Ed. Weir paid Crawford a business visit last week.

Geo. Walker was in Chadron on business last Friday.

W. T. Moore has moved into his new house on the claim.

Mr. H. Kelly has been engaged to clerk for W. R. Smith.

Albert Taylor moved on to his pre-emption south of town last week.

Dave Bartlett is now chief engineer at Clark's saw mill over in Wyoming.

C. L. Tubbs is building a bank barn on his place adjoining town, 14 by 30, two stories.

Mr. Wm. Schonebaum is building a house on his claim in the valley and expects to move there soon.

A horse power is now arranged so that the pumping at the livery barn may be done even if the wind doesn't blow.

Mrs. Harvey Weir, who has been visiting in Harrison for several weeks past, left last Friday to rejoin her husband at Rushville.

One of the largest crowds of people that Harrison has witnessed for some time was on our streets and in the business houses Saturday.

The accommodation train on this branch now runs two passenger coaches as far as Lusk in order to accommodate the increased traffic.

Several families and many teams are reported as on their way to Harrison having left their homes in Iowa and other places several days ago.

The large cistern at the corner of C. H. Andrews & Co's building has been cleaned out and the pipes arranged so that it may fill during the next rain.

Mr. M. J. O'Connell was in town Saturday assisting Thos. Reidy in delivering nursery goods. To Mr. O'Connell is due the credit of a large per cent of the sales for the same.

Robt. Parish has purchased the Cook tree claim lying a half mile north of town and placed a homestead filing thereon. He went to Chadron to make the filing last Monday.

The grading for an extension of the Cheyenne & Northern railroad was let last week. It is the intention to extend that road to an intersection of the Elkhorn road this summer.

Homer Priddy has rented the restaurant of Mr. Taylor and is fitting it up in better shape than ever before and extends an invitation to the hungry to come and eat at 25c. per eat.

John F. Schultz received last week a sixteen foot wind engine and a feed grinder including all the necessary attachments. He will erect the same on his place and be ready for business soon.

The splendid rain of last week which moistened the earth here to the depth of ten inches did not visit our friends over in the valley quite so plentifully but we hope the small showers of this week has watered them profusely.

The Black Hills Nursery, Hale & Thompson proprietors, made a delivery of a fine lot of fruit trees and smaller fruits at Harrison Monday amounting to near $300. Mr. Thompson was here in person superintending the delivery.

Miss Addie Amer, of Cottonwood, and Mrs. Sisson, of White river, were in Harrison a couple of days last week taking a teachers examination before Superintendent Cox. Both are teachers of considerable experience having taught several terms in this and other counties.

The Oklahoma fever has not spread to any great extent in north-western Nebraska. Up to date there have been but three cases reported. Two of these have gone to see, and the other is thinking of doing so. The antidote for this fever that is raging so extensively elsewhere is the splendid country that surrounds us.—Chadron Democrat.

Jim Pierce, who was working for Mr. Zambrunnen about fifteen miles north-west of here, last Saturday while chopping wood let the ax slip and cut a bad gash in the top of his foot. He came to town with Andy Christian. Dr. Shaffer dressed the wound and now Jim is going around on crutches with fair prospects of being able to walk soon.

As a sort of April fool joke the editor of the Advocate was on the first day of the month appointed postmaster for the village of Oelrichs. John Wanamaker did it with his little gold pen. It is perhaps useless to remark that the gift did not come without solicitation, because that would be untrue, and no Sunday school scholar of John Wanamaker's should tell an untruth.—Oelrichs Advocate.

The doors for the court house vaults arrived Tuesday.

Con. Lindeman moved to his homestead in the valley Tuesday.

Allowed accounts against Sioux county bought by Jones & Verity.

Mrs. L. C. Pollard and daughter returned to their home at Nehawka last Tuesday.

Geo. Whitney left Harrison last Saturday returning the first of this week, having visited at Rushville and Hay Springs.

Thos. Reidy made a delivery of nursery stock at Harrison last Saturday and at Montrose Monday. The number of trees and shrubs all told was about 60,000.

Oklahoma will be opened on next Monday, the 22, and if the surgeons, coroners and undertakers don't do a pretty big business for the first few weeks it will be a surprise to many people.

General Hatch, of Fort Robinson, died suddenly last Thursday morning from a stroke of apoplexy brought about by a fall from his carriage received a few days before. The many friends of General Hatch are sincerely mourning the loss of the gallant and distinguished soldier.

Farmers are justly jubilant over the prospects for crops in consequence of the splendid rain that has been falling. Small grain is for the most part just nicely up, and the value of the present dampness cannot be estimated too high in calculating on the benefit it will be to this class of crops, and as it is yet quite early it will doubtless be the cause of a great deal more being sown. The rain has also been beneficial in extinguishing the numerous prairie fires throughout the county that were doing more or less damage.—Chadron Democrat.

A large amount of damage was done last Saturday by a prairie fire which started some four miles south-west of town, near the Keenan farm, and sweeping the country to Ash creek, burning 25 tons of hay belonging to J. H. Underwood, then running south to the farm of the Beers Bros. who lost from 30 to 40 tons of hay and millet, then southeast to the farm of Charley Annis, burning his barn and corn crib, with a large amount of corn, then his granery, with 30 bushels of oats, and farming tools, in fact everything he had except his dwelling house, and then running south to the farm of Marion Cummings it consumed his barn, granery, tools, fences, and leaving him entirely destitute of everything except his team, house and household goods. The origin of these fires should be looked into and the parties guilty of setting them should be handled without gloves and given the full extent of the law.—Whitney Champion.

Five Point Items.

Miss Lizzie Murphy is on the gain.—Mr. Bannon is doing ten acres of breaking for Pat Walsh.—Dave Rands and James Bourret started for the 4 W ranch to work, last Thursday.—A girl at Gibsons this trip.—Mr. Riley is working on his house this week.—Wm. Corcoran is breaking his steers.

Boggy Chat.

There was mass at Montrose last Sabbath.—The Murphy family that was quite sick is better.—Mrs. T. Holly is very sick. Dr. Andrews was called down post haste the 15th.—There are three petitions in circulation for the Bodard postoffice.—J. Gibson is getting wire at Crawford to fence with.—Miss Conner's school is getting along nicely and she has a goodly number of scholars. Several of the old folks have visited the school already.—The old O K ranch is graced with the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Post now-a-days. We are glad to welcome them to the valley.—There are several gray wolves ranging on Boggy that will do bad work some of these nights.

Antelope Talk.

Farmers are busy breaking and sowing grain. From all appearances Mr. F. Stemmer intends to raise enough for two or three, he expects company no doubt.

The broad sunflower grin can be seen on Mr. Gerlach's face. He says it's a boy. His troubles are all little ones and he is happy. He sent for a suit of clothes but has had to countermand the order owing to his getting so portly of late.

S. R. Storey has returned to Kendall's mill to work.

Prairie fires have been raging between Antelope and Indian creek.

Otto Atunson has returned to his homestead. W. H. Zimmerman is busy sowing oats and preparing for a big crop. From all appearances he intends to get someone to help in the near future.

Montrose is ouing up by degrees. A blacksmith shop is being added notwithstanding the D. & M. so near.

Antelope precinct still rejoices 20 for and 6 against herd law. We haven't seen any of the cattle men running over each other in the rush to leave the state. We hope and believe they will conclude to stay.

We wish to know,—what has become of the museum writer, Uncle B.—Who will be Harrison's permanent postmaster?—if when the Judge meets an old acquaintance and treats him with silent contempt it is contempt of court or to court?

For God, and Home, and Native Land.

The liquor dealers say that they are trying to "improve and elevate" their business, but there has been no appreciable improvement in the quality of DRUNKARDS they have turned out of late.—Index.

Helen Chalmers, daughter of the noted divine, devotes her life to work among the drunken men and their families, in Edinburgh. She lives in poverty and suffering in an alley and can be seen on dark nights, with her lantern, going through the lanes of the city hunting up the fallen and wicked and bringing them to her reform school. She is known and loved by every one.

"A SHOE manufacturer in Portland," relates the Brunswick, Me. Telegraph, "being asked to assist in providing bread for the suffering poor, said that he would contribute to the extent of 100 sacks of flour and 100 bushels of meal, one sack of flour and one bushel of meal to be given to each man who might be found in Portland who neither kept a dog, drank rum or used tobacco, and was in need of bread. The first man has not appeared yet to claim the gift."

From the ringing words of our Postmaster General on the subject of prohibition we take a few extracts calculated to inspire encouragement in the hearts of the W. C. T. U. workers. Addressing a large audience in Bethany Sunday School Mr. Wanamaker said: "We should be temperate in all things; that means the use of tobacco and opium; it includes profanity and anger and impurity of life." Speaking of the broken hearted wives and children of the husbands and fathers who were dashed to pieces on the rocks in the wrecks of the American men-of-war at Samoa he said: "Right here in our city are broken hearted people, beaten against the rocks of adversity by this tide of liquor and license. The man who will not sign a temperance pledge, though he does not need it himself, to help a weaker brother, is not as much of a man as he thinks himself to be. What is the reason you won't stand out for the amendment, because you like a glass of beer? You say; 'I want to be free to take an occasional drink if I feel like it.' What influence keeps you from voting for the amendment? I ask, is it the influence of the glass of beer? There are thousands of men in this city who do not get drunk; a man may not drink at all and yet be under the influence of the liquor spirit: He will say, 'I am a temperance man, but I am in business and the liquor people deal with me, so I will say nothing against it. Now what influence is he under? It is the same with many a politician; he is afraid he won't get votes so he is silent on the liquor question. When a minister or teacher refuses to speak out on this question he is ruled by the liquor interests. The drunkard who votes for prohibition is a freer man than the total abstainer who carries water on both shoulders and then votes for liquor or to put it in the harness of high license. Just as the saloon keeper must answer for every glass he sells, so we must answer for voting for liquor. It is simply a question of whether or not we are in favor of the saloon. It isn't a question of high license. The quibble that prohibition does not prohibit has nothing to do with it. The law against stealing does not prevent stealing. The same power that puts the amendment on our constitution will attend to the enforcement of the law. God is going to count the votes. Vote for prohibition and you'll be voting for Him, for order, for religion, and for the highest civilization. He will see every ballot."
