J. E. ARNER.

A few days ago T. O. Williams went to his farm and noticed the cellar door was open and on investigation he found a man in there helping himself to potatoes. There has been no arrest, but it is safe to presume that Mr. Williams read the riot act to his visitor in good shape. There are some people who take advantage of the absence of property owners to steal and injure property and some of them may have to answer in court for their acts.

The crystal wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wright was celebrated at the family residence. A large number were present and a very pleasant evening was spent. An elegant supper was served. The host and hostess were made the recipients of a number of useful and ornamental presents, and at near midnight the party broke up, all wishing that the couple would live to celebrate many anniversaries of their wedding.

A few days ago A. R. Kennedy saw some horses feeding near his place and on going near them he found one of them to be his colt which disappeared about ten weeks ago. There were four other horses with his and on Monday he drove them to town and turned them over to Sheriff Reidy to be advertised, and this morning it was learned that two of the horses belonged to J. W. Hunter and the other two belonged to a man by the names of Castle and all disappeared at about the same time. The animals had all been branded while gone.

Some of the farmers intend to meet at Harrison on next Saturday to see if ways and means cannot be devised for securing seed grain. The 600 bushels sent by the state is but a small per cent of what is needed. Every indication is favorable for an excellent crop season and if the farmers can get the seed to sow they will be in good circumstances next fall. If the railroad companies and elevator men could be induced to loan seed on contract the farmers would willingly pay a good rental therefor. It is getting about time for the matter to be settled for the spring time is near at hand.

On Saturday it began to snow and it kept it up until some time Sunday night, without even stopping to take breath, and several inches of the beautiful fell during the storm. Ten weeks ago last Monday snow fell and the ground has not been bare since. The ground hog got in his work in good shape for six weeks and now, according to the old sign, the next six Sundays will be wet. If that prove true no one need fear for a lack of moisture in this year of grace, and the result will be that every acre of crop put in in Sioux county will yield an abundant reward to the farmer.

The test Artesian well plan is attracting the attention of the people. A gentleman living in the east part of the county read the proposition of H. T. Zerbe in THE JOURNAL and wrote to Judge Barker that he would put down a test well to a depth of 800 feet for $750, or 1,000 feet for $1,000. He says he has been in the well business for twenty years and is anxious to see a test well put down in the county. He further states that if some one else gets the job of putting it down he will contribute $50 toward the work as proposed. That sounds like business. A start has got to be made and the sooner it is done the better. If no one has a better proposition to make than that of Mr. Zerbe let the work of raising the guarantee be taken up so that we may know just what can be done in the matter.

The JOURNAL once more desires to urge upon those who raised sugar beets last year to be sure and plant some of the beets this spring for the purpose of raising seed. Select beets which are conical shaped and taper nicely from the top down and which grow mostly under ground, and only those should be planted which do not exceed three pounds in weight. It is important that the best beets be used for growing seed, and those raised in sugar beets the above description. It is claimed by some that the beets raised from the first crop of American-grown seed were not very rich but beets from the second crop of seed are reported to have been richer in sugar than those produced from imported seed. If it is proven that Sioux county can produce beet seed of a good quality, a long stride will have been made in the development of the sugar industry.

Last week a car of wheat, about 600 bushels, came from the state committee for seed for the farmers of Sioux county. There were 400 applications for seed. Of these it is thought one hundred will not take any, so that will leave two bushels each for the remaining three hundred applicants, and on that amount each has to pay 25 cents freight. The county committee distributed some of the seed yesterday, and another distribution will be made on Saturday. When applicants come for their share they should come prepared to pay the freight charges and bring a sack with them to carry it home in. Some of the applicants seem to think that the amount is very small, but if each man puts his two bushels in the ground in good shape and properly cares for the crop, the yield will be a good deal more than supply the county with flour next year.

Resolutions Adopted by Deadman Alliance, No. 1793.

Whereas The government wood contractors are taking advantage of the fact that owing to the total failure of crops the settlers are compelled to cut and deliver to Ft. Robinson, cord wood at price $3.15 per cord; that they are working great hardships upon them. And

Whereas The said contractors are further taking the advantage by compelling them to take horses as part pay and at prices double their actual value. And

Whereas Said actions are damaging inasmuch as we cannot support our families and feed our teams, thus leaving our teams unfit for spring work: Therefore be it

RESOLVED That we endeavor to get control of the government contract by putting in bids at not less than $5.00 per cord and in case of failure to procure the same be it further

RESOLVED That we discourage the cutting and hauling of said wood by allowing none to be cut off our claims and prevent the hauling of any over private roads on our farms. And further

RESOLVED That we take no sub-contracts at less than $5.00 per cord, and take horses only at the option of the sub-contractor. And be it

RESOLVED That choppers receive not less than $7.50 per cord for what wood they cut.

RESOLVED That we invoke the financial assistance of all alliances in the state to carry out the above resolutions. R. S. Q. MAMAKEN, Sec.
