> -The B. & M. ran an excursion to Sheridan, Wyo., last week, the fare from Lincoln for the round trip having been $10. A great many people took advantade of the opportunity to visit that place. Why could not the Elkhown be induced to make an excursion rate to the northwest part of Nebraska? A low rate of fare from the eastern part of the state to this part, where homesteads and cheap farms can be had, if well advertised, would attract a large number of home-seekers and many new settlers would be secured to help develop this part of the state. If a good strong effort was made such an excursion might be arranged for.
