

THE SIOUX

VOL. 6

HARRISON, IOWA

THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL

L. J. Miller, Editor and Proprietor.

MEMORANDUM

One-year advance	1 00
Three-month advance	1 00
Single copy	1 00
Foreign postage	1 00
Advertising	1 00
Subscription	1 00
Postage	1 00
Carriage	1 00
Printing	1 00
Stationery	1 00
Telephone	1 00
Light	1 00
Water	1 00
Gas	1 00
Coal	1 00
Food	1 00
Laundry	1 00

It's "year-of" day.
 The first issue is to E. H. Jones.
 Several loads of wood on this office.
 The regular meeting of the W. C. T.
 will meet on Saturday, Jan. 3, 1901.
 The Journal and the Omaha Weekly receive year for $2.75, cash in advance.
 It was here to Mrs. J. H. Tru-mper Monday and had but a few passengers stops the nauseous of anarchy, and curbs the com-1,000 new soldiers in during 1891 to take up land.
 a few
 to the organ-
 ty are requested
 on Tuesday even-
 on organization.
 At the church this
 of musical and lit-
 all gathered to be
 of space outside the
 our relation.
 received here this morn-dead body of a man had been White River. It was a strong by a tramp. Coroner Stafer to investigate the matter.
 the inclemency of
 a good attendance was had till last evening and evening spent by all pres-evening was kept up until the
 was last evening.
 was again discussed by Mrs.
 of her own

PERSONAL

A. J. Babcock arrived in Harrison last Friday.
 County Treasurer Gayhart was in Harrison on Tuesday.
 A. E. Dow contributed on subscription on last Monday.
 Sam Tobbets was in Harrison on Monday and called at our office.
 E. P. Maine added to our comfort on last Monday, on subscription.
 Wm. Higgins begins a new year by enrolling himself as a reader of THE JOURNAL.
 Judge Barber spent Sunday at the Agate Springs Stock Farm of J. H. Cook.
 Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Turner arrived home on Monday from their visit to Alliance.
 H. A. Fridly and family and Mrs. D. M. Sutton left yesterday to spend the winter in Iowa.
 B. B. Smith writes us that he intends to attend the state teacher's association the last of the month.
 Leonard Daut left on Monday for a visit to his old home in Pennsylvania. He will be gone some months.

A Tin Wedding.

Tuesday, Dec. 30th, was the tenth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Williams and in the evening their friends numbering between thirty and forty were a raid on them at their home and proceeded to take possession and make matters interesting for the worthy couple. The evening was spent in pleasant pastime, and social conversation, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. The party took a supply of edibles with them and refreshments were served. A number of useful and ornamental articles suitable to the occasion were presented to Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Williams to commemorate the close of the first decade of their married life and at a late hour the party broke up extending many wishes for a long continued and happy married life.

An Entertainment.

The four months term of school in Dist. No. 3 on White River has just closed with a very successful exhibition of Christmas

CAR

Bargains
Groceries

NEW REPEL MARLIN