Fig. Wast.D-HERALD is the only weekly to the least that gives all the news. In a si do s by condensing and boiling down the news of each day, except im-portant matters, which are given in full. DU TURAL

The WEEKLY WORLD-HERALD contains & splended agricultural department and is the only weekly newspaper in the west having an agricultural editor. This makes it of special value to farmers, because if takes the place of a special agricultural paper and saves that expense.

the publication of interesting stories the Worter-Henato has always been alread of all rivals in the west. It will, almost of all rivals in the west. It will, Juring the present winter and spring, publish at least one short story each week, as it always does, and in addition it will spread before its readers some of the best serial stories ever written. Recently Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's latest story, "Giovanni and the Other," has appeared in the Wonto-Henald from week to week. After it came as otelling and mystarians story by oteriting and mysterique story by "Luke Sharp," which ran several weeks, and that will be followed by a new story by "Mark Twain," the famous humorist and story writer. Others will followed

The WORLD-HERALD is great on political news. Being independent of party organizations it is fair. In the presidential fight so close at hand it will give in its news columns all sties. Editorially it will continue to struggle for tariff reform, an increase of the money supply on a sound basis, the regulation of rail-roads, the reduction of freight rates and the development of the wast. At Washington it now has Mr. R. L. Metcafe, so well known in Nebraska, and he will give in the best and most readable form the Washington news of greatest interest to Nebruska, Iowa, Dakota, Wyoming and other parts of the west.

The WORLD-HREALD aims to be entertaining and amusing as well as interest-ing and instructive. Therefore every issue contains such humorous stories and wifty paragraphs as can be gathered from the best funny papers.

Percentics The Nelsonska State Journal will publish a semi-weekly instead of a weekly, giving two papers each week for the price of one. Four pages Tuesdays and eight pages Fridays. This will give readers the latest telegraphic news and markets while it is fresh. In these days of progressiveness the people have outgrown the weekly paper, except to supply local news. The State Journal is at the head of the procession as always. O wha Weeker World-HERALD For those who cannot afford a daily paper The Semi-Weekly Journal will be almost as good as a daily-104 papers per year. Aithough the cost of production has been nearly doubled the price will remain the same, $1 per year. This is less than I cent per copy. No other paper offers so much reading matter for $1. A special correspondent will furnish points of interest to Nebraskans from the national capital in addition to the regular telegraphic reports from congress, which are georived over our own wires. During the year 1892 you should be a reader of The Semi-Weekly Journal. Send for a sample copy and see just what we give you for your
