THE ELECTION AT HOME.

BABLY MIXED IN SIOUX COUNTY.

Conley Elected, But the Official Canvass Necessary to Decide as to Commissioner.

The election in Sioux county on last Tuesday developed into very peculiarly mixed up affair. The fight on county attorney all along prior to Saturday appeared to be between Conley and Davis, with Hull running as a kind of a side show, but on Saturday it became evident that something was in the wind among the democrats and on Sunday Hull went to Montrose and a messenger came from there on Monday with a report. A caucus of the leading democrats was held and there was great activity among them. Workers, messengers and letters were sent out in all directions and the object of such work is explained by the following which is reported to us as substantially the contents of one of the letters sent out, and from the effect on the work of those to whom they were sent, it is safe to presume that they were all alike:

FRIEND CHRIS—Montrose has been heard from and Hull is the strongest man. A vote for Davis is a vote for Conley. Throw all the strength you can to Hull.
C. C. JAMESON,
C. H. WELLS.

D. P. Davis was out in the south part of the county and did not arrive here until nearly time for the polls to close, and consequently knew nothing of the knifing he was receiving at the hands of those for whom he had sold out those who nominated him two years ago, and for whom he prostituted his position as chairman of the republican county central committee in 1889, and to whom he looked for support in return for his past services. During the whole day the democratic workers put in solid work for Hull and when the votes were counted it showed 23 for Hull, 12 for Davis and 34 for Conley. Richards got 44 votes and Boyd 18 so that shows the strength of Conley to be nearly three times that of Davis among the republicans.

The hour has been changed in the belief that it will suit the majority of the people and an increased attendance is looked for.

—The first quarterly meeting of the M. E. church of Harrison will be held on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 8th and 9th. Quarterly conference Saturday, at 2 p. m. The presiding elder will be present. All are cordially invited.

—If the man who cut into a stack of hay belonging to me about three miles south of town and took therefrom about a load, will pay for the same, he will save trouble.
Wm. C. O'CONNOR.

—County Treasurer Gayhart has recently moved the house on his farm in Montrose precinct to a point near the north line of the place. This was done as water can be got at a less depth, and the location is better suited to arrange shelter for his stock.

—SEASONED LUMBER: We have a good supply of seasoned lumber constantly on hand at our mill on West Boggy. 10 and 12 feet $10.00; 14 and 16 feet $12.00 per thousand feet First-class native shingles always on hand. First-class $3; second-class $2 per thousand.
J. E. ARNER.

—The pound social at the church last evening, given for the benefit of Rev. Rorick, was quite well attended. A good supply of the necessities of life were contributed which will be duly appreciated by the pastor and his family.

—The school board have employed Mrs. Ida Olinger to take charge of the primary department of the school. The present school building will be divided into two rooms in order to provide for the two grades. From present indications it will not be long until the district will have to provide more room to accommodate the children. School will begin again next Monday.

—It is reported that in some precincts some men voted who were not legally entitled to. In some cases they were challenged and swore in their vote, and all such crimes should be prosecuted at the next term of the district court. The sooner it is demonstrated that illegal voting in Sioux county will be punished, the better it will be for law abiding citizens.

—O. P. Haines informs us that he expects to move his photograph outfit from here about Nov. 15th. If you have not got all the pictures you need of yourself and family it is time you were doing so or you will miss the opportunity. Mr. Haines' prices are much lower than those of other photographers. Do not delay.

The action of the supposed democratic allies of Davis must evidently have been with a view to achieve a democratic victory or else they thought that Davis might be elected and knowing his past record decided that it would not do to put him in the office of county attorney.

In the contest for commissioner three of the candidates are about even, while Knott is about 45 votes behind, with the vote of Cottonwood not known definitely as to that office and the indications are that Knott got nearly or quite enough votes to elect him, and Wilcox being the one next likely to win.

No returns have come in from Sheep Creek precinct, and it is evident that no election was held there, and the official canvass cannot be made until Saturday evening.

SHOT HIM DEAD.

Rufus Tate Meets his Death at the Hands of Henry Coker.

Claims Self Defense.

On Wednesday Sheriff Reidy received a telegram from Henry Coker stating that he was in the guard house at Fort Robinson and desired to give himself up to Sheriff Reidy for killing a soldier by the name of Rufus Tate.

The killing was done in Sioux county, at a place known as Handy's ranch, a coon dive, of which Coker was one of the proprietors. Tuesday was pay day at the post and that night Tate and some of the other soldiers went to Handy's ranch to spend the night. Tate got mad at one of the women and began to beat one of the women in a terrible manner and finally drew a knife and seizing the woman by the throat said he would kill her. She called on Coker to protect her and he took a rifle from behind the with which the place was provided, and shot into the wall above Tate, that individual turned, knife in hand, on Coker who retreated behind the bar, keeping his assailant off with his rifle, Tate attempted to climb over the bar when Coker pulled the trigger of the gun and Tate fell and soon expired.

This place has been a noted one for some time and a number of rows and shooting scrapes have occurred there, and the settlers in the neighborhood have wished to have the place cleared out, but did not like to make a complaint for fear that they would retaliate on the person or property of the complaining witness. The killing of a man there will certainly see that the place is cleaned out, and not allowed open again.

A hearing will be given Coker on Saturday.
