—Corn at 50 cents a hundred at Turner's.
—Corn 50 cents per hundred at the lumber yard.
—FOR RESTAURANT property.
—Go to Dr. Clary, Chadron, to get your eyes, ears and throat treated.
—When you want a good square meal go to the Northwestern hotel.
—Remember you can buy corn for 50 cents per hundred at the lumber yard.
—Go to Dr. Clary, specialist in eye, ear and throat diseases. Office in Central Block, Chadron, Neb.
—The Northwestern hotel always takes good care of its guests. A trial will satisfy you that that is the place to stop.
—Farmers go to the lumber yard where you can buy corn for only 50 cents per hundred pounds.
—A. R. Kennedy is improving his farm by having a well put down. So our county is progressing.
—For comfort and good living go to the Northwestern hotel when in Harrison. Everything is done that can be to make it pleasant for those who stop there.
—The popularity of the Northwestern hotel has been gained by the pains taken to please guests of the house. People like to go where they are well taken care of.

—The county superintendent for a special examination of teachers to be held at the school house in school district No. 27, on Feb. 26th, 1890.

—By the dissolution of the firm of Jones & Verity S. H. Jones severed his connection with the firm and also with the Bank of Harrison, where he held the position of assistant cashier. This position is now filled by C. E. Verity, and C. E. Holmes retains his position in the bank as cashier.

—John Messing and Geo. Heckman have entered into partnership and engaged in the well and pump business. They also handle hydraulic rams and windmills, and have their headquarters at Montrose. THE JOURNAL is pleased to see preparations being made to furnish the settlers with mills and well fixtures.

—We are in receipt of the Settler's Guide, by the well known land authority, Henry N. Copp. It gives full instructions how to proceed in securing land under the government laws. It treats of homesteads, pre-emptions, timber and mining claims and gives all the latest decisions of the land department. They are for sale by Reidy & Pollard for 25 cents a copy.

—H. H. Russel came up from Glen on Monday and brought with him a sample of turnips raised by him last season, one of which measured thirty and one-half inches in circumference and with the top on weighed twenty-one pounds. That is a pretty fair sized turnip, and if vegetables grow to that size in a season like that of 1889 it is hard to estimate what can be produced in a season during which there is plenty of rain.

—A fair number of the voters of school district No. 7 attended the special school meeting on last Monday afternoon. All the meeting was called for was to elect a treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of John Thornton from the district. J. H. Groswood was elected, there being no opposition. Mr. Groswood will make an efficient school officer and will see that the interests of the school district are protected.

—The "Chinook" winds of last week caused the snow to disappear very rapidly and now the ground is mostly bare. The farmers have already begun to make preparations for beginning their spring work. They seem determined to get their crops in as early as possible. It is going to be a little inconvenient for some of them to get the necessary wheat for seed, but it is to be hoped that some way will be provided so that as large an acreage as possible can be put out. Every settler feels encouraged and the indications are that the number of residents in Sioux county will be largely increased during the coming season.

PERSONAL.

—Good flour at 20 cents a sack at Turner's.
—Corn 50 cents per hundred at the lumber yard.
—18 pounds prunes for one dollar at Turner's.
—14 pounds dried apples for one dollar at Turner's.
—12 pounds granulated or 14 pounds C sugar for one dollar at Turner's.
—We are informed that W. H. Larnell has sold his sawmill to C. L. Brooks, the transfer occurring on Monday. Mr. Brooks will operate the mill in future.
—We have not learned what Mr. Larnell intends doing.
—We should like to have every farmer who will properly plant, cultivate and harvest some sugar beets and deliver the same for shipment, report the fact to THE JOURNAL so that the proper showing can be made to the management of the Grand Island sugar factory. This is a matter of great importance to the people of Sioux county and should be taken hold of in a business manner.

—J. Jensen, who has been postmaster at Glen, has resigned and D. Klein has been appointed to fill the place. While Mr. Klein's place is close to the railroad track it is some distance from the stopping place and the mail will either have to be carried quite a long way, or else a mail hook put up so that the mail pouch can be caught on the fly as the train passes. It has not been learned when the change will take place.
—It is understood that L. O. Hull will begin quo warranto proceedings in the supreme court against Geo. Walker, in order to determine who is the rightful county attorney. That court will do justice in the matter, and there is one case in the reports of the decisions of the supreme court which governed the county board in the appointment of Walker, and as a rule the supreme court does not reverse its own decisions, but if the case is tried all parties will be satisfied.

—G. E. Lunsford met with a peculiar accident last Friday. He was hauling water and turned to shut down the cover on the top of the tank, when by some means he got his arm in such a position that his shoulder became dislocated. The joint was put in place and at last accounts he was doing well, but the mishap will disable him for some time. It will be quite a misfortune to Mr. Lunsford as he is dependant on his labor for a living for himself and family and can ill afford to lose the time he will be laid up.

—County Treasurer Gayhart has an orchard of five acres on his farm near Montrose which he put out last spring. During the summer all the trees did well but a few have died during the winter. These he intends to replace in the spring. He says he has no doubts that apples, as well as other fruits, can be grown here successfully. All unite in saying that this is one of the best localities for growing grapes that can be found. There is certainly no question that the wild fruits which grow in Sioux county are equal to those of any part of Nebraska, and if wild fruits thrive it is evident that tame fruits will also be a success. A little time and experience will settle that point.

—Among the most valuable works of travel and adventure in which actual occurrences form the foundation is "Stanley's Wonderful Adventures" by Hon. J. T. Hendley. It contains a complete history of Stanley's explorations on the dark continent covering a period of twenty years. Beginning with the first adventures of explorers on that continent the work describes all the various attempts to reach the source of the river Nile, until the feat was at last accomplished by Stanley. The book contains many fine illustrations, showing some of the features attendant upon the hazardous undertaking of seeking the source of the Nile, through a country filled with hostile savages. B. F. Thomas has the agency of the book for northwest Nebraska. He has canvassed a little in Harrison and vicinity and has met with the most flattering success.

—On last Thursday and Friday the pump was run, but as the pipes leading to the reservoirs were frozen up all that could be done was to pump the water and haul it to cisterns. This had to be paid for which is not just the right way to do, and as it is now there is no water in the public cisterns and the result is great inconvenience to the people. A farmer comes to town and is unable to get water for his team without a good deal of trouble, if he is fortunate enough to get it at all. Something ought to be done to remedy this trouble. If water cannot be had here the people will be obliged to go elsewhere and the result will be a great injury to the business of Harrison. If it is desired that the farmers come here to buy goods, care should be taken that it is made as pleasant for them as possible and a farmer does not care to go to a town and spend his money where he cannot even get water for his horses free. Cannot some means be devised for overcoming this difficulty?

E. E. Livermore spent Tuesday in Chadron.

L. O. Hull visited Chadron the first of the week.

THE JOURNAL is ordered to be sent to Mrs. J. T. Weir, Woburg, Mass.

G. Guthrie orders THE JOURNAL sent to S. Guthrie, Washington, D. C.

B. Rosa came up from Chadron this morning.

—THE JOURNAL is in receipt of a letter from the management of the sugar beet factory at Grand Island, and we expect to have plenty of seed, and full instructions as to planting, cultivating and harvesting the beets. The letter states that the company is anxious to assist the various counties in making a thorough test of sugar beets during the coming season. Now we should be pleased to have the farmers report to us the amount they will plant, properly care for and harvest and deliver. It is not desired to have any seed put in in a haphazard fashion and then the weeds be allowed to take the crop, but it is desired that the best possible results be secured from the experiment. As fast as the information is received at this office we will give it to our readers, and we hope all interested will co-operate with us in making an effective test.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The undersigned will be at Montrose on Saturday of each week prepared to receive taxes from Montrose, Five Points and Antelope precincts.
MARTIN GAYHART,
County Treasurer.

Married.

MOHR—TODY—At the residence of the bride's parents, near Wall Lake, Iowa, on Sunday, January 5, 1890, by Rev. Brown, Mr. A. W. Mohr, of Sioux county, Neb., and Miss Lora Tody, of Wall Lake, Iowa.

The groom is one of the solid farmers of Sioux county who came here to make a home and after erecting a cage, returned to his former home to secure the bird to occupy it. He has made many warm friends during his residence here who extend their best wishes to the newly married couple for a long and happy married life, and to the bride they extend a hearty welcome to Sioux county.

Harrison, Neb., January 22, 1890.

Dissolution Notice.

Mr. William T. Price, a justice of the peace, at Richland, Neb., was confined to his bed last winter with a severe attack of lumbago; but a thorough application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm enabled him to get up and go to work. Mr. Price says: "The remedy cannot be recommended too highly." Let anyone troubled with rheumatism, neuralgia, or lame back give it a trial and they will be of the same opinion. 50 cent bottles for sale by C. H. Andrews.

C. H. Andrews, druggist, desires to inform the public that he is agent for the most successful preparation that has yet been produced for coughs, colds and croup. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. The article referred to is Chamberlain's cough remedy. It is a medicine that has won fame and popularity on its merits and one that can always be depended upon. It is the only known remedy that will prevent croup. It must be tried to be appreciated. It is put up in 50 cent and $1 bottles. For sale by C. H. Andrews.
