle their accounts by April 1st to save costs. You will find me at the old stand.

H. M. WARNEKE.

"I withdraw in favor of E. D. Satterlee, believing it to be for the best interests of the Republican party."—D. P. Davis. It is understood that Mr. Davis is not a candidate for the appointment as postmaster at Harrison.

Mr. Lewis Gerlach exhibited on our streets last Saturday his fine three-year-old stallion Fred. The animal is a beautiful dark bay 17 hands high and weighs 1480. His sire is an imported Clydesdale and his dam a half blood. He is an unusually well built animal with fine carriage, good action and a kind and gentle disposition.

H. M. WARNEKE has sold to W. R. Smith & Son his store building together with the contents and lot upon which it is situated. Smith & Son took possession Monday and are now putting a stock of new dry goods and fresh groceries. From a several year's acquaintance with this firm we recommend them for square, honest dealing.

Oats for sale at the lumber yard.

Jacksonian Democracy in the person of A. J. B. has again retired for a 20 years' sleep, like Rip Van Winkle, but we trust that the latter part of that famous individual's record (the awakening) will never be realized in the case of Mr. B.

Mr. Wm. C. O'Conner left this place last Monday for his former home at Wayne, this state. Mr. O'Conner had been here several days viewing the country and was finally located by Mr. Reidy on a half section of land four miles south of town making a filing of timber culture and homestead rights. A finer piece of land could hardly be found and Mr. O'Conner is highly pleased with the country. He will return in a few weeks with his family, goods and effects.

H. T. Conley has received a copy-right deed of Sioux county for, the exclusive right to the use of the Tyler Compendious System of Abstracts. This system will be used by Conley, Reidy & Pollard. It is the simplest and most compact system extant. He also received Tyler's Digest of laws of all the states and territories, governing and affecting the conveyancing of real estate. Do your business with Conley, Reidy & Pollard.

The lecture by Major Scamahorn, at the church Saturday evening, was not so well attended as we would like to have seen, and we assure those who were not present that they missed a real treat. The Major's experience was a thrilling one and he narrates it in a most pleasing manner, sometimes humorous and again pathetic. The audience was well pleased and greeted H. T. speaker with many a round of approbative applause.

Monroe Creek &c.

Several boys are going to pull out soon for the range.

Some people are like spiders—always weaving nets for others.

A dance at John Nolan's on the 14th. instant.

Some are like bees—always collecting sweet, but don't you meddle with them.

Jno. Scott has built and is living on his homestead.

Some are like flowers—always pleasant to the eye.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bigelow were visitors at B. F. Thomas' last Sunday.

Some are like willows—always weeping over the stream, yet it moves on just the same.

Miss Alice Thomas is visiting on the divide this week.

Some are like a vane and move just as the wind turns.

Farmers are seeding with a will.

JUNIOR.

Grammercy.

Wm. Munson and Jack Blackwell are keeping back the range cattle and are holding headquarters at Geo. Turner's.

A new school house is being built in district No. 20, and if the work goes on as it has for the past week it will be ready for use by the 20th.

S. J. Leeling is turning over the soil and has commenced farming in earnest.

W. F. Shepherd had a well drilled on his homestead and found abundance of water.

L. Pfost made his appearance at the head of Squaw Saturday and rode away with one of our citizens for carrying a short gun the day before.

James Davis has hired out to Geo. Turner for the coming summer.

Miss O'Conner, of Hat creek, was canvassing for the book known as the Wild West, in this vicinity last week. We wish her success.

JOHNIE COME LATELY.

War Bonnet Warblings.

Waller Woodruff's girl is the boss broncho buster of the valley. The school ma'am is just as good with the exception that when she gets tired riding and wants to get off she gets off on the wrong side of the pony.

Firefly made a mistake, as Warbler never said anything about John Thornton or any one else chopping wood for the school house.

Borer has been boring Wilber Shepherd with his "sour disposition" while boring a hole in the ground but as he left a well 71 feet deep with 55 feet of water, Wilber feels very well repaid for the boring.

Shades of our grandfathers! who would have thought that that little "doggerel" would have hurt Eli so? How very unfortunate for him that he should have borrowed that particular JOURNAL and wasted his valuable time reading it, as his feelings are so awfully badly hurt. How very fortunate it would be if he should borrow another one or two; he might read something that would kill him entirely. I'll wager two bushels of next year's turnip crop that if the truth were known, this same Eli lets his old mother chop the wood, his wife and his daughter carry in the wood and water and do the drudgery generally.

It is a pity about what we don't know, but what we do know and what Junior don't know would make a large book. But the idea of his revealing the time of my birth. That was the "most unkindest cut of all," (just as though I could help it). As Junior was born so many years before we were not aware of the phase of the moon in which he was born, but it seems to us that the only mistake in the time of his birth is that he was born at all. Be that as it may, we think the record of births in our family will compare favorably with his any time he wants to compare notes.

WARBLER.

The War Bonnet warrior is on the war path, and you hear his whoop lately. We think he must have been a little rattled or he would not have gotten so completely off his nest onto the straw as to charge "Borer" with what he never said anything about. Said Borer never mentioned said Ex-County Official, and now sir, please don't borrow any trouble about us and the public as we stand in together all right. So far as attending to our own business is concerned; we consider it a part of our business when we feel inclined that way, and when you try to bluff us off by saying that you have most of the posts marked, and that "there are lots of posts over there in that other canyon," &c. &c. You are barking up the wrong sapling, that's all.

BORER.

W. H. Johnson is staying with the Jack Walls claim but is talking of moving to the Cheyenne river.

Ed. Sandy is cutting logs for S. W. Kemp.

Mr. Davenport is putting up a fence around his claim.

Mr. Fraizer is building an addition to his house.

James Green is helping C. H. Rigdon on his new house.

John Decker is working at Crawford. Quite a number of cattle have disappeared from White river in the last few months.

Dance at S. W. Kemp's on the 6th.

"EXPERIENCE AS COMPARED WITH WOEFUL IGNORANCE"

Will One Who Knows excuse our using the same heading that he did to his article of the 25th in the Herald? but as it is appropriate and fits his case exactly we take the liberty of using it. He charges the editor of the JOURNAL with misrepresenting facts in regard to the amount of land fit for agricultural purposes, which he did not, but is one who never farmed any beyond raising a small garden, a competent judge of farming land? I believe that you, three or four years ago, claimed that nothing could be raised in this country except along the creeks where it could be irrigated, (and which has proved to be the poorest land we have) and because you have carried a compass and been on nearly all the land in the county and pronounced some of it unfit for farming you consider it a settled fact that it never can be farmed, but we as herd law men and FARMERS see fit to differ with you and consider the epithet "woefully ignorant" applicable to yourself. As for our herd law friends that he seems to hold in such disrespect, they are certainly as honest and more industrious and fully as intelligent as the cattlemen of Sioux county for have you ever heard of a precinct in Sioux county settled by farmers, returning a vote eight times as large as the actual number of voters? If One Who Knows will look at the way some of his particular free range friends act toward their neighbors he would find that instead of a calf he had a full grown hog by the ear. We see that you tend toward the same point as your honored A. J. Babcock, that is "If you don't like the robberies and large voting in Sioux county why don't you get out of it?" but my Dear Sir, we came to stay and we think that the ones that are committing the robberies and creating the trouble in Sioux County are the ones that will eventually have to move on.
