SP Corrected every Thursday.

—Hides bought at the harness shop.
—Turner wants your butter and eggs.
—Glidden Barbed Wire $2.75 at Turner's.
—Fresh fish and dressed chickens at the meat market.
—Go to Turner's to buy your boots, shoes and over shoes.
—Old papers for sale at THE JOURNAL office. 5 cents per dozen.
—Go to Turners to do your trading and save 10 to 20 cents on the dollar.
—WANTED—A girl to do housework. Mrs. C. E. VERRY.
—Highest market prices paid for wheat. GRANT GUTHRIE.

—W. E. Brown, the new blacksmith, has a card in another column of this issue.
—The merry jingle of sleigh bells was heard on our streets the first of the week.
—If you want to sell your land, list it with Simmons & Smiley, real estate agents.
—Do you want to rent your farm? Put it in the hands of the real estate firm of Simmons & Smiley.
—W. R. Smith has opened a new livery barn in Chadron, and it is stated that it is the best barn in the town.
—Rev. Glaeser will preach at Bodarc next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., and in the Harrison church in the evening.
—Mares for sale or to trade for stock, also some hay for sale. WM. A. BIGELOW.

—H. T. Zerba has put up a fine large barn on his farm lately, which adds much to its general appearance and value.
—It began to snow Sunday morning and kept it up most of the day, but at this writing there is little of it left on the ground.
—The Crawford schools are closed on account of scarlet fever. The rash infected this locality some time ago but has now entirely disappeared.
—Stapley Howard left for his home in Box Butte county Tuesday, being unable to buy any cattle in this locality. It takes a good price to buy cattle in Sioux county, as it costs very little to winter them.

—Work is being resumed on the new road in Sowbelly canyon. The track looks much different from what it did six months ago and it will not be long after the frost is out of the ground until the road will be traveled.
Married.
BANDS—ARNBERGER.—At the home of James W. Arnberger, David H. Bands and Miss Sarah E. Arnberger, both of Sioux county, Neb., Rev. W. D. Glaeser, officiating.
The happy young people are to leave for South Dakota in the near future to visit the former home of the worthy bridegroom. May success attend them.

W. C. T. U.
Our state president, Mrs. Hitchcock, inquires where will be held the 17th district annual convention.
Would Harrison be pleased to entertain the convention? Let our workers think of it, and be able soon to report to the executive committee. Crawford entertained us royally last year and at that time delegates from Hay Springs, Chadron and Alliance requested the privilege of entertaining us in '93. Now, Harrison has the same right to that convention that other towns have.

Yours,
C. E. GLASSER, Pres. 17th Dist.
