All Around About.

Squaw Creek school had a vacation last week.

Alva Daniels Sundied at home.

Wish somebody would loan us a dictionary.

The beautiful snow is gently falling, but with a prospect of the wind rising.

Peter Heury and J. Thoms took loads of corn to Harrison Monday.

Mr. Ben Wells left Gilchrist last Tuesday, and shipped two car loads of cattle from Crawford on Thursday for Mento, Iowa.

M. C. Doan and C. B. Hollingsworth are hauling fuel these fine days.

Mrs. Lockwood's sisters, and brothers

Rufus and Rob visited her on last Sunday.

We have just learned that Gilchrist has a barber, call on Eugene Woblhether when your hair needs cutting.

C. F. Coffee and A. W. Mohr, with their families, were hospitably entertained at D. W. Woody's last Sunday.

Since it has been reported that George O'Kraue was to return to Sioux county in the near future, road petitions are already beginning to circulate.

Henry Gayhart came up from Chadron to spend Christmas and New Year's with his parents. Says he will not set up a shop in Sioux county until it grows a little more.

Phi McCann reports times lively and wages good in the mines at Hopkinton,

Wyo., where he is spending the winter.

Hobert Zimmerman, our blacksmith, has had a rush of work lately. And, by the way, his full cribs of corn demonstrate that Sioux county soil will produce corn.

Misses Lulu and Rose Woody returned to the Academy at Chadron last Monday accompanied by their brother Rufus, ready to begin another term of hard study.

Christmas and New Years has once more come and gone, and we realize that the year 1891 has passed away. Days, weeks and months follow each other in rapid succession, and soon this glad New Year of 1892 will be numbered with the past. The silver threads come creeping in among our locks, thus forcibly reminding us that all things are passing away, passing away. U No.

—By the action of the commissioners all the old county officers are allowed to hold over by filing new bonds.

—The vacancy in the Commercial Bank caused by the resignation of C. C.

Jameson will be filled by D. H. Griswold, of the firm of Griswold & Marsteller.

Mr. Griswold is one of the pioneers of Harrison and has for years been in business here and the people all know him.

He has proven himself to be a good business man and the interests of the bank will be well looked after by him.

—A new school house is being formed southeast of town in the neighborhood of Messrs. Moore, Scott and Robinson, the preliminary meeting will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 12th, for the election of officers. Steps are also being taken to organize another district southwest of town. The farmers do not want their children to be deprived of an education and the establishment of schools will aid in the work of getting more settlers.

Let the good work go on.

—At a meeting of the village board

Tuesday evening C. E. Verity, C. H.

Waller and Conrad Lindeman were elected to fill vacancies caused by the first of the year and called on Saturday and gave us some cash on subscription.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Andrews and Mrs. J. C.

Northrop spent New Year's down the road.

Wm. Schulz writes us wishing us a happy New Year and enclosing a draft to apply on his subscription. Such things help to make a happy New Year.

C. C. Jameson and family expect to leave for their new home in Chadron in a few days, when he will assume the duties of cashier of the First National Bank of that place.
