

The Labor Outlook Threats Leg.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The labor outlook in large manufacturing and ship building centers of Great Britain is threatening.

Rumors have circulated for several days past that a large drapery house in the west end of London is hopelessly involved.

Opposite Gra U's Tomb.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The executive committee on the Columbus celebration met it was decided that the end of the naval parade should be opposite Grant's tomb.

On a Peace Footing.

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—The National Zeitung states positively that the new army bill will add 95,000 men to the German army on a peace footing.

The Utes on the Wa. Path.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 5.—Governor Rout has received intelligence from the Yampah river county that the Utes had crossed the Colorado state line, and were committing depredations.

James Spurgeon Ill.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—James Spurgeon brother of the late Charles Spurgeon and one of the present aspirants to the Tabernacle pastorate, is seriously ill.

An old soldier in Stagsburg, Va., who is his eighty-third year, lately found his false teeth uncomfortable.

A Ferment of Excitement.

WESTCHESTER, Pa., Oct. 8.—The 2,000 colored people of this place are in a ferment of excitement and fear over the prophecies of Rev. Andrew Jones.

Attempt to Blow up Hoarding Ho. c. PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 8.—An attempt to blow up the Mansion house a non-union boarding house in Home street, with dynamite yesterday morning.

Released too Soon. NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Complications have arisen over the release of the steamship Massilia of the Ha-re line from quarantine.

Reports kept Secret. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—A cable dispatch from Admiral Walker, containing information of the battle at Macuto, Venezuela, between the government forces and the revolutionists was received at the navy department yesterday.

A Body Found. BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The charred body of Leopold Clautzer was found in the ruins of the Mc Laure homestead, which was burned at Mapleton, New Utrecht, L. I.

W. C. T. U. Convent on Close. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 8.—The Nebraska Woman's Christian Temperance union state convention closed yesterday.

James Spurgeon Ill. LONDON, Oct. 5.—James Spurgeon brother of the late Charles Spurgeon and one of the present aspirants to the Tabernacle pastorate, is seriously ill.

Attempted Bank Robbery.

PARSONS, Kan., Oct. 6.—Yesterday morning shortly after the First National bank of Coffeyville, Kan., opened its doors, five mounted men drew up before the bank and three of them entered and with drawn revolvers ordered the cashier to hand over the money in the safe and vault.

Judge Gresham's Politics. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 6.—Efforts have been made in certain directions to discredit the report sent out from this city last week to the effect that Judge Gresham had declared to Judge Allen that it was his purpose to vote for Grover Cleveland.

Episcopal Law Makers. BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 6.—The supreme law-making body of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States, the general convention of 1892 assembled at Emmanuel church at 9:30 o'clock and began its three weeks' session.

Florida Elections. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 6.—George W Wilson, chairman of the democratic committee, reports that his advisers give Mitchell a majority of 29,000 over Barker, people's.

The Election in Georgia. ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 6.—The state election was held yesterday. Returns from seventy-five counties out of a total of 137 give the democratic ticket a majority of over 30,000.

His Sentence was Commuted. NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 6.—Notwithstanding the recent reports of the execution of Brubacker, the South Dakota sharpshooter, in Honduras, information was received from the steamer S. Otterl, which arrived in port Monday night, that Brubacker was not killed, but was sentenced to three years' imprisonment at Amapala.

Earthquakes in the Black Hills. HOT SPRINGS, S. D., Oct. 7.—Last evening fifteen minutes before 9 o'clock the residents of the city were startled by a very perceptible earthquake, which lasted about twenty seconds.

Earthquakes in the Black Hills. HOT SPRINGS, S. D., Oct. 7.—Last evening fifteen minutes before 9 o'clock the residents of the city were startled by a very perceptible earthquake, which lasted about twenty seconds.

The Great Poet Dead.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Lord Tennyson died at thirty-five minutes past 1 o'clock yesterday morning. His passing away was calm and peaceful.

A Fred Tennyson was born in 1808 at Somersby in Lincolnshire, England, of which parish his father was rector.

Woollen by Force. CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 7.—At Maxton, in the northeastern part of Franklin county, there occurred a desperate encounter between three men and three women.

Fire From Kerosene. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A kerosene lamp was upset in the room of Maurice Furman at 109 Seventh street, at an early hour yesterday morning.

Mrs. Hartson's Condition. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—There was no change of note yesterday in Mrs. Hartson's condition and her physician said after making his last call for the day that she was resting nicely.

Fire From Kerosene. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A kerosene lamp was upset in the room of Maurice Furman at 109 Seventh street, at an early hour yesterday morning.

Cholera Still Prevaling.

HAMBURG, Oct. 10.—The official cholera statistics for yesterday place the number of cases here at twelve against fourteen on Thursday.

QUARANTINE, S. I., Oct. 10.—The steerage passengers of the steamer Bohemia, who were detained at Hoffman Island for observation, were allowed to land at 1 p. m. yesterday.

BERLIN, Oct. 10.—Four more inmates of the house of correction here have been attacked with cholera and removed to the hospital.

MASSACHUSETTS, Oct. 10.—Several suspicious cases of sickness have occurred here during the last few days.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—In this city and suburbs twenty fresh cases of cholera were reported to the authorities.

WELFARE, Oct. 10.—Imperator Wilhelm arrived here to attend the golden wedding of the grand duke and duchess.

Pan Handle Wreck. PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 10.—At 10 o'clock Saturday night a freight and passenger train, bound running at fair rate of speed, came together on a curve about two miles west of Xenia, O.

Fire From Kerosene. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A kerosene lamp was upset in the room of Maurice Furman at 109 Seventh street, at an early hour yesterday morning.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 10.—There was no change of note yesterday in Mrs. Hartson's condition and her physician said after making his last call for the day that she was resting nicely.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 10.—There was no change of note yesterday in Mrs. Hartson's condition and her physician said after making his last call for the day that she was resting nicely.

NEBRASKA

The republican club at Kearney has 500 torches. Four bridges are being built at Wakefield.

John F. Greer, a well known of Auburn, is dead. Levi Rice, a citizen of Hastings, has been declared insane.

Kearney expects to resume fuel cracker factory. Mrs. Thayer wife of General died at Bellingham, Mass.

There is talk of establishing an college at Battle Creek. Fire did considerable damage to hardware store of T. N. York.

Nancy Wymore, an incorrigible of Wymore, has been sent to school. Mrs. Harriett Bowen of Battle Creek has been bitten by a rattlesnake on her still living.

A number of hogs belonging to Shelly, near Wymore, have been dropped. Mrs. N. P. Newman of Hastings presented the Burwell school with an elegant silk flag.

The "Vanity Fair" departed Stella Pre-s could be improved if it altogether. Several Fremont saloons have been arrested for keeping open on the sabbath day.

Columbus, Schuyler and Newton have run ashore on ice, and are porting from Fremont. David Farr, a Grand Islander, jumped on a moving freight train, doctor amputated two toes.

Plattsmouth has a "cholera sewer" who is willing to meet in that line for a stake or the receipt. The Fairbury Gazette is three years old, and age has not dimmed its lustre.

The Norfolk sugar beet factory opened its season's run and is grinding up beets at the rate of ten per day. Mont Johnson of Ashland died of a severe case of cholera.

Charles E. Hodgkiss of Berkeley went to New York to have a tumor removed from his face, died while en route. The voters of Cumming county are petitioning praying for a change from the superior commissioner system.

Fire in the shed at the Union cards at South Omaha caused aggregating $10,000. Nearly a half million sheep shed. Peter Baackbird, a Winnebago of doubtful pedigree, is in jail on the charge of assaulting Walker with intent to kill.

The 7 year-old son of B. C. Edwards fell from the window of his father's office and broke his arm, sustaining internal injuries. John W. Gilbert, who was newly independent of Sibley for state senator, has declined nomination and will not make the race.

Counterfeit quarters are circulating, and people who doubt pay their debts with spurious ones looking to the government for redress. Thieves entered the residence of Oscar Loewer of Grand Island, finding nothing that they wanted, so in time to avoid being detected.

While John Clark of Ashland was climbing a roof a sheet of the war by the wind against his stratagem cut his hand off. People use shingles. A thirteen-year-old son of J. J. Crew, at Liberty, was run over by front trucks of a threshing machine Saturday. His injuries, although serious, may not prove fatal.

Chris Mikesell, a farmer about two miles west of Dakota last Tuesday, fell from the hay on the ground, a distance of ten feet, and was killed. He was picked up unconscious taken to his home a short way. Physicians report that his bones were broken, but that he suffered a complete paralysis of the side.

Last Saturday a farmer came to the city to do some business while making some purchases. The lady asked her husband for money to purchase a bill of goods going down in a capacious "pauper" farmer pulled out a piece, and handed it to her.

A question "Will that be sufficient?" person who told the reporter. The man said the farmer had more of those good gold pocket and a good pile in his yet ten years ago the farmer Nebraska with nothing but a wagon. Besides his bank owned 260 acres of land without encumbrance on it.

After Dark last Saturday Steve Vail was driving to his seven miles east of the city, when a log of lumber, he drove into a ditch, which shook a bunch of hay down upon the backs of his frightening them so that they from the wagon and ran furiously. He could not find his team but for the following two days, but that they had been killed by a snake near Stanton.

The Nebraska City council has favor to have a market place for the farmers.

The Nebraska City council has favor to have a market place for the farmers.