

The Sioux County Journal.

Published every Thursday.

Subscription Price, $2.00

L. J. Simmons, Editor.
Entered at the postoffice at Harrison as second class matter.

With this issue THE JOURNAL is enlarged to a six-page paper, and as such it will appear in future until the business will warrant us in again increasing the size of the paper. It is the intention of the publishers to make THE JOURNAL a newspaper, in the fullest sense of the word, and to keep it fully up to the standard. We shall endeavor to merit the support of every citizen of Sioux county and shall work for the advancement of Harrison and Sioux county in every way that properly comes in our line. In our efforts we ask the assistance of all who take an interest in the welfare and future prosperity of our town and county. If the paper merits it, we shall take it as a favor if you will speak a good word for THE JOURNAL to your neighbors and ask them to subscribe. If you have friends in the east who you wish to keep posted in regard to the growth and prosperity of the country, call and have THE JOURNAL sent to them. It will give them more information than for you to write them two letters each week, and will cost less money and relieve you of a good deal of trouble.

We have ordered a large assortment of new type and material, and will be prepared to fill all orders for job printing in a neat and tasty manner, on short notice, and respectfully solicit the patronage of all in need of anything in that line.

Trusting that our efforts to advance the interests of the town and county will be appreciated by the people and recognized in a substantial manner, we remain,
Very Respectfully,
THE PUBLISHERS.

The farmers of Sioux county ought to take hold of the matter of an agricultural society so that an exhibition can be made of the products, stock and industries of the county. There is nothing that does more to advertise the interests of a county than a well conducted county fair. It brings the farmers in competition for the various premiums, thereby creating a friendly rivalry and all strive to produce the best. It gives the people from all parts of the county an opportunity of meeting together and becoming acquainted with each other and exchanging views as to means and methods of obtaining the best results from their labors. It will give all a chance to come to Sioux county and see what can be produced from the soil and at the same time see what kind of people have settled here. An agricultural society is strictly for the benefit of the farmers and it is their duty to take the matter in hand and see that it is carried out successfully. There is no time like the present to begin this movement, as each year the land will become more valuable and the expense of securing suitable grounds for fair purposes will increase. Let some of our leading farmers take hold of this matter and give it a start.

In talking with those living in the valley north of the pine ridge, all say that there must be some better roads provided before the farmers can market their grain at this place. It is time some active and decisive arrangement be made for giving the settlers an outlet from the valley to Harrison. It is to the farmers that the business men of this place must look for their business, or at least for the greater part of their trade, and it must be shown in a substantial manner that we want them to come here with their produce and buy their supplies. If we are rightly informed there are no funds in the county treasury that can be used for that purpose so that other means must be devised. Would it not be well for some of the business men to circulate a petition to have a public meeting held for the purpose of devising ways and means for this or any other purpose that will be of benefit to Harrison and Sioux county? Who will take the lead in this matter?

The officers of the various school districts of the county should remember that they are working under the new law, and that it provides that they shall make a return of all taxes voted at the regular school meeting, to the county superintendent and also to the county clerk, on or before the first Monday in July. As the first Monday in July falls on the first day of the month, it will be necessary to get the reports filed not later than next Monday. In case of failure to do this it will leave the districts without any revenue, as there is no other provision for levying a tax for school purposes. It is very hard to get this matter straightened out for the laws are not yet published, and there is but little information to be had on the subject.

On last Friday Mrs. Lucy Hayes, wife of ex-President Hayes, was stricken with paralysis at her home in Fremont, Ohio. At last accounts she was still unconscious.

A real estate man at Gering, Neb., by the name of Franklin, thumped a young fellow by the name of Houston for destroying his domestic happiness. He let the scoundrel off too easy.

In the eight-oared race between the Yale and the Pennsylvania crews on the Thames on last Friday evening, the former were victorious. It is reported that it was a walk away for the Yale crew.

J. S. Clarkson says one reason why democratic postmasters should be turned out is because the people decided last November that they should not be retained. That reason ought to be good enough to satisfy even the democrats who are turned out.

Wyoming women don't propose to be left when the territory is admitted. It will be very difficult to get a constitution adopted which has not a woman suffrage clause in it, but it is likely that very little opposition to such a provision will show up in the convention.—Lusk Herald.

A wealthy and miserly merchant of Franklin, Ky., by the name of William J. Hilton, while on his death bed called for a nail keg that was in his room and ordered a Negro attendant to burn it. It was afterward discovered that the keg contained bills and bonds to the amount of about $30,000.

On June 18th, the Bothnia, one of the Cunard line of steamers, left New York carrying 500 Sunday School teachers who were going to London to participate in the celebration of the foundation of the first Sunday School by Robert Raikes, 115 years ago. The ceremonies occur on July 1st.

The Minneapolis & St. Paul railroad company recently executed a mortgage for $150,000,000. This sum will clear up all indebtedness of the company and place the road in possession of funds sufficient to make necessary repairs. As the making of the loan secures the company a reduced rate of interest, there is a saving of a vast sum each year.

The man Martin Burke, who was arrested at Winnepeg, for complicity in the Cronin murder, has been identified as the one who had the furniture hauled to the cottage where the crime was committed. The expressman who did the work picked Burke out from among fifty-two prisoners. The mystery will no doubt be cleared up in the near future.

The school census of Nebraska shows that there are three hundred and seventy-five thousand children in the state, or a total population of nearly eleven hundred thousand. In 1879 the population of the state was 122,993; in 1880, 452,402, and in 1885, 740,000. These figures tell the story of Nebraska's marvelous growth from infancy to robust manhood.—Bee.

Commissioner Tamm believes that $4 per month should be the smallest pension paid by the government and he has accordingly instructed pension agents to forward him the names and addresses of all parties drawing a smaller pension, in order to direct said pensioners to go before the proper medical board for re-examination and revoting with a view of getting their pensions raised to $4 per month.

We would respectfully call the attention of the street commissioner to the adage that "a stitch in time saves nine," and that a little work on some of the streets will not only save a good deal of work in the future, but will be a great improvement in the appearance of the town. If some work was done on the street leading to the depot, throwing up a grade in the center of the street and cutting a ditch or gutter on each side, it would be much better than to have the water cutting a winding ditch through the center of the street.

Lord Coleridge, chief justice of England, has decided that the Duke of Cambridge, commander in chief of the British army and first cousin of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, must answer to the charge of assault on Reporter Simms on the occasion of the recent fireman's parade, before an ordinary police magistrate, just the same as other mortals. It seems that the imperial family in England must learn that the masses have some rights which they are bound to respect and the decision of Lord Coleridge is received with great satisfaction.

We would respectfully urge the people of Harrison to make it a point to look after the strangers who come here. There is scarcely a day passes but newcomers arrive, either by rail or wagon and our people should see that they are made to feel that we want them to settle among us. Do not go at them in a manner that will lead them to believe that there is a desire to bleed them, but treat them so that they will feel that the citizens of Harrison are good-hearted and hospitable, and a good class of people to live among. This is the duty of no one man, but of every one who has the prosperity of the town and county at heart.
