Lauren Jones has discontinued the Gordon Republican. Lack of patronage is given as the reason. There is every reason why a town should have a newspaper, not as a matter of charity but from a business standpoint and it is not a good recommendation for a town to let its only paper die for want of support.

It is reported that petitions are being circulated praying alien-Gov. Boyd's appointee, A. W. Crites; to permit his name to be placed upon the official ballot in the 15th indicial district as a candidate for one of the judges this fall. Should his name be on the ticket it is safe to predict that on November 3rd a majority of the voters of the district will request Mr. Crites to retire to private life.

The indepthdent farty as ofganized on the platform of the Cintiffiati convention desired to make their plans and actions known and so have arranged for a portion of the space in THE JOURNAL. A man by the name of Davidson has been arrested at Peoria, Ill., charged with the ruin of his step-daughter. It is thought that unless he gets his deserts at the hands of the court he will be taken in hand by the people. There is no law which provides littlequate punishment for such cases. When a being has so lost all some of manhood as to debauch the person of a girl whom he is in hohor bound to project, there is no punishment by law severe enough. Such a loathsome Brute is not he to live:

A singular case has recently come to light. A man by the name of Jack Marion was hung at Beatrice in 1887, for the murder of John Cameron. It is now claimed that the supposed victim is still living. The man was convicted on circomstancial evidence years after the crime was supposed to have been committed. The disappearance of Cameron and the subsequent finding of a skeleton with bullet holes in it led to the belief that it was the remains of that individnal and Marion was arrested, tried and Edited by the County Central Committee of sen enced to be hanged. A new trial was obtained and again he was convicted of opposition to capital punishment and in this column must reach the second on one side of paner only. it will do much to strengthen the feeling. The details of the matter will be looked for with interest.

The independent people assert that a prominent democrat of Sioux county says the republicans and democrats will combine in order to down the independent party. It is quite likely that there are some democrats who would like to have such a combination made, but such a thing cannot be done. It is the general opinion that there are some members of both parties who would like to be considered leaders, who have been working with such an object in view for some time, but the sooner they stop such foolishness the better. Should such a combination be attempted by the real leaders of the old parties it would result in overwhelming defeat, for the great mass of voters in both the republican and democratic parties would resent any such scheme and would fall over each other in their baste to get into the inde-Chairman Watson, after having heard pendent ranks. The county central committee of the Independent party is reported to have met Thursday, and proceeded to fill vacancies on said committee. According to the report there were twelve vacancies filled and on precinct omitted entirely. Twelve and one precinct omitted entirely. Twelve and one makes thirteen, and as there are but fourteen precincts in the county, and as thirteen subtracted from fourteen leaves one, there must have been but one of the original committee present at said meeting. Perhaps there was a necting, as there was only one to meet, and it was undoubtedly considered unnecessary to issue a call, but, "houset injun," boys, was that meeting not held the next morning—with Walker in the chair?

next morning—with Walker in the chair?

There is published in Walker's Heraid a call signed by the chairman of the Independent contral committee for an Independent convention to be held in Andrews hall on which that paper comments editorially, claiming a great split in the Independent movement and usurpation of authority by a certain gang, and so forth and so on. It stoo bid, that the Heraid and its strikers are dissatisfied, but we are of the opinion that its representatives were too close at hand when the explosion of that bottled cheme took place Thursday, and not being prepared for the shock are just recovering from the effects of the same.
