

THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL.

OL. 5.

HARRISON, NEB., DEC. 15, 1892.

NO. 14

THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL.

Simmons, Editor and Proprietor.

E. & M. V. R. Time table.
Going West. No. 6, mixed. 6:30
Going East. No. 7, mixed. 6:30

HARRISON MARKET.

per bushel	48.50
per hundred	4.85
per hundred	1.00
per hundred	1.25
per hundred	1.50
per hundred	1.75
per hundred	2.00
per hundred	2.25
per hundred	2.50
per hundred	2.75
per hundred	3.00
per hundred	3.25
per hundred	3.50
per hundred	3.75
per hundred	4.00
per hundred	4.25
per hundred	4.50
per hundred	4.75
per hundred	5.00

Best line of cigars in town at the store.

We will take some good potatoes on subscription.

Old papers for sale at THE JOURNAL for 5 cents per dozen.

Highest market prices paid for best. GRANT GUTHRIE.

No complaint can be made so far of kind of winter weather we are having.

A turkey shoot was indulged in by some of the local "shootists" last Saturday.

WANTED—Parties having land to sell trade for stock to advertise in THE JOURNAL.

A supper was given at the M. E. church last Friday evening and was well attended.

WANTED—Stock to winter, cheap, particulars address John L. Kay, Harrison, Nebr.

It is reported that the gay and festive fruit tree agent is abroad in the east part of the county.

Mrs. H. A. Cunningham is selling winter goods and millinery at cost, at residence and secure a bargain.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the light of the morning. Catalogue, write Rochester Lamp Co., New York.

B. L. Smuck says the local in THE JOURNAL in regard to the hoisting blocks to their return. It pays to advertise.

Remember THE JOURNAL clubs with paper published and by ordering through this office you can save money.

The M. E. Sunday school is arranging to have a Christmas tree on Christmas eve. All who desire may put presents on the tree.

LUMBER—First-class native lumber and shingles constantly on hand at my mill on East Boggy, 13 miles east of Harrison. J. E. ARNER.

The owners of the lot on which the Christensen building stood have authorized J. E. Marsteller to have the walk laid along the front. The rest of the lot owners whose walks were destroyed by the fire should not delay getting the walks re-built.

I have purchased a larger and more extensive assortment of holiday goods. Will be glad to receive a call from you if you believe that I can satisfy you in goods suitable for the holidays. Jas. Scott, Dealer in Confectionery.

A good many have called and settled their accounts but there are still a good many who have not yet come to me. We trust these will not delay. The money due us would enable us to pay our bills and we should like to square up with every one the first of the year.

Last Thursday J. C. Eberspacher bought us a load of wood on subscription, for quality and quantity would compare favorably with the loads brought to town to be sold for cash, and is highly appreciated by us. Some men do honest even in their dealings with the dealer.

Numerous requests have been made we go into the real estate business, circumstances are such that we can give the matter the necessary attention, but any one having land to sell or lease for stock is requested to call and arrange to advertise the same in THE JOURNAL's lead list.

There is no question but what this line of road will be extended as soon as the weather will permit in the spring. It is reported that land for material has already been secured at Cambridge, and supplies will likely begin to come up the road to that point very shortly after the first of the year. The extension of the road and the development of the mineral resources of Wyoming will greatly add to the prosperity of this locality and will also bring improved conditions.

PERSONAL.

O. A. Garten was in town on Tuesday.

J. H. Cook went to Crawford Tuesday evening.

C. F. Coffee spent Monday night down the road.

E. J. Wilcox was up from Warbonnet precinct yesterday.

J. Stinson sent us a remittance on subscription last week.

John and Albert Sutton came down from Pleasant Ridge yesterday.

C. F. Carlton arrived Saturday to spend the holidays with relatives.

L. A. Brower sent us a remittance last week to apply on his subscription.

Clint Hough has been laid up the past week with rheumatism in the knee.

J. J. Zumbrennen, of Pleasant Ridge, is doing business in Harrison today.

Mrs. S. L. Uery has returned to her school work in Cottonwood precinct.

C. E. Verity made a business trip to Ardmore, S. D., the first of the week.

H. T. Zerbe was in town Monday and gave us a good lot of money on subscription.

A. H. Stafer came up from Rushville Saturday and spent Sunday with his father.

John I. Davis returned last week from the hills, having accomplished the purposes of his trip.

Rev. and Mrs. Glasner left for Box Butte county Monday evening, being called there by the sickness of relatives.

D. M. Sutton's oldest child has been quite sick, but is improving.

S. L. Uery expects to move out on his homestead in the near future.

G. Guthrie has commenced work on his grain house. It will be on the railroad track, just east of the elevator.

For some reason or other no papers came on Tuesday from the east so on Wednesday a double dose was received.

Last Saturday was the 14th birthday of Miss Claudia Hester and in the evening a number of her young friends came in and spent a very pleasant evening with her.

The school board has employed W. H. Davis and Miss Steen as teachers for the ensuing term of school here. Both of them appear to have given general satisfaction in their past work.

P. L. McCrea has sold his farm north of town to a man living in Illinois. The purchaser expects to occupy the premises about the last of February. Sioux county real estate is coming into demand.

The New Year's masquerade ball is a sure go and those in charge are taking steps to make it one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Everybody who enjoys dancing should attend and the more maskers there are the more fun can be had. Everybody mask.

The good qualities of Barker's road are beginning to be appreciated even before the road is opened to travel and the people are beginning to see what can be accomplished by systematic work in roadmaking are preparing to take a more active interest in the matter. Haphazard work never made good roads.

On last Monday evening B. L. Smuck was about to put a tank of water into his cistern when his little son, John, ran out and lifted the cover from the cistern, and in doing so lost his balance and went head first to the bottom. There was just water enough in the cistern to prevent the little one from receiving serious injury by its fall and Mr. Smuck quickly rescued him from the water.

Last week was a rather hard one on this line of railroad. On Thursday evening the eastbound train when near Van Tassel broke in two and when it came together twenty-two drawheads were broken and the passengers badly shaken up. The next evening a wheel on a freight car broke when the train was near Glen and in the shaking up which followed the express car was somewhat damaged, but fortunately no one was hurt at either time.

About a year ago Swan Peterson, who lived in the north part of the county, made up his mind he had had enough of frontier life and took his effects and went to his former home in Iowa. A few weeks ago he returned bringing others with him, and he says he is satisfied that Sioux county is a much better place for a poor man than can be found in the east. When people see what others have to contend with in the west who are in about the same financial circumstances, they readily see that Sioux county possesses advantages over almost any locality.

Ladies.—I intend to discontinue the millinery business after Christmas. I will close out at cost. Call early and secure a bargain. Mrs. E. M. W.

Grammercy Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Crane and Mrs. Hamlin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Davis.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Warn—a girl.

The Eldridge Bros. have got back from their hunt. We did not learn what success they had.

S. M. Thomas lost a valuable mule a few days ago by sickness.

Harry Dougherty from Indian creek, Wyo., was in our neighborhood Saturday to buy corn.

Born to Mrs. and Mrs. O. A. Garten on the seventh—a boy.

Mr. Erdmann returned from his week's hunt but with no game.

The thrashing machine is idle now and Mr. Nolan and Mr. Ellis have returned to their homes.

Sam Leling is mourning the loss of his dog by poison.

John Sutton and Locke Kirtley spent Sunday at Geo. Davis'.

Dug Hamlin and Leslie Crane were in your city Thursday. G. L.

Williams—Thomas—At the county court room in Harrison, Nebr., on Wednesday, December 14, 1892, by S. Barker, county judge, Mr. Charles S. Williams and Miss Lillie Thomas, both of Sioux county, Nebr.

The groom is one of the enterprising young farmers of Indian creek and the bride has been one of Sioux county's successful teachers. All unite in wishing them a long and prosperous married life.

Married.

Williams—Thomas—At the county court room in Harrison, Nebr., on Wednesday, December 14, 1892, by S. Barker, county judge, Mr. Charles S. Williams and Miss Lillie Thomas, both of Sioux county, Nebr.

The groom is one of the enterprising young farmers of Indian creek and the bride has been one of Sioux county's successful teachers. All unite in wishing them a long and prosperous married life.

Great Horse Sale.

The undersigned will sell at Harrison on Saturday, December 17, at Hoyt's livery barn about 25 good, young horses and mares, all are halter broken and most of them broken to harness, and all are gentle.

Terms—A credit of 12 months will be given on approved notes bearing 10 per cent. interest. 10 per cent. off for cash. Thomas Reidy, auctioneer. J. G. MORRIS.

Holiday Excursion Rates.

On Dec. 24, 25, 26 and 31st and Jan'y 1st and 2nd the Elkhorn railroad will sell excursion tickets to all points within 200 miles at one and one third fare for the round trip. Tickets good returning until Jan'y. 3rd. E. F. POSTHUS, Agent.

Metzoff, the ablest political writer in Nebraska, will represent the World-Herald at Lincoln during the coming session of the legislature. This means that the World-Herald's reports of legislative doing and legislative struggle will be highly interesting and readable. People of Nebraska are already familiar with the peculiar style which makes those articles in the World-Herald which are signed "Met" so eagerly sought for. For the convenience of our readers we will take subscriptions for the world World-Herald at $1.00 a year or to the daily World-Herald during the session of the legislature at $1.50.

LIST OF LANDS

—IN— SIOUX COUNTY, NEBR.—

—FOR— Sale or Trade.

1. 160 acres of smooth land for sale or trade for stock, running stream of fine, pure water; 30 acres under fence; 30 acres under cultivation; good house and stables; government land adjoining. A No. 1 farm. Address C. Care JOURNAL.

2. For sale or trade for stock a quarter section of good land located five miles from Harrison. Part good farm land; the balance good timber and grazing land with good stream of running water with some other improvements; also a good mill site on the land. Address B care JOURNAL.

3. 400 acres of fine land in one body for sale or trade for stock. Running water; fine springs; plenty of wood for fuel and building purposes on premises; government land adjoining; good house and stable; 300 acres under fence; 300 acres good plow land, balance good pasture and timber. A bargain if taken soon. Address C care JOURNAL.

4. 100 acres of fine land for sale or trade for stock. Running water and spring; government land adjoining; 100 acres good plow land; balance pasture. Address B care JOURNAL.

5. One hundred and sixty acres of land nine miles from Harrison, Nebr. 30 acres broken; some fenced. House and other buildings; good soil; pure water and one mile from timber. For terms apply to Thos. Reidy.

6. Good 100 acre farm; 30 acres broken; all fenced; good hewed log home 18x18; addition 18x18; 18 story; in good condition of repair. This farm is located 3 miles from railroad station. Apply to Thos. Reidy.

7. Good farm of 100 acres; 14 acres broken; all good soil; new water; one mile from school in good neighborhood and only 4 miles from railroad; terms very reasonable. Apply to Thos. Reidy.

"Mary."

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.

The Queen of the House of David," by Rev. A. Stewart Walsh, D. D., with extended introduction by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. is a new book just published. Mary is a stronger book than Ben-Hur in many respects and has met a tremendous sale. It has ten illustrations, all taken from famous paintings. It has the enthusiastic commendations of Benson Lossing the Historian, who says "It has a fascination on every page," and Headley, who says "The elegant book has no rival in the field of literature it occupies." Miss Willard calls it a "Vivid picture, whose whole tendency is to ennoble while it attracts and entertains." Mrs. Bishop John P. Newman, of Omaha says "I think there are portions of it that can hardly be excelled in any work of the kind;" to sum it all up it is a most blessed book and one that will make the heart of every Christian mother throb with pleasure. Among others who recommend it very highly we note Joseph Cook of Boston; John Hall D. D. of New York; Thos. Armitage of New York; Mrs. Phelps, the Chautauquan and hundreds of others.