

The Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13. The department of justice is in receipt of a full report of an investigation made by the United States district attorney of San Francisco into the case of Patrick Shields, a fireman on the American steamship Keweenaw, who is alleged to have received brutal treatment by the Chilean police authorities of Valparaiso for no other reason than because he proclaimed himself an American.

A Train Derailed.

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ind., Jan. 13.—Between 2 and 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon a north-bound Monon train ran off the track two miles north of here, at Nicholson crossing. The accident occurred on a fifty-foot embankment, down which four cars rolled, the engine and one baggage car keeping the track.

Keeping Watch.

Letters to the Associated Press from Monterey, Mexico, dated January 3 say: The government is keeping the sharpest watch on telegrams and letters to and from the United States, and even on newspapers, to suppress all news about the Garza revolution, and though the government pretends the movement is of little account and in some instances is directed against the United States, yet it is well known that the movement has taken formidable proportions and threatens to extend, for dissatisfaction reigns in many of the states and hunger may drive the people to desperation.

Sensational Discoveries.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 14.—Sensational discoveries have been made of the ghastly practices of Sioux City undertakers. On December 23 Miss Elizabeth Tucker died of the grip at St. Joseph's hospital and was turned over by the Sisters of Charity to an undertaker for burial. Before going to the hospital she had mysteriously disappeared from the family which she had served as a domestic. It was not until three days ago that a newspaper reporter who was tracing the matter found that she had died at the hospital.

Will Lynch Him.

OXFORD, N. C. Jan. 14.—Mrs. Horner, a widow of this city, was clubbed to death by a negro named Henry Corbin, who escaped. Corbin's motive for the murder of Mrs. Horner was to get rid of her so that he might outrage her daughter Lizzie, a handsome young lady of 20 years. In the struggle with the negro the young lady was seriously injured, her clothing having been torn entirely off. The town is wild with excitement, and if captured, he will be lynched.

Dead Miner Killed.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Jan. 16.—A freed Finn, a Finnish miner, was instantly killed at the Homestead mines by being caught under a mass of falling rock which had been jarred loose by an explosion a few minutes before.

Bold Mail Robbery.

BATAVIA, N. Y., Jan. 17.—A bold and successful robbery of United States mail occurred here about six o'clock last night at the Erie depot. The mail for the west bound train, consisting of two pouches, were on a baggage track on the platform awaiting the train's arrival. The employes having their charge stepped into the depot for a moment and on his return the bag was missing. They were found later under some plants near the freight house. They had been cut open and the contents abstracted.

A GENUINE SENSATION.

The Death of Turnbull was Directly Caused by Neglect in the Hospital.

The Sisters of Charity Were Unable to Help Him.

Did Not Pick the Quarrel.

VALLEJO, Cal., Jan. 14.—A genuine sensation developed in the Baltimore investigation. Surgeons Stitt and White of the Baltimore, after testifying to the wounds of the members of the Baltimore's crew, declared the death of Turnbull was directly caused by neglect in the hospital, where he was carried by the police. The Chileans refused to allow the Baltimore's surgeons to treat their men and declined to do it themselves except in a very superficial way.

The men were taken to the ship but too late for Turnbull. Blood poisoning set in and he died five days later. The surgeons were positive that death resulted from neglect and imperfect treatment in the hospital. The sisters of charity who had charge seemed to regret their inability to help the sailors, but had to obey their superior. It further appears that if fagin was not shot he would probably recovered, as the knife wounds were not very serious.

The surgeons testified in great detail regarding the wounds of the different men, etc. Surgeon Stitt, speaking of the hostile feeling against Americans said it prevailed before the riot. At the battle of Paucillo, the American surgeons went ashore and offered their services in caring for the wounded. A son of a prominent Chilean officer was treated by one of them. When his father heard of it he was furious and declared that he had rather his son should die than owe his life to the Americans.

While in the hospital Turnbull made a statement to Surgeon Stitt, asserting that he was not intoxicated and that he did not pick the quarrel, but was assaulted and struck down by a mob.

Lieutenant Sturdy of the Baltimore testified that he went ashore after dark October 16. He saw about thirty of the Baltimore men on the mole and thereabouts, all perfectly quiet and sober. Two of them told him the police had ordered them to return to the ship, as there had been some trouble and more threatening. He advised them to go aboard and about fifteen of them did so. He went to the police station to see whether he could do anything for any of the Baltimore men who might have got into trouble. The officer in charge told him there had been a row, but that it was over and all was quiet.

Outrages in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 14.—Anti-Jewish outbreaks have occurred in many villages in Pensa and Saraton. The houses of a number of Jews suspected of hoarding corn have been burned and many of the inmates killed.

Steeet Storm.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 16.—Great damage was done in this vicinity during a twelve hours' sleet storm. Orchards are totally wrecked by tons of ice that weigh down their branches. Reports from the headwaters of the Ohio tell of heavy rains or snow in the mountains and the creeks are much swollen. There is danger of floods.

Her Husband or Money.

DENVER, Jan. 11.—Miss Price, the skirt dancer, who formerly travelled with the "Natural Gas" company, is in Denver to create another sensation. A little over a year ago, when here with that company, she caused a furore by marrying Clarence Dow, son of a millionaire banker of this city. The son was disowned and then remained in parental affection on the condition that he desert his wife. This he did. Miss Price arrived in Denver Saturday. She declares that she will have her hubby or a nice slice of the millionaire's fortune. She will probably begin proceedings in a few days and some sensational testimony is looked for.

Burned to Death.

AMHERST, N. S., Jan. 11.—A dwelling house was burned by the overturning of a lamp Saturday evening and Mrs. Campbell and a young daughter perished in the flames.

A Mob After Him.

MARVSVILLE, Kan., Jan. 11.—Saturday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock, a mob of thirty met on horseback, broke into the county jail at this place with the avowed intention of lynching Levi Gouldsberry, who on December 14, 1901, foully murdered Peter Bender fourteen miles east of Marvsville. Sheriff Bentley, who had just retired for the night, was taken completely by surprise. He heard a knock at the door and when he opened it several men filed into the room and a hard tussle began.

A Village Destroyed.

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—The village of Reichinwald, Silesia, has been entirely destroyed by fire. The inhabitants, in their homeless and destitute condition, are suffering greatly.

Probably a Page.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—A story printed yesterday morning that a vessel was fitted out to go to Hayti and that the promoters of the scheme, after destroying the three vessels of the Haytian navy, would overturn the government of Hippolyte and establish a new one caused surprise in the office of the Haytian minister, where nothing had been heard of the scheme. Inquiry failed to find a clue to any American vessel having been fitted out for that purpose.

A Murderer Lynched.

OXFORD, O., Jan. 16.—Henry Corbin, the negro who murdered Mrs. George F. Horner here Tuesday night, was lynched Thursday evening. He has been hiding since the murder in a shed 200 feet from the place where the crime was committed. Growing hungry, he sent a negro boy to buy food and the boy told of his hiding place. A crowd of men formed and rushed to the spot. The murderer heard them but too late to escape. In his cowardly fear he endeavored to suicide, but only inflicted a slight wound. The crowd rushed in and seized him.

Made an Attack.

MADRID, Jan. 11.—Saturday night a band of anarchists from the country surrounding Xeres made an attack on that place, intending to pillage the town. The gendarmes, however, got wind of the affair, and the anarchists were surprised to find a strong force awaiting them. The anarchists were armed with fowling pieces and, though their plan of pillage was frustrated, they determined to punish the police for thwarting their designs. They made a desperate attack on the gendarmes of the town and a stubborn fight resulted. The gendarmes finally charged upon and repulsed the enemy. The latter returned, however, and firing continued until early yesterday morning.

Attempt to Rob a Silver Mine.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 15.—A Republic special from Marfa, Tex., says an attempt was made last night by an armed body of Mexicans to rob the Cibola silver mine at Saultier, but the robbers were surprised by a detachment of Texas rangers and put to flight after a stubborn fight in which three of the robbers were killed. The survivors fled in the darkness toward Rio Grande. One of them is Antonio Carasco, whose brother a year ago killed a ranger. In this vicinity the Mexicans outnumber the Americans two to one and serious trouble is feared as a result of the affray.

Killed in a Street Car.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—A surface railway crossing horror occurred at Forty-seventh street and the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & Chicago tracks. An inbound Ft. Wayne train struck a Forty-seventh street transfer horse car, two passengers being instantly killed and thirteen injured.

The Duke of Clarence and Avondale III.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Alarm has been caused in royal circles by the serious illness of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, eldest son of the Prince of Wales. The duke has been showing illness for some days, but it was hoped that he had nothing more than a passing cold. Yesterday and today, however, it has become apparent that the duke has a severe attack of influenza and that it is complicated with pneumonia. This combination has proved fatal in so many instances of late that the royal family feel an anxiety greater, perhaps, than the same attack would, under ordinary circumstances excite. Among the people also the news of the duke's illness arouses more sympathy than would have been the case a month ago, before his engagement to Princess May of Teck. The duke has been much more popular since it became known that he was to marry for love, a woman of English birth. So serious is the attack that all appointments made by the prince have been cancelled and the marriage, appointed for the 27th of February, for which great preparations are being made, will of course depend upon his recovery. When the news of her lover's condition was carried to the princess she showed the deepest anxiety, and wanted to go immediately to his side. Inquiries are plying in from all quarters as to the duke's condition. Should the duke become a victim of the disease which has been playing havoc in England and on the continent his place as heir to the throne after the Prince of Wales, would be taken by the sailor Prince George, who is a more popular favorite than any of the members of the royal family. Already there is speculation on this subject, though at present there is no reason to apprehend a fatal result of the duke's illness.

Deepest Gloom.

MCCALLISTER, I. T., Jan. 12.—All the bodies have been taken out of the mines, and the list stands now: Fifty-seven dead and 117 wounded, five of whom will surely die, and several who cannot live twenty-four hours. Excitement is dying out, giving way to deepest gloom. It was a sad sight to see the funeral procession which conveyed the unfortunate miners to their last resting place, most of whom were laid side by side, the largest funeral being that of George Lindsay and his son, who were very popular. The Catholic and other two churches were scenes of a succession of services. At Krobe twenty five men have been digging graves since Friday, night and day, and it was necessary to hold eight of the bodies, the graves not being ready.

Found in the Mystic River.

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—The body of Miss Lena Davis was found in the Mystic river near the Middlesex avenue bridge in Medford. Miss Davis left her home in Everett on the night of December 21, says to her mother that she was going out to be married to James A. Trefethen whom she accused of betraying her, and would be back in an hour, since which time she has not been seen. An autopsy will be held tomorrow. Trefethen was arrested, but denied having any appointment with the girl, or any knowledge of her whereabouts.

Turkish Correspondent Expelled.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Marsengo, a correspondent in Paris of certain Turkish newspapers, has been confined to the frontier under a decree of expulsion. The charge is that he has been misrepresenting the affair with Bulgaria, and other matters affecting France, in his correspondence. In some quarters the act is looked upon as a rebuke to Turkey for not actively espousing the cause of France in the Chadoouine affair.

Offred the Government 13,500.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—It was stated Monday that the proprietors of the Jackson brewery, seized last Wednesday on the charge that duties amounting to $21,000 on beer produced between 1888 and 1889 had not been paid, have offered the government $12,500 in settlement of its claim, and that Collector Quinn will recommend, in view of the fact that court proceedings would occupy an indefinite period, that the government accept the offer, and that further proceedings be discontinued.
