

How to get a sugar factory.

The latest report is that Boyd's plurality is but 144. A contest is expected.

The Herald has been reduced in size to a 6-column folio, one-half its former size.

The best sugar factory at Grand Island will distribute for raw material and work, in that neighborhood, $200,000.

It takes considerable gall for a member of the democratic county committee to ask to be appointed a court commissioner and to set up that he is a republican.

The latest report is that the independents have retained counsel and will contest the election of Boyd. That action will probably make the marriage of the democrats and independents, as proposed by J. Sterling Morton, a failure.

The report that the Louisiana lottery company is about to wind up its affairs and retire from business goes to show that the republicans passed at least one law at the last session which is working to the disadvantage of the democratic party.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The passage of a bill adopting the Australian ballot system should be one of the first duties performed by the next session of the legislature, and the law should be made to apply to the primary work of all parties, and extend to every voting precinct in the state.

Just twenty years ago the first horse butcher in Paris opened his shop. Since then there have been nearly 140 horse flesh shops started in the department of the Seine, and at the present time about 20,000 horses are killed every year in Paris for human food.

There is a larger emigration to northern Nebraska this fall, says a Sioux City, Iowa, exchange, than there has ever been before. Hundreds are settling on the rich lands in the northern tier of counties. Hundreds are finding homes along the Pacific Short Line.

It has been found since election that in one county the name of Capt. J. E. Hill was left off the republican tickets used and in another county the name of T. H. Benton was omitted on the republican tickets.

The senator and representative from this district are both republican. The party will be in the minority in both branches of the legislature and it is safe to say that a great number of bills will be introduced by members of the majority party in the line of new laws.

The greatest piece of audacity in the political field of Nebraska is the attempt of J. Sterling Morton to get a convention of democrats and alliance men to be held at Lincoln on January 8, 1891, for the purpose of forming a union.

Many old soldiers who contracted chronic diarrhoea while in the service, have since been permanently cured of it by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

A demand is already being made that the coming legislature pass a better law regulating the assessment of property, and the people should see that the demand is complied with.

A demand appears to be springing up all over the country for James G. Blaine to be a candidate for president in 1892. There is no question that he stands at the head of the list of American statesmen and an administration by him would be a brilliant one.

The second beet sugar factory in Nebraska has been secured by Norfolk and will be ready to take care of the crop of 1891. There is no question but the sugar industry will soon develop to a very great extent in this state.

The result of the old board of commissioners contracting debts in excess of the levy in 1889 are beginning to take shape. On last Friday Samuel Wessel, of Lincoln, filed a petition in the supreme court asking that a writ of mandamus be issued commanding the county commissioners of Sioux county to include in the estimate and levy for 1891 a sum sufficient to pay claims held by him amounting to $1,075.77.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale issued by Conrad Lindemann, Clerk of the District Court of Sioux county, Nebraska, upon a judgment and decree of foreclosure rendered in said District Court in favor of The Farmers Trust Company, a corporation existing under and by virtue of the laws of Iowa, against John Connor for the following amount, to-wit: $492.50, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from the 23d day of September, 1890, and $11.43 costs of suit and accruing costs, I have levied upon the following described real estate, to-wit: The southeast quarter (sec. 2) section twenty-eight (28), in township thirty-five (35), in range fifty-four (54), in Sioux county, Nebraska, and I will offer said real estate for sale on the 15th day of December, 1890, at 9 o'clock, p. m. of said day, at the front door of the court house in Harrison, in said county to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said order of sale then due in the sum of $492.50 and $11.43 costs, together with interest and accruing costs.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution issued by Conrad Lindemann, Clerk of the District Court in and for Sioux county, Nebraska, in favor of School District No. 1 of Sioux county, Nebraska, and against Edmund C. Lockwood, Charles F. Coffey, Robert O. Farish, E. A. Andrews, and Richard E. Lyman, and to me directed, I will at 10 o'clock, p. m. on the 1st day of November, 1890, at the house of Edmund C. Lockwood, on the southwest 1/4 sec. 28, in township 35, range 54, in Montrose precinct, Sioux county, Nebraska, offer for sale at public vendue the following goods and chattels, to-wit: Twenty five (25) head of two (2) year old steers and twenty five (25) head of one (1) year old steers, taken on said execution as the property of Edmund C. Lockwood.

There is no question that he stands at the head of the list of American statesmen and an administration by him would be a brilliant one and would also be satisfactory to the people.

The County Finances.

In the issue of the Herald of November 1, 1890, (the last before election) an article appeared, stating that the levy of 1890 was exhausted. In order that the taxpayers of the county may know just the financial standing of the county for the year 1890 we submit the following statement:

The total levy for 1890 foots up $7,788.95, which is divided into three funds, viz. road fund, bridge fund and general fund. The road fund levy was 2 mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which makes $1,038.32, and warrants have been issued against that fund to the amount of $46.00.

The above figures are as they appear on the records and it is but justice that the taxpayers know just the facts in the case, and it is also but justice to the county officials, especially the commissioners, that they be set right before the people.

Congratulatory.

Hugh Conley, formerly of Seward, was elected county attorney of Sioux county, at the late election, on the republican ticket.—Seward Blade.

The Leader is pleased to know that its old friend, H. T. Conley, formerly of Ansley, was elected county attorney of Sioux county at the recent election, on the republican ticket, and sends congratulations.—Broken Bow Leader.

A private letter from Harrison informs us that H. T. Conley was elected county attorney of Sioux county, after a hard campaign, with three candidates in the field. We congratulate Mr. Conley on his success, and are confident that he will make an excellent officer.—Seward Reporter.

Mr. H. T. Conley was elected county attorney of Sioux county on the republican ticket at the recent election. The many friends of Mr. Conley in this place will be pleased to learn this bit of good news, and they tender their congratulations to Hugh. He is a brilliant young man and an able attorney, and Sioux county will never have cause to regret her action in choosing him as her county prosecutor.—Ansley Chronicle.

School Book Legislation.

The discussion on the question of legislation against the school book trust is spreading to every section of the state and the opinion is unanimous that the time has come for this state to protect itself. The Friend Telegraph says on the subject that parties who are compelled to pay the exorbitant rate for school books should understand that it is not on account of any high profit made by the retail dealer, but on account of a school book trust entered into by all the publishers.

Rheumatism and catarrh, caused by impoverished blood, cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Many old soldiers who contracted chronic diarrhoea while in the service, have since been permanently cured of it by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Have you taken a cold? You can cure it promptly with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Railroad Records.

The report of the inter-state commission of the statistics of the railroads of the United States for 1889 is out. The aggregate mileage of the roads at the end of the year was 156,865.18. Thirty-three roads, each 1,000 miles or upwards, under one control.

The total capital of the roads consisted of $4,251,190,719 in stocks, and the bonds and other funded debt aggregated $4,321,858,023. During the year ending June 30 the roads carried 472,171,348 passengers and 589,689,573 tons of freight.

The average cost of carrying a passenger a mile was 1.993 cents and the average charge per passenger per mile was 2.165 cents, leaving the average profit per passenger per mile 0.172 cents, or nearly 11 mills.

The average cost of carrying one ton of freight per mile was 0.583 cents and the average charge was 0.822 cents, making the average profit on one ton per mile 0.239 cents, or a little over 24 mills.

The total number of employees killed in railway accidents was 1,972; injured, 20,028. Total number of passengers killed, 310; injured, 2,146. Total number of outsiders killed, 3,451; injured, 4,135.

Less than three passengers were killed out of every 4,000,000 that travelled on trains during the year. The rate was one killed out of every 1,570,000 that boarded the cars.

In this connection it is well to call attention to the fact that a large majority of persons killed and injured by the cars lost their lives or incurred their injuries at grade crossings.

When the report for the year 1890 is out it will doubtless show a still further decrease in railroad earnings.

For lame back there is nothing better than to saturate a flannel cloth with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on the affected parts.
