THURSDAY, NOV. 19, 1891.

Hiram Chase, a full-blooded Indian of the Omaha tribe was admitted to practice in the United States federal court at Omaha a few days ago. This is the first Indian ever admitted to practice law in Nebraska.

A man was fined $100 and costs at Rising City recently for giving liquor to a couple of men, causing them to get drunk and disturb the peace, while the men who got drunk and raised the row were allowed to go unpunished.

The Chadron Journal has entered its eighth year. It was first issued from a log cabin on the banks of Chadron creek, before the town of Chadron was located on its present site.

The Chadron Advocate has entered its fifth year and is as sane as ever. Editor Sheldon gets a little off on some times, but his columns contain a great deal which if carried into practice would do much to make mankind better.

The organization of an immigration society in northwest Nebraska would be a move in the right direction. There are a number of counties whose interests in the settlement of the country are the same and a great deal better work could be done by an organization of that kind.

Nebraska is in the lead this year in the product of corn. What will be the result when the resources of the state are fully developed? It must be remembered that Nebraska is yet in its infancy.

If the Keeley cure for drunkenness is as much of a success as it is claimed to be, it would be a good plan to have a law providing the treatment for persons convicted of being drunk.

The voters of Lawes county showed their good sense by defeating the township organization proposition. The repeal of the law providing for township organization would be a good thing, unless the law is very materially changed.

On account of having had no state ticket in the field at the recent election the democratic party can only get a state ticket in the field next fall by petition as the election law provides that a party must have cast a certain per cent of the vote at the last previous election in order to be entitled to have its nominees placed upon the official ballot.

The recent meetings of the anarchists in Chicago and the fiery speeches made thereat recall with painful vividness the bloody riot at Haymarket in 1886, and show plainly that there is still a set of men at work who desire the overthrow of the government. One of the most unpleasant features connected with the affair is that the supporters of the red flag are foreigners who have gained citizenship only to abuse it.

It is claimed by some that Judge Crites should step down and out at once and that his title is now ex-Hon. Crites, as he was appointed to serve until the next general election.

Have you a friend in the east who is paying rent for high priced land? Tell him to come to Sioux county and get a home of his own free.

Compliments to Meseraull.

The last issue of the Crawford Boomerang contained an article from the pen of S. L. Meseraull, the striker of soon-to-be ex-Hon. Crites, headed "Very Flimsy," and a perusal of the article shows that the name was well-selected. It is not only flimsy but is also misleading and untrue.

He makes some very peculiar statements regarding the county finances, which show that he does not know the difference between the county funds and the bond and school funds. He speaks of an advertising fund and refers to it as the fund of the editor of this paper and notes with apparent glee that there was but 28 cents therein.

The bills of the JOURNAL against the county are on record and anyone can examine them who may so desire and we will put up a forfeit of $25.00 to the editor of the Boomerang if he will prove wherein we have made an illegal charge.

The name of Judge Kinkaid is already being mentioned as a candidate for congress from the sixth district. It is some time yet before the election of a congressman but there is no harm in looking over the field for good material.

The reports from Brazil are that a civil war is raging in that country and a good deal of bloodshed likely to occur before the matter is settled. It seems that that republic did not have as able, brave and unselfish men to guide the ship of state as did the United States in the days of its infancy.

The winter corn exhibit of Nebraska will commence on the third Tuesday in December, at Lincoln, under the management of the state board of agriculture. The best specimens exhibited will be preserved for exhibition at the world's fair.

Thanksgiving Prolegomena.

Now, here they ever, here the people of Nebraska must convene in rooms for lifting their hearts in gratitude to the Supreme Ruler of the universe for the world blessing which they have enjoyed during the year which is now drawing to a close.

It is most becoming, as well as the performance of a sacred duty, that all should manifest in a public manner their appreciation of, and their gratitude for, these priceless blessings.

Now, therefore, I, John M. Thayer, governor of the state of Nebraska, do hereby designate Thursday, the 28th day of the present month, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to the Most High for His fatherly care over us, and for His tender mercies.

I beg those with an abundance not to forget the poor and needy, but to give to them freely of their own bounty.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state, done at Lincoln, this 14th day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, of the twenty-fifth and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and sixteenth.

By the governor: JOHN M. THAYER, JOHN C. ALLEN, Secretary of State.
