The arrival of a new boy is reported at the home of Lewis Gerlach last Sunday evening. Such occurrences help to populate the country.

Take out a policy in the Preferred Mutual Accident Association. It is cheap and reliable. L. J. SIMMONS, Agent.

Rev. Giffin will preach at the church Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening. He is said to be an interesting speaker and all are invited to hear him.

A track on which young horses could be worked would bring a number of horses and drivers here and that means a good deal of money will be spent.

Every day we hear of more new people who are coming to Sioux county in the near future. The westward tide has set in and it will continue to increase in volume.

If you want to get young fish at the April delivery leave word at THE JOURNAL office at the earliest date possible. Don't wait until the car gets here as they only bring out what are spoken for.

The road down Sombelly canyon is in bad shape and needs some work done on it as soon as possible. Arrangements should be made to do some intelligent road work this year.

A dance was talked of to be held at the court house tomorrow evening, but it was learned that two dances would occur in the valley on that evening so it was decided not to hold one here until later.

Some method should be devised for extending the water system so as to afford some fire protection. The person who will evolve some practicable plan to secure that end will be entitled to a vote of thanks.

We are informed that J. B. Bradley and Geo. Bowen met with an accident while on their way from town Saturday. While going down the canyon road the wagon upset and Mr. Bowen was considerably hurt. Mr. Bradley is reported as having escaped unharmed.

The people of this locality and those west of here can make up their minds that they will not have so far to go to mill after the next crop is grown for it is almost certain that a mill will be erected here ready for operation before snow falls next autumn, and it will be a first-class mill.

—Don't use poor seed. If the wheat you have on hand is poor it will pay you to sell it and get some that is good, even at quite an increase in cost.

—The cantata to be given for the benefit of the L. T. L. will occur at the church this evening, the date having been changed from Friday to Thursday evening. The state L. T. L. banner will also be exhibited.

—Word was received here on Monday that Lew Morrison, formerly of this place, had died from the effects of wounds inflicted by an officer while resisting arrest at Centerville, Iowa, on last Saturday. His brother-in-law C. R. Wadsworth left for that place Monday evening.

—So far nothing definite has occurred to assure the extension of this line of railroad this season. If it is not extended perhaps some arrangement may be made for better train service through to Denver. It matters not to this locality where it goes so long as better facilities are furnished.

—A nephew of the Smiley boys is expected here next month from Illinois; Will Phillips and Henry Covey and others are expected from Seward in a few weeks; H. A. Priddy expects his brother-in-law soon and others are expected from other points. That is the way the people are coming in.

—One of the best illustrations of the advantage of using a press drill was told a few days ago. An implement dealer in the eastern part of the state made a proposition to a farmer that if he would buy a press drill and use it he would guarantee 20 bushels of wheat per acre, and if it yielded over 20 bushels he was to have it to pay him for the risk he ran. The result was that the crop yielded something over 40 bushels per acre and the implement dealer got over 20 bushels per acre.

—G. W. Hester arrived home from his trip to Iowa on Monday. He says that people are coming into Iowa from states east of the Mississippi and buying land at good prices and a great many of those who have sold their land and those who are renters are going to come west to seek new homes. He talked Sioux county and distributed a lot of advertising matter and he feels confident that many will be here during the summer to see the country with a view locating or purchasing land. He further says that it was too late in the season when he went there to induce people to come this spring as they had all made their arrangements for the coming season, but as soon as they get their work done they will come to investigate before making contracts for future.

—The demand for action in regard to a county fair is here. The new people coming in are anxious to help such an enterprise and those in charge should take steps to get the thing started. In addition to that there are a number of horse men who desire to train horses here if a track can be fixed up. Horse men are good men to have about a town. They spend a good deal of money and if a piece of land can be obtained for the use of the agricultural society and a track fitted up thereon it would be a good thing for the society, a good thing for the horse owners and a good thing for the town. The secretary of the agricultural society has moved away so that it will fall to the lot of the president to do the active work until a meeting is held and the vacancy filled. Let the start be made, and made as soon as possible.

—On last Friday the state fish car arrived at Harrison in charge of Assistant Supt. W. J. O'Brien, accompanied by Robert Barbee. They had several thousand young trout which were distributed in different streams about the county. On Saturday the fish men were taken out to see some of the streams and they pronounced them as fine trout streams as could be found and all that is necessary is for parties living along the streams to put in an application and they will be supplied with trout about the 20th of April when the car will be in this part of the state again. Those who have suitable locations for ponds should get them ready and apply for carp or some of the other varieties of pond fish as they get large enough to eat much quicker than the trout. The fish cost nothing but the trouble of making application and then coming here to get them so none need hesitate on that account. To have the streams stocked with good fish will prove a source of pleasure and profit and the fish commission desire to plant trout in all the streams suitable for them. Any parties desiring to obtain a supply of trout or carp at the delivery next month can make application direct to the superintendent or we will make application for them if they will inform us what they want. In making ponds care should be exercised to get them in a place safe from high water as the pond fish will go down with a flood but trout will stay in the deep holes during a flood and when it is past they go up stream.
