It is reported that J. G. Morris has traded for a farm a few miles from Crawford.

Don't forget to write to your friends in the east and tell them to come out on one of the harvest excursions and see you.

On last Sunday the marriage of John Fitzgerald and Miss Abbie Hunter, both of Bodarc, occurred. All extend best wishes to them for long life and happiness.

Charles Weaver had his hands poisoned in some manner a few days ago and they became so painful that he went down the road Friday night to get medical treatment.

Phillip Unitt writes us that he will ship the seed to sow his land to fall wheat in the near future. He will ship a car load if people here want any for seed. It will be the Turkey red variety and if any of the farmers want seed of that kind and will notify us within a few days we will inform Mr. Unitt and he will bring what they want. Do not put it off. If you want any wheat of that kind come right in and say so.

On last Friday Judge Barker received word that his father had died the night before. He had been sick for some time and gradually grew weaker, but it was thought that there would be some noticeable change in his condition before the end came, but such was not the case. Deceased was 88 years old, and was well known to many of the people here. He was born in England and came to the United States when a young man. The Judge left Friday evening and has taken the remains to Lake Geneva, Wis., to place them beside his mother who was buried there some years ago. He has the sympathy of all in his sorrow.

In another column appears the report of the meeting of the county agricultural society which was held on last Saturday. The result of which was that there will be a county collective exhibit made at the state fair. It is now in order for every one who has anything good in the lines that go to make up an exhibit to get it ready and notify the committee who are to have charge of the exhibit or the secretary of the society so that it may be arranged for. There is no reason why a good exhibit cannot be made this year. Those who have taken the most interest in the work state that a better exhibit can be made this year than was ever made by the county. Last year a good premium was won and a better one should be tried for this year. The premiums offered by the society for collections do not represent large sums but they show that the feeling is all right. It is admissible for two or more to consolidate their collections and bring them in as one or a precinct may make a collection and compete for the premiums in the name of the precinct if it is so desired to do. The time at which the awards will be made will be announced by the committee. Let a united effort be made and see if a good big prize cannot be won.

Agricultural Society Meeting.

Pursuant to the call of the executive committee the Sioux county agricultural society met at the court house in Harrison, Neb., on Saturday, August 12, 1893.

Neither the president nor vice-president being present the meeting was called to order by A. W. Mohr.

J. H. Bartell was elected chairman and L. J. Simmons, secretary.

On motion the meeting proceeded to the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

J. H. Cook, president; A. W. Mohr, first vice-president; J. H. Bartell, secretary; D. H. Griswold, treasurer.

The following vice-presidents were elected from the various precincts:

Andrews, H. H. Russell; Antelope, S. R. Story; Bowen, Thomas Reidy; Bodarc, Eli Smith; Cook, O. J. Govey; Cottonwood, W. J. A. Raum; Five Points, John Meinhart; Hat Creek, F. W. Knott; Montrose, M. Gayhart; Running Water, J. W. Earnest; Snake Creek, John P. Curran; Sheep Creek, M. J. Fritz; Warbonnet, B. F. Thomas; White River, M. J. Weber.

The report of H. W. MacLachlan as secretary was read, showing $67.00 to have been collected and placed in the hands of the treasurer and nothing paid out, and on motion the report was accepted and placed on file.

On motion it was decided to make a county collective exhibit at the state fair this year, and that $45.00 be appropriated to pay the expenses of a committee of three to take charge of getting the exhibit and accompanying the same to the state fair, and Eli Smith, John Meinhart and M. J. Weber were selected as such committee.

$10 was appropriated to pay premiums for best collections as follows: For best and largest collections of native grasses 1st $2.50; 2d $1.50; 3d $1.00.

For best and largest collections of farm products, wild fruits and other things to be used in the exhibit, 1st $2.50; 2d $1.50; 3d $1.00. All things entered for premiums to go into the collective exhibit at the state fair. C. W. Croudson, J. H. Bartell and E. E. Smiley were selected as judges to award premiums.

On motion the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president or secretary. J. H. BARTELL, President.

L. J. SIMMONS, Secretary.

What are you going to contribute to the state fair exhibit?

Last week we received a new invoice of job stock and are now better prepared to supply the wants of our customers than ever before. When in need of anything in that line call and see us.

The east bound train Tuesday evening was considerably behind time on account of having to push a train of coal into Lusk whose engine had become disabled, and then pull the dead engine to Chadron.

Don't forget to collect something to help out the state fair exhibit. When you find anything suitable put it away carefully and notify the committee that you will have it here on the appointed day to be loaded into the car.

While playing around some machinery yesterday J. W. Scott's oldest girl got the fingers of her right hand in the gearing and got them pretty badly mashed. It may be that they will come out all right but the chances are that they will be somewhat out of shape. She will have a very sore hand for some time.

Correspondence is being had with a number of druggists who are looking up a location and the probabilities are that it will not be long until some one will open a stock of goods of that kind here. A man who is a doctor as well as a druggist would be the most desirable, as both are needed very much.

J. E. Marsteller received notice of his appointment as postmaster a few days ago and has made out his bond and sent it to Washington and as soon as it is approved his commission will be issued. As the quarter is more than half past the change in the office will likely be made until October 1st.

More inquiries from prospective settlers are being received than ever before at this season of the year. The hard times and poor crops in many parts of the east will cause many people to seek the land of homesteads and Sioux county has the biggest stock of homesteads on hand of any county in Nebraska and she is anxious to reduce the supply.

J. H. Newlin was in town the first of the week to help T. O. Williams take his well drill to Gilchrist to put down a well for him. It is quite likely that others will take advantage of the opportunity and have wells put down while the machine is in that locality.

P. N. Kirkpatrick and family are now residents of Sioux county and will spend the winter at J. W. Earnest's and during that time select a place which they will make their home. A good many others will follow their example and come to Sioux county and get a home of their own and stop paying rent.

On last Thursday evening the family of W. E. Bridgman departed east and on the following morning he left by team. It may be remarked incidentally that the little ring of cute people has one member less and that one of the bondsmen of the village treasurer in the suit over the license money is gone.

On last Saturday the county central committee of the populist party held a meeting at the court house. The calling of a county convention was delegated to a committee. The selection of delegates to the state convention was the most important matter considered and resulted in the appointment of H. G. Stewart, W. J. A. Raum, M. Gayhart and H. T. Conley. Their selection shows how much of a show the rank and file stands with the pop leaders. The delegation is made up of a state senator, an officer of that body and two county officials.

A fire occurred at Hemingford a few days ago which destroyed a number of business buildings including a bank and a drug store. The amount of the loss or what insurance was carried was not learned.

Mrs. M. M. Underhill has been suffering for nearly two weeks with something like a felon on one of her thumbs and she went to Fort Robinson the first of the week and had it lanced and it is now easier. It was so painful that for nearly a week she was unable to sleep.

The superintendent of the fish hatcheries writes THE JOURNAL that he and the fish car will be up in this locality some time in October, due notice of the exact date will be given in time so that those who have applied for fish may be on hand to receive them. There is plenty of time for others to make application if they can get their ponds ready. If they are put in the ponds this fall you will have fish to eat just one year sooner than you will if you wait until next year. What is the use of delaying?

The editor of this paper got a letter from Phil Unitt yesterday in which he said that the corn in Seward county would not make more than half a crop if it did that. Wheat is yielding from five to twenty bushels per acre, the cases of the latter yield being few and far between. Oats have to be good for this year to yield twenty bushels per acre and weigh from fifteen to twenty pounds to the bushel. In nine cases out of ten the grain will no more than pay the cost of harvesting and in many cases no more than the threshing bill. Tame pastures he says are about burned out and he has been feeding hay to his cattle for the last month. Many of the renters will lose all they had as they had to give security for the rent and the crop will not pay it. He says the people who came here should not feel discouraged for they are better off than they would have been if they had stayed there and rented land. He further says that there are a good many who intend to come to Sioux county this fall to see what they can secure.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS

PROCURED BY THE Press Claims Company.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the Government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuations because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With a view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY has retained counsel expert in patent practice and is therefore prepared to OBTAIN PATENTS, CONDUCT INTERFERENCES, MAKE SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS, PRESENT REJECTED CASES, REGISTER TRADE MARKS and COPYRIGHTS, RENDER OPINIONS as to SCOPE and VALIDITY of PATENTS, PROSECUTE and DEFEND INFRINGEMENT SUITS, ETC., ETC.

If you have an invention on hand send THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are not necessary unless the invention is of a complicated nature. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
