Thanks.

On behalf of the candidates on the Citizens ticket and himself, the undersigned desires to return most hearty thanks to Chas. E. Verity, Ringmaster, editor of the Independent, manager of the court house ring and commander-in-chief of the little ring of cute people, for the valuable assistance rendered by him and his paper in electing the Citizens ticket on last Tuesday. His efforts will ever be remembered by all.

Respectfully,
THE "LITTLE FOOL,"
 who runs THE JOURNAL.

The "little fool" seems to be in it.

Only a ringmaster out of a job.—Chas. E. Verity.

I can't figure it out just right. I had Andrews precinct all fixed to go solid for me and then on election day I hired a livery rig and sent two men down there so as to get their votes, and when the returns came in behold I had received but one vote in the precinct.—E. G. Hough.

Ringmaster Verity said in his paper a week or so ago that Woodruff's name would be "trousers" after election, and as Mr. Verity could not be mistaken and cannot tell a lie, it must be that Mr. "Trousers" will take charge of the finances of Sioux county early in January, 1894.

Hon. John H. Higgins, of Columbus, was found at his home lying on the stairs with his head downward and life extinct, on last Wednesday night. The circumstances surrounding him indicated that he had slipped and fallen and lay in such a position that death resulted in a short time. He was an old resident of Columbus and was one of the leading democrats of the state. He was receiver of the land office at Grand Island under the first Cleveland administration and in 1890 was the candidate of his party for attorney general and later was private secretary to Gov. Boyd.

The funeral of the late mayor of Chicago was the most largely attended ceremony of the kind ever witnessed in that city. There were said to have been more than fifty thousand people in the procession and over half a million who were spectators of the great funeral pageant. A great many of the business men of Chicago were very bitterly opposed to Mayor Harrison at the time of his election and the feeling had not died away to any great extent, but that did not deter them from sincerely regretting the fact that he, as the highest official of the city had been slain in the midst of his duties by a crank, and the whole nation will watch eagerly to see that the fiend who committed the act is dealt with as near as he deserves as the law will permit.

During the progress of the worlds fair the Chicago Inter Ocean has been issuing fine colored supplements, illustrating features of the great exhibition and they have been the same as all the works of that paper, first-class in every respect. The crowning production was the supplement to the paper on the closing day of the fair, "The Vanishing City." It is a full page picture, showing typical Chicago seated by the lake front with a sad, yet satisfied expression on her face, watching the great white city which has been such a revelation to millions of people, which is gradually fading from her view, just as the angels of the morning herald the advent of a new day. The picture is grand, both in its conception and execution.

Congress closed the work of the extraordinary session and adjourned before taking any action on the tariff question. It was hoped that some move would be made which would indicate what was likely to be done in order that the great business interests of the country might be shaped accordingly. The state of Nebraska is very much interested as the greatest of her coming industries depends largely on the action of congress. The people interested in the best sugar industry had become so well satisfied with the results so far attained that they contemplated extending their operations in the state, but the obstacles assumed by the administration on the bounty question was such that it caused them to pause. If legislation adverse to the interests of the industry is to be passed there will be no more sugar factories erected, but if the proper encouragement is afforded it will be but a few years until the state of Nebraska will be rich in the most useful of manufacturing staples. Every man who has a share in either branch of commerce, sugar or sugar refining, should do all in his power to secure legislation in the interests of the sugar industry of this state.

OHIO 70,000 REPUBLICAN.

New York in the Republican Column.

IOWA REPUBLICANS SNOW BOIS UNDER BY 30,000.

NEBRASKA ELECTS HOLCOMB BY A CLOSE VOTE.

The election on last Tuesday was full of surprises as usual and in some instances the results demonstrate that the policy of the administration is not satisfactory to the people. In Ohio Governor McKinley was elected by 70,000 majority, which indicates that his protection ideas are becoming more popular as the people come to understand them better, and it proves that very little tinkering with the tariff is wanted.

New York is also republican by a good majority, but the figures are not definite. In Iowa the democrats attempted to force Boies on the people for third term, but the republicans decided that they had enough of him and snowed him under by a majority of 30,000.

Mark Twain's Latest—Romance of an Esquimau Maiden.

A magazine is usually satisfied with one strong feature for the month. The Cosmopolitan, however, presents for November no less than five very unusual ones. William Dean Howells gives the first of the letters of the traveller, who has been visiting this country, from Altruria. We have read Mr. Howells' impression of the Altrurian; but in this first letter we have the Altrurian's impressions of New York, with some comments upon our government and society, calculated to awaken the most conservative minds. The second feature of the Cosmopolitan in the portion of the magazine given up to color work, no less than ten superb color illustrations being presented for the first time in magazine history, accompanying an article by Mrs. Roger A. Pryor on "Changes in Women's Costumes." The third feature is "American Notes," by Walter Besant, who was recently in America and is doing the United States for the Cosmopolitan a la Dickens. The fourth feature is an article by General Balaau on "The Forms of Invitation Used by the English Nobility." The article is illustrated by the fac simile of cards to the queen's drawing-room, to dinner at the Princess of Wales, and to many leading houses of England. Finally, we have a new and very curious story by Mark Twain called "The Esquimau Maiden's Romance." It is in his happiest vein and is illustrated by Dan Beard.

"Sweet Charity."

In the Artists' Exhibition of 1893 at the New York Academy of Design, there was exhibited an oil painting by J. L. G. Ferris, entitled "Sweet Charity." Its richness of coloring commanded instant attention, while the lesson taught was so impressive that one naturally returned to it for a second view. Its subject is a young lady of colonial times who is on an errand to one of the poorer families of the town. She has a sensible, charming face, which expresses with remarkable fidelity the sentiment of her errand. There is not a home that this charming picture will not ornament. It must be seen to be appreciated.

"Sweet Charity" was purchased by the publishers of the Youth's Companion and has been reproduced in colors in large size, 14x21. It will be sent to all new subscribers to the Youth's Companion who send $1.75 for a year's subscription, and the paper will also be sent free from the time the subscription is received to January, 1894, and for a full year from that date to January, 1895. This offer includes the double number numbers published at Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. Address: THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass.
