-This is the day to give thanks.
-See Reidy & Pollard about a loan at once.
-Now is the time when wood on subscription is very acceptable.
-WANTED - I want to buy some good year-old steers. J. G. MORRIS.
-And still the train service on this line of the Elkhorn has not been improved.

-Reidy & Pollard can let you have money to secure your final proof if you call at once.
-If your teeth ache call on U. E. Koons, dentist. He will be here Dec. 1st and 2nd - two days only.
-Don't forget that THE JOURNAL is prepared to do all kinds of job printing in a neat and tasty manner, on short notice.

-U. E. C. Koons, dentist will be in Harrison on December 2nd and 3rd to attend to any business in his professional line that may come to him.
-In another column appears an advertisement of C. H. Andrews telling of his stock of holiday goods. He has a nice line and invites all to call.
-PAY UP - All indebted to the Buffalo Lumber Company must call and settle by the 1st of December, either by cash or secured note. Don't postpone the matter.

-The store of Ross & Thompson was closed this morning by creditors. It was the result of the failure of the firm at Cheyenne, as the store here was doing a good business.
-A case growing out of the Gibson trouble which was noted some weeks ago, was before the county court yesterday, and an adjournment was had to some future date.

-Arrangements are being made for a Christmas tree and entertainment at the church. The various committees are at work and the result of their labors will doubtless be a fine time.
-Remember THE JOURNAL clubs with almost any paper in the United States read when you want anything in the line of papers or periodicals call and see us and we can save you some money.

-W. H. Larnell & Son received their new engine last Saturday. The boiler has been repaired and the entire saw mill put in good condition and after Dec. 1st a complete assortment of building lumber will be constantly on hand.
-Arrangements are being made by the teachers to have a meeting of the organization established at the institute last fall. The exact date has not been fixed, but it will doubtless occur during the holiday vacation. It is hoped that all the teachers and friends of education will attend if possible.

-The entertainment given at the M. E. Church on last Saturday evening by Miss Mary E. Harter was well attended and gave general satisfaction. A good many saw for the first time how those who are blind are taught to read and write and also learned many points of interest in relation to that class of unfortunate. The musical and literary productions were good.

-On last Monday morning Truax, the blacksmith, took his little boy and left the town. He had been drinking considerably on Sunday and we are informed that Mrs. Truax was afraid to stay at home and went to a neighbor's and spent the night, and the next morning the boy packed a grip and taking the boy, who was his by a former wife, he departed for other parts. We understand that a number of accounts were left unsettled.

-Word was received from Judge Kincaid a few days ago adjourning the district court without day. This carries it to the first of the year, so that the date will not be fixed until the judge publishes up his list of dates for terms of court for the year 1890. By the action of Judge Kincaid Sioux county is saved the expense of a term of the district court for some time and this is quite an item, as there is so much money in the treasury and the interest will be saved. There are no cases on the docket which require immediate attention so it is believed that the term be postponed.

MARRIED.
ERDMANN - BREEL. - At the residence of the bride's parents, on Sunday, November 24, 1889, by Rev. Jas. Wallace, Mr. Albert Erdmann and Miss Bertha Breel.
-Reidy & Pollard are prepared to close loans to the amount of $50,000 on or before Dec. 10, 1889. A chance for those who have already proved up and not received their loan on account of the shut down to get money, and also for those who have advertised and whose proof will be made in a few days. Come in and make application at once.

-An amusing incident occurred at the M. E. church on last Sunday evening. After the pastor had closed his sermon, he announced that an opportunity would be given for any one desiring to unite with the church, and using the expression generally used on such occasions he stated that "during the singing of the next hymn the doors of the church would be open." The junitor was a new one and did not "catch onto" the meaning of the minister, but anxious to do his duty, as soon as the singing of the next hymn began, the junitor proceeded to open wide the entrance doors to the church. As the mercury was quite low it is easy to imagine that such a proceeding threw a coolness over the entire audience.

-The supply of water was exhausted in the public reservoir on Tuesday evening and then it was learned that the boiler was out of repair so that no more water could be pumped until it was fixed. It is to be hoped that such a state of affairs will not occur often for it puts the town in bad shape. If a fire should break out it would be almost impossible to do anything to check it, and great loss would result. The work on the large reservoir has stopped, as we are informed for the want of funds, and it is not known when work will be resumed. Had this been completed it would have enabled the town to have kept a much greater supply of water on hand for use in emergencies like the pumping apparatus becoming disabled.

-At the prize medal contest on last Friday evening the medal was awarded to Miss Emma Weir. These contests are well attended, as on the last evening as many were present as could be seated. It is a little discouraging to the ladies who have charge of the contests that so many of those expected to take part fail to put in an appearance. The ladies are working hard to give a series of entertainments both interesting and instructive and the people appreciate their efforts and it is certainly to be hoped that those who promise to assist will not fail them in future as it causes a disappointment to all. There are but two more medals to be contested for until there will be enough so that a class can be formed from those holding the silver medals to enter a contest for a gold medal, after which another series of contests for silver medals will begin.

-There appears to be a good deal of flax seed needed in this locality for seeding and our people do not know where to get it. It has been suggested that an effort be made to get the seed sent out by some of the eastern dealers and furnished the farmers with the agreement that the farmers sell the crop raised to the parties who furnish the seed, at a price agreed upon at time of making the contract. That is the way a large proportion of the flax seed is obtained by the farmers in the eastern part of the state and by that method the seed is kept free from foul seeds, for the dealers have the best machinery for cleaning it. The business men of Harrison should take hold of this matter and see if they can't assist the farmers in getting the seed necessary for use next spring. It has been demonstrated that this locality is well adapted to raising flax and its cultivation should be encouraged by all.

Montrose.
The infant court of Montrose was in session on November 25th, Justice M. L. Jordan officiating. Gerhard Reinders plaintiff and Herman Kourath was defendant. The difficulty was caused by damages claimed to have been done by a lot of hogs belonging to the defendant. The parties agreed to settle by arbitration and Geo. Heckman, Frank Tinckom and Frank Nutto were chosen to fix the damages. They decided that the defendant should pay $30 and costs, amounting to $52.70. The end may not be yet.

A team belonging to M. Gayhart & Son, became unmanageable while coming from Collins with a load of goods on Monday evening, and breaking loose the wagon, escaped from the driver and had not been found at the time of writing this.

The ball on last Friday night and jubilee on Saturday were well attended and all who attended had an enjoyable time.
A. LELAND.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of Truax, Snyder & Co., is dissolved, J. H. Truax retiring. The business will be continued by the undersigned under the firm name of W. A. Snyder & Son, and all collections made and debts of the old firm paid by them.
W. A. SNYDER,
HENRY SNYDER.
Dated November 28, 1889.

Boggy Chat.
Boggy school is closed.
Arnsberger & Co. have their saw mill boiler in the canyon and will soon start up steam.
The barbecue at Montrose was a success. There was lots of fun, several good speeches and a general good time. Mr. E. B. Price has added another building to his claim. It is a stable this time.

G. A. Greger has filed on a quarter section of land near the C. F. Coffee ranch and has his house contracted for and posts enough to fence.
WILD WEST.

Glen Hens.
J. N. Frazier is busy logging.
Joe Lecker is at work on his new house.
Wonder who stole the whiskey on election day.
Wonder how our friends? who thought they could carry the precinct with a satchel of whiskey feel about it now.

S. W. Kemp has built an addition to his house.
Forty-six voters didn't appear on election day in this precinct, but still we got there just the same.
F. F. Gray and wife have been visiting on White river.
One foot on each side of the fence election morning and both feet on the people's side at night, that is the way it was done.

John Fry has built new stables and is otherwise improving his claim.
A large bunch of cattle belonging to the New Hampshire Cattle Co., passed down the valley the other day enroute to the Charles Appert ranch where they will winter.
KICKER.
