

The Sioux County Journal.

ESTABLISHED 1888. OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER. BEST PAPER IN THE COUNTY. HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER PUBLISHED IN SIOUX COUNTY.

Subscription Price, $2.00. L. J. SIMMONS, Editor. Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1892.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana. For Vice-President, WHITELAW REID, of New York.

Republican State Convention.

The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties to meet in convention at the city of Lincoln, August 4, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following state offices: Governor; Lieutenant governor; Secretary of state; Auditor of public accounts; Treasurer; Superintendent of public instruction; Attorney general; Commissioner of public lands and buildings.

THE APPOINTMENT.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for George H. Hastings for attorney general in 1890, giving one delegate at large to each county and one for each 100 votes and the major fraction thereof:

Table with 3 columns: Counties, Del. Counties, Del. Lists counties like Adams, Antelope, Banner, etc., with their respective delegate counts.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the full vote of the delegation.

W. W. HARNETT, Secretary. J. E. EVANS, Chairman.

Congressional Convention, Sixth District.

The republican electors of the Sixth Congressional district of the state of Nebraska are hereby requested to send delegates from their several counties comprising said district to meet in convention in the city of Chadron, Wednesday, August 10, 1892, at 8 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for member of Congress for said district, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

REPRESENTATION.

The basis of representation is the same as that fixed by the state central committee for the state convention, and is one delegate for every one hundred votes or major fraction thereof cast for Hastings for attorney general and is as follows:

Table with 4 columns: County, No. Del. County, No. Del. Lists counties like Banner, Blaine, Box Butte, etc., with their respective delegate counts.

W. W. HARNETT, Secretary. J. E. EVANS, Chairman.

Republican County Convention.

The republican electors of Sioux county are requested to send delegates from their several precincts to meet in convention at the court house in Harrison, on Saturday, July 20, 1892, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination: One candidate for County Attorney, and selecting three delegates to the state convention to be held at Lincoln, August 4th; to select delegates to the congressional, senatorial and representative conventions and the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

THE APPOINTMENT.

The several precincts are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for Attorney General Hastings at the general election of 1890, giving one delegate at large for each precinct, and one for each ten votes or major fraction thereof:

Table with 4 columns: Precinct, Del. Precinct, Del. Lists precincts like Andrews, Antelope, Banner, etc., with their respective delegate counts.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the full vote of the delegation.

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION OF SIOUX COUNTY.

From its Organization to the Present Time.

A paper prepared and read by M. J. Weber before the Sioux County Alliance on the 16th day of July, 1892.

On the 20th day of September in the year 1886, James W. Dawes, then Governor of the state of Nebraska, issued a proclamation temporarily organizing the county of Sioux and fixing its temporary county seat at the present site of Harrison. On the 4th of November of the same year a set of county officers was elected and the county was immediately thereafter permanently organized.

During the year 1887, the first fiscal year of its existence, Daniel Klein, Andrew McGinley and Don M. Weir were county commissioners and Charles C. Jameson was county clerk of said county.

On the 20th day of June, 1887, the first tax levy of said county was made by said board on a total assessed valuation of $394,978.64, the rate of taxation being 15 mills on the dollar. The levy was not divided, the entire 15 mills being for the general fund, making such levy irregular, as the statute provides (Cobley 1891, section 3976):

"On the last day of sitting as a board of equalization the county board shall levy the necessary taxes for the current year, including all county, township, city, school district, precinct, village, and other taxes required by law to be certified to the county clerk and levied by the county board; provided, that school district taxes voted at the school district annual meeting and certified to the county clerk, on or before the first Monday in July, shall be levied by said county clerk when such levy is within the limits of the law. The rate of tax for county purposes shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of indebtedness existing at the adoption of the present constitution, unless authorized by a vote of the people of the county, and shall be as follows: In counties under township organization, for ordinary county revenue, including the support of the poor, not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; and labor tax as provided in the following section. In counties not under township organization, for ordinary county revenue (including the support of the poor) not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than three mills on the dollar valuation, and labor tax as provided in the following section."

The recent labor troubles call loudly for more stringent laws of immigration. The present inefficient laws on that line have done much to bring about such troubles.

The fusion of the democrats and independents in Kansas does not meet with the approval of many of those who are democrats in principle, and steps are being taken to call a democratic state convention and nominate a democratic ticket.

Hon. Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, has been elected as chairman of the national republican committee and will take charge of the campaign from now on. Mr. Carter is a man of energy and ability and will lead the party to victory in November.

The crop reports from Washington state that small grain in Nebraska has been injured by drouth and corn has also been retarded by the same cause. That report is not correct so far as Sioux is concerned. Northwest Nebraska could have spared some of its rainfall to the less favored localities.

A merry war is being waged between Jay Burrows and Van Wyck. The latter stated the Burrows was the "meanest man God ever put on earth and let live," which leads Burrows to remark that Van Wyck has never "suspected of getting here in the same manner," and further says that Van Wyck stands no show of being nominated by the independents for governor.

No better indication of the future prosperity of northwest Nebraska could be asked than the fact that every one who visits Sioux county and sees the excellent crops and natural advantages expresses himself as better pleased than he expected to be, and a good many are becoming interested in land, and all will do work for Sioux county by telling their friends what is to be had here.

The press tickets for the 26th state fair are out. Secretary Furnas has always had something nice to present to the newspaper fraternity but the ticket of 1892 excels that of any previous year. The corner piece in which two giants are engaged in a friendly struggle for supremacy are wearing as a coat-of-arms, one a large ear of corn and the other a massive sugar beet, with the wording, "which is king, corn or sugar," pleasantly calls to mind the leading industries of Nebraska. The state fair this year occurs Sept. 2d to 9th, and the indications are that it will be a greater exposition than any of its predecessors.

In the fine of preparation for the Nebraska exhibit at the world's fair the Nebraska Development Company of Omaha bids fair to accomplish a great deal of good. It has a capital of $50,000 and is acting under the authority of national and state commissioners. Northwest Nebraska and Sioux county in particular should do everything possible to make the fact known that better opportunities are offered by this locality than any other portion of the state, and with that end in view our people should cooperate with the organizations made to further the interests of the state in the matter of an exhibit.

Grover Cleveland's opponents in the house and senate are preparing to send the free silver coinage bill to the president, in order to give Mr. Harrison a chance to veto it. They realize that a veto of the measure would be worth tens of thousands of independent votes to the republican candidates. And what could Mr. Cleveland say in reply? That he is the candidate of the party that glancingly repudiates its own solemn pledges? The democratic representatives and senators seem to be bent on forcing him to decline the democratic nomination in order to place General James B. Weaver on the ticket in his place. But even that would be too honest and straightforward an act for the present democracy.—Inter Com.

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION OF SIOUX COUNTY.

From its Organization to the Present Time.

A paper prepared and read by M. J. Weber before the Sioux County Alliance on the 16th day of July, 1892.

On the 20th day of September in the year 1886, James W. Dawes, then Governor of the state of Nebraska, issued a proclamation temporarily organizing the county of Sioux and fixing its temporary county seat at the present site of Harrison. On the 4th of November of the same year a set of county officers was elected and the county was immediately thereafter permanently organized.

During the year 1887, the first fiscal year of its existence, Daniel Klein, Andrew McGinley and Don M. Weir were county commissioners and Charles C. Jameson was county clerk of said county.

On the 20th day of June, 1887, the first tax levy of said county was made by said board on a total assessed valuation of $394,978.64, the rate of taxation being 15 mills on the dollar. The levy was not divided, the entire 15 mills being for the general fund, making such levy irregular, as the statute provides (Cobley 1891, section 3976):

"On the last day of sitting as a board of equalization the county board shall levy the necessary taxes for the current year, including all county, township, city, school district, precinct, village, and other taxes required by law to be certified to the county clerk and levied by the county board; provided, that school district taxes voted at the school district annual meeting and certified to the county clerk, on or before the first Monday in July, shall be levied by said county clerk when such levy is within the limits of the law. The rate of tax for county purposes shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of indebtedness existing at the adoption of the present constitution, unless authorized by a vote of the people of the county, and shall be as follows: In counties under township organization, for ordinary county revenue, including the support of the poor, not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; and labor tax as provided in the following section. In counties not under township organization, for ordinary county revenue (including the support of the poor) not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than three mills on the dollar valuation, and labor tax as provided in the following section."

The recent labor troubles call loudly for more stringent laws of immigration. The present inefficient laws on that line have done much to bring about such troubles.

The fusion of the democrats and independents in Kansas does not meet with the approval of many of those who are democrats in principle, and steps are being taken to call a democratic state convention and nominate a democratic ticket.

Hon. Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, has been elected as chairman of the national republican committee and will take charge of the campaign from now on. Mr. Carter is a man of energy and ability and will lead the party to victory in November.

The crop reports from Washington state that small grain in Nebraska has been injured by drouth and corn has also been retarded by the same cause. That report is not correct so far as Sioux is concerned. Northwest Nebraska could have spared some of its rainfall to the less favored localities.

A merry war is being waged between Jay Burrows and Van Wyck. The latter stated the Burrows was the "meanest man God ever put on earth and let live," which leads Burrows to remark that Van Wyck has never "suspected of getting here in the same manner," and further says that Van Wyck stands no show of being nominated by the independents for governor.

No better indication of the future prosperity of northwest Nebraska could be asked than the fact that every one who visits Sioux county and sees the excellent crops and natural advantages expresses himself as better pleased than he expected to be, and a good many are becoming interested in land, and all will do work for Sioux county by telling their friends what is to be had here.

The press tickets for the 26th state fair are out. Secretary Furnas has always had something nice to present to the newspaper fraternity but the ticket of 1892 excels that of any previous year. The corner piece in which two giants are engaged in a friendly struggle for supremacy are wearing as a coat-of-arms, one a large ear of corn and the other a massive sugar beet, with the wording, "which is king, corn or sugar," pleasantly calls to mind the leading industries of Nebraska. The state fair this year occurs Sept. 2d to 9th, and the indications are that it will be a greater exposition than any of its predecessors.

In the fine of preparation for the Nebraska exhibit at the world's fair the Nebraska Development Company of Omaha bids fair to accomplish a great deal of good. It has a capital of $50,000 and is acting under the authority of national and state commissioners. Northwest Nebraska and Sioux county in particular should do everything possible to make the fact known that better opportunities are offered by this locality than any other portion of the state, and with that end in view our people should cooperate with the organizations made to further the interests of the state in the matter of an exhibit.

Grover Cleveland's opponents in the house and senate are preparing to send the free silver coinage bill to the president, in order to give Mr. Harrison a chance to veto it. They realize that a veto of the measure would be worth tens of thousands of independent votes to the republican candidates. And what could Mr. Cleveland say in reply? That he is the candidate of the party that glancingly repudiates its own solemn pledges? The democratic representatives and senators seem to be bent on forcing him to decline the democratic nomination in order to place General James B. Weaver on the ticket in his place. But even that would be too honest and straightforward an act for the present democracy.—Inter Com.

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION OF SIOUX COUNTY.

From its Organization to the Present Time.

A paper prepared and read by M. J. Weber before the Sioux County Alliance on the 16th day of July, 1892.

On the 20th day of September in the year 1886, James W. Dawes, then Governor of the state of Nebraska, issued a proclamation temporarily organizing the county of Sioux and fixing its temporary county seat at the present site of Harrison. On the 4th of November of the same year a set of county officers was elected and the county was immediately thereafter permanently organized.

During the year 1887, the first fiscal year of its existence, Daniel Klein, Andrew McGinley and Don M. Weir were county commissioners and Charles C. Jameson was county clerk of said county.

On the 20th day of June, 1887, the first tax levy of said county was made by said board on a total assessed valuation of $394,978.64, the rate of taxation being 15 mills on the dollar. The levy was not divided, the entire 15 mills being for the general fund, making such levy irregular, as the statute provides (Cobley 1891, section 3976):

"On the last day of sitting as a board of equalization the county board shall levy the necessary taxes for the current year, including all county, township, city, school district, precinct, village, and other taxes required by law to be certified to the county clerk and levied by the county board; provided, that school district taxes voted at the school district annual meeting and certified to the county clerk, on or before the first Monday in July, shall be levied by said county clerk when such levy is within the limits of the law. The rate of tax for county purposes shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of indebtedness existing at the adoption of the present constitution, unless authorized by a vote of the people of the county, and shall be as follows: In counties under township organization, for ordinary county revenue, including the support of the poor, not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; and labor tax as provided in the following section. In counties not under township organization, for ordinary county revenue (including the support of the poor) not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than three mills on the dollar valuation, and labor tax as provided in the following section."

The recent labor troubles call loudly for more stringent laws of immigration. The present inefficient laws on that line have done much to bring about such troubles.

The fusion of the democrats and independents in Kansas does not meet with the approval of many of those who are democrats in principle, and steps are being taken to call a democratic state convention and nominate a democratic ticket.

Hon. Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, has been elected as chairman of the national republican committee and will take charge of the campaign from now on. Mr. Carter is a man of energy and ability and will lead the party to victory in November.

The crop reports from Washington state that small grain in Nebraska has been injured by drouth and corn has also been retarded by the same cause. That report is not correct so far as Sioux is concerned. Northwest Nebraska could have spared some of its rainfall to the less favored localities.

A merry war is being waged between Jay Burrows and Van Wyck. The latter stated the Burrows was the "meanest man God ever put on earth and let live," which leads Burrows to remark that Van Wyck has never "suspected of getting here in the same manner," and further says that Van Wyck stands no show of being nominated by the independents for governor.

No better indication of the future prosperity of northwest Nebraska could be asked than the fact that every one who visits Sioux county and sees the excellent crops and natural advantages expresses himself as better pleased than he expected to be, and a good many are becoming interested in land, and all will do work for Sioux county by telling their friends what is to be had here.

The press tickets for the 26th state fair are out. Secretary Furnas has always had something nice to present to the newspaper fraternity but the ticket of 1892 excels that of any previous year. The corner piece in which two giants are engaged in a friendly struggle for supremacy are wearing as a coat-of-arms, one a large ear of corn and the other a massive sugar beet, with the wording, "which is king, corn or sugar," pleasantly calls to mind the leading industries of Nebraska. The state fair this year occurs Sept. 2d to 9th, and the indications are that it will be a greater exposition than any of its predecessors.

In the fine of preparation for the Nebraska exhibit at the world's fair the Nebraska Development Company of Omaha bids fair to accomplish a great deal of good. It has a capital of $50,000 and is acting under the authority of national and state commissioners. Northwest Nebraska and Sioux county in particular should do everything possible to make the fact known that better opportunities are offered by this locality than any other portion of the state, and with that end in view our people should cooperate with the organizations made to further the interests of the state in the matter of an exhibit.

Grover Cleveland's opponents in the house and senate are preparing to send the free silver coinage bill to the president, in order to give Mr. Harrison a chance to veto it. They realize that a veto of the measure would be worth tens of thousands of independent votes to the republican candidates. And what could Mr. Cleveland say in reply? That he is the candidate of the party that glancingly repudiates its own solemn pledges? The democratic representatives and senators seem to be bent on forcing him to decline the democratic nomination in order to place General James B. Weaver on the ticket in his place. But even that would be too honest and straightforward an act for the present democracy.—Inter Com.

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION OF SIOUX COUNTY.

From its Organization to the Present Time.

A paper prepared and read by M. J. Weber before the Sioux County Alliance on the 16th day of July, 1892.

On the 20th day of September in the year 1886, James W. Dawes, then Governor of the state of Nebraska, issued a proclamation temporarily organizing the county of Sioux and fixing its temporary county seat at the present site of Harrison. On the 4th of November of the same year a set of county officers was elected and the county was immediately thereafter permanently organized.

During the year 1887, the first fiscal year of its existence, Daniel Klein, Andrew McGinley and Don M. Weir were county commissioners and Charles C. Jameson was county clerk of said county.

On the 20th day of June, 1887, the first tax levy of said county was made by said board on a total assessed valuation of $394,978.64, the rate of taxation being 15 mills on the dollar. The levy was not divided, the entire 15 mills being for the general fund, making such levy irregular, as the statute provides (Cobley 1891, section 3976):

"On the last day of sitting as a board of equalization the county board shall levy the necessary taxes for the current year, including all county, township, city, school district, precinct, village, and other taxes required by law to be certified to the county clerk and levied by the county board; provided, that school district taxes voted at the school district annual meeting and certified to the county clerk, on or before the first Monday in July, shall be levied by said county clerk when such levy is within the limits of the law. The rate of tax for county purposes shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of indebtedness existing at the adoption of the present constitution, unless authorized by a vote of the people of the county, and shall be as follows: In counties under township organization, for ordinary county revenue, including the support of the poor, not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; and labor tax as provided in the following section. In counties not under township organization, for ordinary county revenue (including the support of the poor) not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than three mills on the dollar valuation, and labor tax as provided in the following section."

The recent labor troubles call loudly for more stringent laws of immigration. The present inefficient laws on that line have done much to bring about such troubles.

The fusion of the democrats and independents in Kansas does not meet with the approval of many of those who are democrats in principle, and steps are being taken to call a democratic state convention and nominate a democratic ticket.

Hon. Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, has been elected as chairman of the national republican committee and will take charge of the campaign from now on. Mr. Carter is a man of energy and ability and will lead the party to victory in November.

The crop reports from Washington state that small grain in Nebraska has been injured by drouth and corn has also been retarded by the same cause. That report is not correct so far as Sioux is concerned. Northwest Nebraska could have spared some of its rainfall to the less favored localities.

A merry war is being waged between Jay Burrows and Van Wyck. The latter stated the Burrows was the "meanest man God ever put on earth and let live," which leads Burrows to remark that Van Wyck has never "suspected of getting here in the same manner," and further says that Van Wyck stands no show of being nominated by the independents for governor.

No better indication of the future prosperity of northwest Nebraska could be asked than the fact that every one who visits Sioux county and sees the excellent crops and natural advantages expresses himself as better pleased than he expected to be, and a good many are becoming interested in land, and all will do work for Sioux county by telling their friends what is to be had here.

The press tickets for the 26th state fair are out. Secretary Furnas has always had something nice to present to the newspaper fraternity but the ticket of 1892 excels that of any previous year. The corner piece in which two giants are engaged in a friendly struggle for supremacy are wearing as a coat-of-arms, one a large ear of corn and the other a massive sugar beet, with the wording, "which is king, corn or sugar," pleasantly calls to mind the leading industries of Nebraska. The state fair this year occurs Sept. 2d to 9th, and the indications are that it will be a greater exposition than any of its predecessors.

In the fine of preparation for the Nebraska exhibit at the world's fair the Nebraska Development Company of Omaha bids fair to accomplish a great deal of good. It has a capital of $50,000 and is acting under the authority of national and state commissioners. Northwest Nebraska and Sioux county in particular should do everything possible to make the fact known that better opportunities are offered by this locality than any other portion of the state, and with that end in view our people should cooperate with the organizations made to further the interests of the state in the matter of an exhibit.

Grover Cleveland's opponents in the house and senate are preparing to send the free silver coinage bill to the president, in order to give Mr. Harrison a chance to veto it. They realize that a veto of the measure would be worth tens of thousands of independent votes to the republican candidates. And what could Mr. Cleveland say in reply? That he is the candidate of the party that glancingly repudiates its own solemn pledges? The democratic representatives and senators seem to be bent on forcing him to decline the democratic nomination in order to place General James B. Weaver on the ticket in his place. But even that would be too honest and straightforward an act for the present democracy.—Inter Com.

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION OF SIOUX COUNTY.

From its Organization to the Present Time.

A paper prepared and read by M. J. Weber before the Sioux County Alliance on the 16th day of July, 1892.

On the 20th day of September in the year 1886, James W. Dawes, then Governor of the state of Nebraska, issued a proclamation temporarily organizing the county of Sioux and fixing its temporary county seat at the present site of Harrison. On the 4th of November of the same year a set of county officers was elected and the county was immediately thereafter permanently organized.

During the year 1887, the first fiscal year of its existence, Daniel Klein, Andrew McGinley and Don M. Weir were county commissioners and Charles C. Jameson was county clerk of said county.

On the 20th day of June, 1887, the first tax levy of said county was made by said board on a total assessed valuation of $394,978.64, the rate of taxation being 15 mills on the dollar. The levy was not divided, the entire 15 mills being for the general fund, making such levy irregular, as the statute provides (Cobley 1891, section 3976):

"On the last day of sitting as a board of equalization the county board shall levy the necessary taxes for the current year, including all county, township, city, school district, precinct, village, and other taxes required by law to be certified to the county clerk and levied by the county board; provided, that school district taxes voted at the school district annual meeting and certified to the county clerk, on or before the first Monday in July, shall be levied by said county clerk when such levy is within the limits of the law. The rate of tax for county purposes shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of indebtedness existing at the adoption of the present constitution, unless authorized by a vote of the people of the county, and shall be as follows: In counties under township organization, for ordinary county revenue, including the support of the poor, not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; and labor tax as provided in the following section. In counties not under township organization, for ordinary county revenue (including the support of the poor) not more than nine mills on the dollar valuation; for roads, not more than five mills on the dollar valuation; for county bridge fund, not more than four mills on the dollar valuation; for county sinking fund, not more than three mills on the dollar valuation, and labor tax as provided in the following section."

The recent labor troubles call loudly for more stringent laws of immigration. The present inefficient laws on that line have done much to bring about such troubles.

The fusion of the democrats and independents in Kansas does not meet with the approval of many of those who are democrats in principle, and steps are being taken to call a democratic state convention and nominate a democratic ticket.

Hon. Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, has been elected as chairman of the national republican committee and will take charge of the campaign from now on. Mr. Carter is a man of energy and ability and will lead the party to victory in November.

The crop reports from Washington state that small grain in Nebraska has been injured by drouth and corn has also been retarded by the same cause. That report is not correct so far as Sioux is concerned. Northwest Nebraska could have spared some of its rainfall to the less favored localities.

A merry war is being waged between Jay Burrows and Van Wyck. The latter stated the Burrows was the "meanest man God ever put on earth and let live," which leads Burrows to remark that Van Wyck has never "suspected of getting here in the same manner," and further says that Van Wyck stands no show of being nominated by the independents for governor.

No better indication of the future prosperity of northwest Nebraska could be asked than the fact that every one who visits Sioux county and sees the excellent crops and natural advantages expresses himself as better pleased than he expected to be, and a good many are becoming interested in land, and all will do work for Sioux county by telling their friends what is to be had here.

The press tickets for the 26th state fair are out. Secretary Furnas has always had something nice to present to the newspaper fraternity but the ticket of 1892 excels that of any previous year. The corner piece in which two giants are engaged in a friendly struggle for supremacy are wearing as a coat-of-arms, one a large ear of corn and the other a massive sugar beet, with the wording, "which is king, corn or sugar," pleasantly calls to mind the leading industries of Nebraska. The state fair this year occurs Sept. 2d to 9th, and the indications are that it will be a greater exposition than any of its predecessors.

In the fine of preparation for the Nebraska exhibit at the world's fair the Nebraska Development Company of Omaha bids fair to accomplish a great deal of good. It has a capital of $50,000 and is acting under the authority of national and state commissioners. Northwest Nebraska and Sioux county in particular should do everything possible to make the fact known that better opportunities are offered by this locality than any other portion of the state, and with that end in view our people should cooperate with the organizations made to further the interests of the state in the matter of an exhibit.

Grover Cleveland's opponents in the house and senate are preparing to send the free silver coinage bill to the president, in order to give Mr. Harrison a chance to veto it. They realize that a veto of the measure would be worth tens of thousands of independent votes to the republican candidates. And what could Mr. Cleveland say in reply? That he is the candidate of the party that glancingly repudiates its own solemn pledges? The democratic representatives and senators seem to be bent on forcing him to decline the democratic nomination in order to place General James B. Weaver on the ticket in his place. But even that would be too honest and straightforward an act for the present democracy.—Inter Com.

Sioux County Lumber Co. MANUFACTURERS OF Lumber, Lath and Shingles. A Good Supply of Native Lumber Always on Hand. LUMBER DELIVERED AT THE MILL OR IN HARRISON. MILL NEAR FIVE POINTS. JOHN A. LUCAS, PRESIDENT.

THE BANK OF HARRISON, NEBRASKA. ESTABLISHED 1887. HARRISON, NEBRASKA. AUTHORIZED CAPITAL $500,000. Transacts a General Banking Business. Buys School Orders, County and Village Warrants. CORRESPONDENTS: KOUSSZE BROS., New York City. FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Omaha. FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Leavenworth. BANK OF CHICAGO.

WE HAVE OPENED BUSINESS FOR 1892. Determined to make every dollar possible to add to the number of our customers, and if good prices and fair treatment will secure them, we are bound to win. Come and see What we Have in the Store.

Dry Goods, Groceries and Shoes, etc. AND GET OUR PRICES. OUR STOCK OF HARDWARE IS COMPLETE.

And we will have all kinds of FARM MACHINERY.

GRISWOLD & MARS. FARMERS YOU WANT A STAR FIVE H.P. PUMP. LOOK HERE. THE BEST COSTS ONLY $28. LASTS FOR EVER. THE STAR DRILL CO., RURAL.