Best Line to the East.
The Burlington Route R. & M. R. R. is running electrically equipped passenger trains without change from Newcastle, Wyoming and Crawford, Nebraska, direct to Lincoln, Nebraska, making connection at that point with their own through trains for Denver, Cheyenne, and all points west, and for Kansas City, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Omaha, Boston, Chicago, and all points east.

Remember this is the only line by which you can take sleeping car from Crawford in the evening arriving in Lincoln and Omaha the next afternoon, and in Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis the following morning.

For further information and tickets apply to nearest agent of Burlington Route R. & M. R. R.

FACTS FOR THE FARMERS.
This farmer's gain is participated in by the whole community.
CORNERS are exceedingly rich in potash. Save them, burn them and carefully collect the ashes therefrom.

INSECT powder is too expensive for general use on the farm, but it will pay to use it on flowers and in the greenhouses.

Business Education Free.
Nebraska boys and girls will find in the following offer a good opportunity of securing a business education free:

To any one sending us 75 yearly subscribers to the Weekly State Journal, at $1.00 per year, we will present a life scholarship in any department of the Lincoln Business College. Value $60.00.

For 50 such subscriptions we will present a three months scholarship in any department. Value, $30.00.

For 20 subscriptions a three months course in typewriting. Value, 12.00.

A cash commission will be allowed on these subscriptions, liberally paying you for your work, in addition to these free scholarships. We will supply you with sample copies. For further particulars address, WEEKLY STATE JOURNAL, Lincoln, Neb.

ON SCIENTIFIC SUBJECTS.

The highest altitude ever reached by a balloon was seven miles.
NEAR the mouth of Pistol river in Curry county, Ore., there recently fell a meteor which when weighed tipped the beam at 4,000 pounds.

The brownish discoloration of ceilings where gas is used is caused by dust, carried against them by the heated air currents produced by the gas.

An Italian physiologist of repute, named Mosso, has demonstrated by experiment that thinking caused a rush of blood to the brain, which varies with the nature of the thought.

SEVERAL florists in New York city have had their hands poisoned by hot house flowers. It is supposed that Paris green, and other powders used on the flowers to kill bugs, caused the trouble.

LAST August there was a fall of manna in Asia Minor, which was baked for bread after the manner of the biblical tradition. It had been examined by Frenchmen of science and identified as lichen of the family Lecanora scedulea.

On Tuesday morning, February 24, Nain, in the north of Scotland, was eighteen degrees warmer than London at the same hour, twenty degrees warmer than Paris, fourteen degrees warmer than Lyons and three degrees warmer than Nice.

A SQUARE inch of sun has as much luminous power as two hundred ordinary electric lights of eight candle power, and in every second of time it gives forth as much heat as would result from the burning of twelve thousand millions of millions of tons of the best coal.

In each respiration an adult inhales one pint of air; a healthy man respires sixteen to twenty times a minute, or twenty thousand times a day; a child twenty-five to thirty-five times a minute; while standing the adult respiration is twenty-two per minute; while lying down, thirteen.

It is stated that there is an element in the common pineapple similar to pepsin, and of such remarkable strength that the juice of a single apple will digest ten pounds of beef. It is further stated that the juice of the fruit is a very active solvent of the membrane found in diphtheria.

GUESS FOR THE NAME.

A GEORGIA woman caught thirty-three rats in a trap in one day.

A MICHIGANER mistook strychnine for smoking-tobacco. He recovered, however.

A SNOW HILL, Md., man ate half a gallon of peanuts at one sitting the other day.

PHENIX, Tex., has a bride who is six feet five and three-fourths inches in height, and only seventeen years old.

A VISITOR to Monte Carlo from London is said to have won the maximum 12,000 francs in fourteen consecutive coups.

AN Englishman has been astonishing old Rocky mountain hunters by killing grizzly bears with explosive bullets charged with dynamite.

A TOBACCO man hunting near Newmarket had his mouth caught by a barbed-wire fence, with the result that several of his teeth were torn from his jaw.

A MAINE man went sleigh riding with his daughter who wore a bright red wrap, and they were chased two miles by a bull that objected to the color of the garment.

At a wedding in Arcadia, Fla., the other day the bride was married to her ninth husband, and four of her former husbands were present at the ceremony to sympathize with the ninth victim.

It is conceded that the champion belt for self-control should go to the young lady of St. Joseph, Mo., who lay perfectly quiet in bed and watched a couple of burglars carry off her jewelry and false hair.

A DARING fellow in Detroit has challenged Suedi, who abstained from food for forty-five days, to try conclusions with him. He proposes to wager $15,000 that Suedi will weaken before he does in a "fast to a finish."

A MAN living in Talbot county, Georgia, has never attended service at a church, has never ridden on a train or ever been in a city. Recently a gentleman offered to pay his fare to Columbus, but he refused to go.

NOVELTIES IN JEWELRY.

AN odd parter buckle in silver represents a broad leaf with a frog upon it. The miniature is being employed to ornament cuff buttons and bracelet clasps.

A BOOKMARK is in the form of a mason's trowel, of silver, with an ivory handle.

A HANDSOME shoe horn is made of ivory and has a heavy silver handle, elaborately chased.

A MASSIVE silver girde is designed to represent a heavy rope. At one end is a large silver hook and at the other an eyelet with the rope apparently spliced and bound with cord.

SILVER brooches and vinaigrettes decorated in general are now shown. The shapes are generally plain and in no way out of the ordinary, but the enamelled designs are very pretty and sometimes even elaborate.

A NOVEL design for a pocket cork-screw appeared in a jeweler's window lately. When closed the instrument presents the appearance of a crab's claw, which opened on both sides, disclosing the essential part of the article.
