Once more the reports are to the effect that this locality is to have good train service in the near future. The way it is said that such a thing is to come about is that the Northwestern system will get control of the Cheyenne & Northern and will then deliver and receive all freight and passenger business at Cheyenne in which the Union Pacific is interested, instead of at Omaha. Here's hoping that the report will prove to be correct.

The Commissioner Contest.

The contest between Frank Tinkham and Henry Prieshoff for the first district commissionership has had a couple of twists since our last issue. At the calling of the case on the 5th of February Mr. Conley was given until the 23d to plead and it was arranged that the case would be tried on the next day. When Mr. Fisher came up from Chadron on Friday he found that instead of making the record show an adjournment until that date, as was agreed upon, Judge Wilson had adjourned the term, which would carry it over until the 5th of March. The Judge took the position that he could not open court under the circumstances. Fisher took a different view of the case and had the papers served on Judge Wilson, notifying him that an application would be made before the district court in chambers at Chadron on February 25th, for a peremptory writ of mandamus for the immediate hearing of cause. Mr. Conley wrote to Judge Bartow asking that the hearing of the application be deferred until Tuesday, but as Judge Bartow had to be at O'Neil on that the request was not granted and on the hearing of the case the following order was issued:

This case came on for hearing upon the petition of the petitioner for a peremptory writ of mandamus, and it appearing to the court that the respondent has had due and legal personal notice of the application of this writ at this time, and that from the original notice and return of the sheriff ordered thereon, and the petition being positively verified and sustained by the evidence and affidavits of ten witnesses, and the court being fully advised in the premises that a peremptory writ of mandamus against respondent as prayed for to the extent that it is commanded that said respondent as judge of the county court and county judge of Sioux county, Nebraska, proceed forthwith according to the law in the cause to try and determine upon its merits, forthwith, the contest cause now pending in said court wherein Frank Tinkham is contestant and Henry Prieshoff is respondent and involving title to the office of commissioner of Sioux county, Nebraska, for the first district without delay, and it is further ordered that said petitioner recover against respondent his costs made in this behalf taxed by the clerk at $1.50. And complete record is waived.

Dated Chadron, Nebraska, February 25th, 1894. ALFRED BARTOW, Judge District Court, Fifteenth District, Nebraska.

On Tuesday Mr. Fisher returned from Chadron and Judge Wilson had the papers served on him. He opened court, and notice was sent by Fisher to his client and witnesses. Judge Wilson issued an order on the county clerk and the ballots of the two precincts in controversy were brought into court and it looked as if the case would be heard, but Mr. Conley raised a technical point and Judge Wilson dismissed the case. The proper steps were taken and the case goes to the district court.

The only connection that Judge Wilson will have in the matter in future is that he will likely be called on to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in throwing the case out of court on a technicality when the order of the court plainly said that the case should be heard on its merits, and it is quite likely that the district court will inquire into the matter when its attention is called to his action.

While Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tietze were driving along the road last Sunday one of the reins broke and the team was turned so sharply as to throw both of the occupants out of the sleigh with a good deal of force. Mr. Tietze was considerably injured by striking his back against a bank, but his wife was more fortunate and escaped without injury.

H. A. Cunningham has arranged to go to Alliance and engage in the harness business. He has rented his residence to W. H. Davis and disposed of a portion of his stock to D. M. Sutton, who will open a shop as soon as Mr. Cunningham goes. During the four years he has been engaged in business in Harrison he has established an excellent reputation both as a citizen and a workman and Alliance will be the gainer, and while all regret to lose him and his family they wish for their prosperity in their new home. They expect to leave next Thursday.

County Irrigation Convention.

HARRISON, NEB., Feb. 24, 1894. The meeting called for the purpose of organizing a county irrigation association was called to order by County Clerk Blewett, vice-president of the district association, and A. Southworth was elected secretary.

J. B. Burke was called to the chair. On motion J. H. Cook, J. B. Burke and E. E. Lavernore were unanimously selected to be the legislative committee for Sioux county and they were instructed to use every means to secure needed legislation and appropriations, both state and national, to advance the interests of the county.

A. Southworth was elected permanent secretary. The following resolution was adopted: RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this meeting that the board of county commissioners and road overseers of the various districts be urged to use their influence to have good, substantial fills made across all ravines wherever practicable in place of bridges, and that the farmers be urged to construct dams across ravines for the purpose of creating storage reservoirs.

The membership roll was placed in the hands of the county clerk and all are invited to call there and identify themselves with the movement. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the county vice-president or the legislative committee.
