To Subscribers.

THE JORENAL is now more than three ears old and has never urged its subscribers to settle, owing to the hard ames with which the settlers have had to contend, but now with the good crops but justice to ask those who are indebted on subscription or other accounts to call and settle. It is a small amount to eaindividual but in the aggregate amour to hendreds of dollars, and as we have shared the hardships of the past wit you, we desire to share the prosperity the present with you also. If you can not settle in full, pay a port of it as will all help us meet our bills and ruming expences. In many cases it he seen simply an oversight and, we hop that thus calling attention to the matte

> Andrew Christian's team took a spin around town on Monday, starting from the depot and stopping at the rear of the M. E. parsonage. Considerable damage was done to the wagon and harness, but no one was hurt.

-In the table of the vote of Sioux county a few wrong figures appeared last week, and while it made no differnce as to results we publish a corrected table this week so that our readers may know just how it was,

-The voters of Sheep Creek precinct decided not to elect an assessor. The county more than the taxes of the precinct amount to and they desire that the assessor of an adjoining precinct be empowered to list the taxable property. THE JOURNAL, so he called on his wed-That would save the expense of a man coming to get the books and making the returns, which is quite an item.

The immigration to Sioux county has started. Sanford Shores informs us a party of four Germans and their families passed his place in Custer county last week on their way to Sioux county, overland. The fact that there is 800,000 acres of free government land in Sioux county is becoming known and people who are tired of paying rent of high priced land are coming to secure a home of their own.

-In the matter of not allowing H. A. Priddy to vote at the recent election it appears that there is two side to the story. One of the judges informed us that he and one of his associates desired that his brother, Henry, who was here a to look up the law and see if it was necbefore that was done Priddy left the polling place and did not return. We are glad to know that a majority of the board acted fair in the matter and will-

-It is high time some action was tak- B. E. BREWSTER, society if anything is to be accomplished the coming season. There is no reason why a good fair cannot be held here next fall and if a track is fitted up it is quite likely a number of good horses would be kept here for training, and some good races could be arranged for during the fair. Such things do not come along of their own accord. It takes work to get them in shape and the sooner the work is commenced suc cess will result. Who will take the initiative in the matter?

STANDARD-BRED HAMBLETONIAN TROTTING STALLION. MENDONIAN, 7928.

Bred by A. W. Maring, Mendon, Mich.; he is a beautiful bay with a white star in forehead; was foales on the 27th day of May, 1894, and stands 17 hands high, weighs over 1800 pounds, is nicely proportione and of attractive style; his general make up denotes great power as well as fashiomable breeding of the first order. His blood lines, as will be seen from his pedigree; are from trotting families on both side for generations.

PEDIGREE—Mendoman was sired by Rufus O., rec. 2:32; he by Don J. Robinson, dam Croxie O., 2:294, by Fisk's Hambletonian Star (Masterlode); Don J. Robinson by Marshai Chief, dam Kitty Bates by Rysdyk's Hambletonian; Marshai Chief by Hero, son of Hül's Black Hawk; first dam Laura H, by Lexington Chief; he by Kentucky Clay, by Strader's Cassius M. Clay, Jr., out ington Chief, Jr. (2031, by Lexington Chief; he by Gundon of Lady Thorn, by Gano, by American Eclipse, by Duroc. Dam—Fisk's Mambrino Chief, he by of dam of Lady Thorn, by Gano, by American Eclipse, by Old Mambrino and he by Imported Messenger. Clay's Old Mambrino Chief, by Mambrino Paymaster, by Old Mambrino and he by Imported Messenger.

Second dam by Fisk's Mambrino Patchen (58); third dam by Old Moscow, 2:27. Rufus O is the sire of trotters; one of his get trotted, with six weeks' training, in 2:38 as a four year-old. Don J. Robinson has a four-year-old record of 2:36, trial 2:39; among his get is Jessie B, rec. 2:24%, beating the best five-year-old record in the State of Michigan; Lizzie H, rec. 2:304. Marshal Chief (252) is the sire of Dr. Lewis, rec. 2:10; Tekonsha, 2:20; Croxie O, 2:284, by Masterlode, the sire of Belle F, 2:154; Edward, 2:16% Geo. V, 2:39, and H in the 2:30 class and under.

Of the 3,000 trotters in the 2:30 class and under, it will be found that one-half of them are decendants; in the male line, from Rysdyk's Hambletonian, and one-fourth of them are from the Mambrino Chief in the male line, from Rysdyk's Hambletonian, and one-fourth of them are the three greatest families of trotters in the world.
