POPPED OUT. THE CITIZENS TICKET IS ELECTED.

Since the editorial page was printed news has been received that Harrison has defeated Holcomb by 5,000. Hurray for HARRISON!

What a snow storm?

The election is past and the people of Sioux county have decided that a change in county officials is desirable for the entire Citizens county ticket is elected. A singular fact in connection with the election is that in the cases of the treasurer and superintendent for which three names were on the ticket the Citizens candidate received larger majorities than the others on the ticket.

The people have said that ring work and third terms or perpetual snap hunters are not what are wanted to fill the county offices. The returns also prove beyond question a man must have a better reason than a desire for office in order to get votes.

The vote on commissioner was so close that it is not certain but on the face of the returns Prieshoff is elected by one.

The table which appears in another column show the vote as reported. The official returns will appear next week.

The election was a surprise to quite a number, but when the matter is looked at in a fair light it is seen to be the only result that could have been logically expected. Four years ago the present officials were elected because of a feeling among the people that a change of management would be for the best interests of the county. Two years ago they were re-elected on the plea that two terms would be no more than justice to a good and efficient official, although it was on a small margin that they got in. When the officials who had been honored twice regardless of party lines began to use their official positions to build up a political party there was a good deal of objection on all sides but nothing could be done at the time, but when, in addition to that the officials asked, yes, they demanded, a third term the people began to grow indignant and when the plans were laid and the machinery of the political party to which they pretended to belong captured and had themselves nominated it is no wonder that the voters, regardless of party became aroused and men who had supported the present incumbents in both their previous campaigns took a decided position against them. When all things are considered there is no reason why the result of the election could not be foreseen.

So far as the men who ran on their own hook are concerned the vote as given in another column shows so much that comment is hardly necessary. Some people cannot take a hint unless a two-story brick house falls on them.

Concerning the editor of THE JOURNAL all that need be said is that he did what he could to bring about the results, how much or how little that was the people of the county can decide for themselves, but the campaign just past has quite clearly demonstrated that the people of Sioux county do not consider name-calling by a man who takes hold of the opposition paper during a campaign as strong enough proof that all that is said in this paper is false. In the preliminary work all that the editor of this paper asked was that a ticket be put up composed of men for whom no apologies would have to be made. Such a ticket was placed before the voters and the result was a victory and for the next five years the affairs of Sioux county will be in the care of honest, capable and efficient men.

Died.

PHINNEY.—At the family residence in Harrison, Nebraska, on Friday, November 3, 1893, Calvin E., second son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Phinney, aged 6 years, 4 months and 23 days.

This little boy was attacked by diphtheria when the disease was raging here and for a few days his life was almost despaired of but he rallied and bade fair to recover, but the disease had partially paralyzed him and gradually it extended over his body until death claimed him. The burial occurred on Saturday afternoon and the memorial service was held at the M. E. church on Sunday evening and were conducted by Rev. J. W. Kendall. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our most sincere thanks to all who so kindly aided and comforted us in our recent bereavement. As we are comparative strangers among you we appreciate the treatment accorded us more than words can express. MR. AND MRS. J. E. PHINNEY.

—The campaign is over and we shall endeavor to again run a newspaper in future.

—Being a day late with the paper we are able to report the arrival of a boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smiley on Friday, Nov. 10th.

—County Attorney Conley has been paying but little attention to political affairs of late on account of the arrival of a son at his home on Wednesday morning.

—Thanksgiving will soon be here, but the editor of THE JOURNAL is thankful now that he is a "little fool" instead of being a smart man like Ringmaster Verity.

—On next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Kenhall will preach the memorial sermon of Hugh Gunson, at the M. E. church. Regular services in the evening. All are invited.

—It is reported that when the returns come in from Menroce they had the same effect on Verity as did the four votes for county clerk on the candidate from White River at the independent convention.

—If you do not see Holy Meal in town for some time you need not be alarmed, for all that is the matter is that the saint he wears is so broad that he cannot get it through the canyon. Dr. Phinney says the cause is the arrival of a daughter of the Mead residence this morning.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS
PROCURED BY THE Press Claims Company.
Equal with the interest of those having claims against the Government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuations because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.
With a view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY has retained counsel expert in patent practice and is therefore prepared to OBTAIN PATENTS, CONDUCT INFRINGEMENTS, MAKE SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS, PROSECUTE REJECTED CASES, REGISTER TRADE-MARKS and COPYRIGHTS, RENDER OPINIONS as to SCOPE and VALIDITY OF PATENTS, PROSECUTE AND DEFEND INFRINGEMENT SUITS, ETC., ETC.
If you have an invention on hand send THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Details are not necessary unless the invention is of a complicated nature. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before settling on the matter.
