As Carried every Thursday.

Hides bought at the harness shop.
Don't miss the ball February 14th.
Sunday night was rather cool around the edges.
Go to Turner's to buy your boots, shoes and over shoes.
Old papers for sale at THE JOURNAL office. 5 cents per dozen.

Don't scratch your paper, but buy a chemical eraser of R. F. Thomas.
Go to Turner's to do your trading and save 10 to 20 cents on the dollar.
Highest market prices paid for wheat.
If you want to sell your land, list it with Simmons & Smiley, real estate agents.

Alex. Lowry had a horse injured while dragging a log in the timber a few days ago.
Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the light of the morning. Catalogues write Rochester Lamp Co., New York.
Do you want to rent your farm? Put it in the hands of the real estate firm of Simmons & Smiley.
Supt. Southworth was wearing a stick Saturday as the result of allowing his team to pull a log over him one day last week. No bones were broken.

While in the east County Attorney Conley sold two quarter sections of Sioux county real estate. Western lands are coming in demand and Sioux county is becoming a favorite.

A real estate firm has been formed by L. J. Simmons and J. M. Smiley. They propose to buy and sell real estate and do a general land business. They will have correspondents in the east and will liberally advertise the advantages of Sioux county.

A board of trade should be organized by the business men of Harrison. The calls for information in regard to Sioux county, the prospects of a mill being erected here during the coming season, and various other matters of public import as are coming up should be met by some sort of an organization. Will some of the active business men take hold of the matter and get a board of trade started.

H. H. Russell while in town Tuesday informed us that he had not fed his stock anything at all this winter. He has cattle, horses and sheep, and last month he sold 19 sheep for $94, not having ever fed them anything but salt, and they were dressed by the butcher in Crawford and people objected to buying the mutton because it was too fat. Will people who want to find a good stock country make a note of that?

The stock raisers of the eastern states, as well as those of the eastern part of this state, who have been feeding high priced hay to their cattle, should come to Sioux county. Here many of the stock owners have not fed a bit of any kind of feed to their stock cattle and none have fed but little. The rich native grasses which grow here and cure on the ground are a source of profit to the farmers which is not yet duly appreciated.

G. W. Hester will start next week for a trip to Iowa to tell people of the advantages offered by Sioux county. He will visit a number of points and be absent for some time. Some action should be taken by the business men of the town to supply him with printed matter. Here is a demand for a board of trade and the sooner one is organized the better. For the case above mentioned some informal action should be taken as there is not sufficient time to organize.

One of the busiest men in Harrison is H. A. Cunningham, the harness-maker. Since he has been in business here he has established a reputation for good work and fair prices which brings him orders, not only from all parts of Sioux county, but from South Dakota and Wyoming. His harness work pleases the teamsters, his malle work suits the riders and his shoes suit all, and many come and leave away without even asking the price. For dealing always pays.

Masquerade Feb. 14th.
Turner wants your butter and eggs.
Hidden Barbed Wire $3.75 at Turner's.
Get your masks ready for St. Valentine's ball.

It is reported that the W. R. Smith building has been sold to some one in Chadron and it is expected that it will not be long until a new stock of goods will be opened up.

Rev. J. E. Wallace occupied the M. E. pulpit last Sunday morning and evening in the absence of Rev. Glasner. He also raised enough money to meet the interest payment due on the church property.

Correspondence is being had in regard to a mill and the indications are that it will not be long until definite action will be taken. A mill at Harrison would prove a good thing for the town and also for the man who builds it.

The young folks went to Commissioner Johnson's last Friday evening to skate. They expected a nice moonlight night, but had failed to consult an almanac on the subject, but with the aid of some lanterns they got along fairly well.

We have been handed a list of names of parties who have written to J. R. Buchanan, general passenger agent of the F. E. & M. V., in regard to lands in Nebraska. The list was sent to D. H. Griswold, cashier of the Commercial Bank, and was given to us with the request that sample copies of THE JOURNAL be sent to them. No better index of a town or locality can be found than a local paper, if such paper is advocating the advancement of the country.

THE JOURNAL is in receipt of a letter from Supt. O'Brien stating that he will be here with the fish car about the 1st of March. He will have a supply of young trout for all who are prepared to care for them and a large number will be put into the streams. Any who desire to get trout should leave word at this office. Unless you have clear spring-fed places for them trout is not what is wanted but some of the other varieties of fish which will be distributed later in the season.

THE JOURNAL was in error last week in regard to the hoisting rope used at the pumping station. The rope belonging to the village has been gone longer than the memory of man runneth back and the one which gave out belonged to Julius Sievers and the one obtained when that broke belonged to A. Hasselquist. Had it not been for the courtesy of those gentlemen a new rope would have had to be ordered before the pump could have been raised and that would have delayed matters still more. Thus it is shown that another reason is added for the better protection of the property of the village.

Some people expect when they go to a new country to get a homestead that they will find quarter sections of government land with big houses, barns, windmills, etc., and part of the land in a high state of cultivation and the rest sowed to tame grasses. When such people come to look for a homestead in that condition they are very apt to be disappointed, and it is just as well that such do not come. That class of people never did much to improve a country, but those who are seeking homesteads and cheap farms can come here and look around and see advantages offered by no other part of Nebraska in the early days of its settlement. Men who are in earnest looking for a home will be pleased with Sioux county for they will know a good thing when they see it.

Within the past week County Attorney Conley, Sheriff Reidy, Treasurer Gayhart and Cashier Verity have returned from eastern trips and all report bad, unpleasant, cold weather at the points visited and all were glad to get back to Sioux county. They also report a great rush of people toward the west and a great demand for land in the east at the high prices. The result of such a condition will be that people will flock to the west to secure lands at low rates or use their homestead right and secure 160 acres of Uncle Sam's domain. Every effort should be made to let people know what is to be had in Sioux county. The fact of there having been no railroad land in this part of the state made it unnecessary for the railroads to work to get it settled and hence it has been advertised only by local effort. The railroads will be benefited more than any one other interest by the settlement of the country, but they do not work as they did when they wished to settle a locality in which they owned a lot of land on which they were paying taxes and from which they were deriving no revenue. Real estate in Sioux county will not advance in value until more get here and hence it is to the interest of every one who has any real estate to do all in his power to get new settlers.

Mrs. J. H. Cook had the misfortune to run a needle into her hand a few days ago which broke off, leaving a piece of the steel imbedded in the flesh. Dr. Gibbs, of Crawford, was sent for and came up Tuesday and went to Agate Springs to remove the broken needle.

Prof. E. H. Barbour of the state university, who was detailed to make a collection of the soil from the different counties of Nebraska for exhibition at the world's fair, states that the soil of Sioux county is as good as that of any county in the state. That comes from as good authority as can be had on the subject.

The following appeared in an eastern exchange and shows how the people are feeling in regard to the intense cold which has prevailed there most of the winter. We advise all who are sick of the climate in which they live to come Sioux county and be happy:—"Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight, give me July again just for the night, soften the soil where the frost king has lain, oh, let me hear one mosquito again; I am so weary of snow drifts and ice, weary of paying the coal trust its price; weary, so weary of frost bitten pie—bring me a slice of the fourth of July. Backward, swing backward, oh season of snow—mercury fifteen to twenty below—turn on the heat of the tropical zone, roast me until I am cooked to the bone, I am so tired of freezing my nose, weary of chilblains and corns on my toes, weary of trying to sleep with cold feet—turn on the heat, mister, turn on the heat."

Nothing Else Like It.

When the publishers decided to issue the Journal twice a week at the same price of the old weeklies, $1.00 per year they struck just what the public wanted—something between the old-fashioned weekly and the high-priced daily. The success of the Semi-Weekly Journal has been immediate and continued. It has distanced every one of its once-a-week rivals. It doesn't take long to convince people that a good live paper every Tuesday and Friday is better than only one a week, especially when you apply to their pocket books, and give it to them at the same price. Readers will testify that it is almost as good as a daily. Its markets twice a week are worth the money. Four complete novels each year by "The Duchess," Miss Brakton, and other widely known authors, alone are worth the dollar, its legislative news is its strong point just now. It is wide-awake, spends money for news, and is always in the lead. You can see its superiority over the old-fashioned weekly. Everyone who subscribes now gets a Seaside Library free. This offer won't hold good always. One of our big offers is the Semi-Weekly Journal and Weekly New York Tribune, both one year for $1.25. Regular price of Tribune is $1.00. Our great premium, History of the United States, Stanley Book, or Life of Spurgeon, prepaid, and the Journal, $1.40. Either book is worth $1.50 alone. Your choice of these books and the Tribune and Journal a year for only $1.65. What a combination of reading matter! If you send us your own and another new name, we will send you either of the above books free. Subscribe now and get 104 papers a year, which is less than one cent per copy.
