Corrected every Thursday.

—Save something for the state fair exhibit.

—E. E. Garton has rented the Northwestern hotel and opened it the first of the week.

—For reliable, first-class dental work of any kind, go to T. J. Gibson, Crawford, Nebraska.

—In gathering material for the state fair exhibit be sure to get a good quantity. Quantity is next to quality.

—Dr. Phinney reports the arrival of a son at the home of John Fitzgerald on Monday.

—Geo. H. Turner was in from Antelope yesterday. He will ship a couple of car loads of fat cattle the last of the week.

—Remember that THE JOURNAL office is headquarters for job printing.

—Sioux county can win the $500.00 premium at the state fair if each one will do a little work.

—An ice cream social will be given by the Epworth League, tomorrow (Friday) evening, at the court house. The proceeds will go to repair the church. All are invited.

—Excursion tickets over the F. E. & M. V. to the Hot Springs and return will be sold on each Friday until August 31, 1894, for one fare for the round trip. Good for fifteen days.

—If you have any thing good which you are willing to contribute toward the state fair exhibit fix it up in good shape and bring it to Harrison, and if you cannot bring it send a card to the county clerk and some one will call for it.

—THE JOURNAL wants a correspondent in every settlement in the county who will send in the local news each week. If those who will act in that capacity will send us notice to that effect we will send them stationery at once.

—It is reported from the republican state convention that Majors was nominated on the first ballot for governor and that Rosewater withdrew from the national committee and Thurston named to fill the place. No other action is reported.

—C. F. Coffey went to the 7 box L ranch in Wyoming the last of the week and will ship a train-load of cattle to market in a few days. Cattle are reported to be in fine condition.

—A farmer brought us some fine potatoes on Monday and gave us orders not to put his name in the paper. As he is much bigger than we are and comes from Texas we respect his request for this time.

—Don't be afraid to bring in samples of what you have raised for fear it is not good enough to go to the state fair, for it does not take very good products to look fine to the people who live in less favored localities than Sioux county.

—Dr. J. L. Wortman, of the American museum of natural history New York City was in town the first of the week. He has been spending some time in the bad lands gathering fossils and has been successful in finding the object of which he came in search. It was the bones of the hind legs of an extinct species of monster of which the rhinoceros is the nearest of modern animals. It was about the size of an elephant when living.

—In speaking with a farmer the first of the week he stated that he had obtained excellent results from a dry irrigating ditch. When asked to explain he said he had made a dam across a gully and cut a ditch and carried the water which had formerly rushed past his place out onto his meadow. The result was a fine crop of hay. Will other farmers take the hint and get the benefit of the water which has been allowed to go to waste in the past?

—When in Crawford a few days ago it was noticed that a number of stores contained large Russian thistles to which was attached a card advising the farmers to examine it and take a sample home and compare it and see if the pest had got a start on their farms. There is no wonder that it is dreaded by the farmers when the rapidity with which it seeds is considered. It is said that some of the farmers have cut the thistle while young and have found them to make excellent feed, of which stock is fond and on which it thrives. Take it for granted the thistle may not altogether be a curse, for it is said that in the drier districts the thistles have continued to grow luxuriantly.

IT WILL BE A CORKER.

THE EXHIBIT AT THE STATE FAIR TO BE THE BEST EVER MADE.

Sioux County to be a Winner.

The work of getting up the exhibit for the state fair is progressing finely. So far none has been brought in to speak of but the material is being located and put in shape so that it can be had when wanted. The indications are that it will be by far the finest collection ever made in Sioux county, in fact those who have the work in hand are surprised to find so many good samples.

The work of gathering the products is entrusted to Eli Smith and John C. Eberspacher in the north part and M. J. Weber will hustle for the good things in the White river and Cottonwood districts.

Arrangements will be made so that products can be put in the car at Crawford and Fort Robinson, so that there will be little trouble if the people of those localities co-operate with Mr. Weber in the work.

Every one is heartily in favor of the move and many have promised to make collections of what they have and from their neighbor's and bring in. There is plenty of material with which to win the first premium if it is only got together and with a united effort it can be accomplished.

The Institute.

The sixth teachers' institute of Sioux county opened on last Monday with a good attendance. It started out with every indication of being the most largely attended and interesting gathering of teachers ever held in the county. Superintendent Davis has given all to understand that those who expect to get certificates must comply with the law, and they will find that he will keep his word.

The instructors are Prof. Bennett, of Chadron, and Prof. Jones, of Hay Springs, and both are doing satisfactory work. Supt. Davis has charge of the history and bookkeeping classes and when not thus engaged takes his place as one of the teachers.

The were twenty-eight enrolled up to Wednesday evening, who names are as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

On Sunday evening Rev. J. W. Kendall will deliver a special sermon to the teachers, at the M. E. church.

On Tuesday evening Prof. Bennett will deliver a lecture on the subject "The Struggle for Existence."

On Wednesday evening Prof. Jones will speak on "U. S. Grant."

Thursday evening Rev. John Power, of Chadron, will make an address on an appropriate topic.

Friday evening a social will be held.

All of the above except the service Sunday evening, will be held in the court house and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend. All will be free.

—What have you got to send to the state fair?

—Two more car-loads of cattle arrived at Andrews from Montana on Monday for the Agate Springs farm.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jameson, of Chadron, had the misfortune to lose their infant son by death a few days ago.

—Presiding Elder Julian was here over Sunday to hold quarterly meeting of the M. E. church. The attendance was the largest on record at this place and indicates that the people are not getting any worse.

—D. M. Sutton received his letters patent for his device for tripping horses' hoofs, a few days ago and went to Chadron Monday evening to take steps looking to the manufacture of the articles. It is something which will be of use to every horse owner.

—Pat Lucy writes that he is on the road to Sioux county from Iowa and expects to reach here about the middle of September. He says the people would be better off here if they had raised nothing than they are in Iowa; for here people have fuel and grass and no rent to pay.

—County Clerk M. J. Blawett and County Attorney Clark, of Sioux county were guests at the Blaine over Sunday. Mr. Blawett says there is a good crop of small grain in Sioux county. Interest in irrigation is on the increase up there and there is a general demand for the sinking of artesian wells to demonstrate whether water can be obtained on the table lands.—Chadron Signal.

PERSONAL.

J. W. Earnest was at Five Points Sunday.

A. T. Hughson was up from Andrews Saturday.

Mrs. S. C. D. Basset was in Harrison the first of the week.

John Plunkett went to Crawford Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. Christensen was the guest of Mrs. E. Rohrer on Wednesday.

Presiding Elder Julian was a pleasant caller at this office Monday.

Thomas Hedy was an east bound passenger Monday evening.

County Treasurer Woodruff came up Monday to look after official matters.

Z. G. Cuel, Henry Erdman and S. L. Kirtley were down from Wyoming on Tuesday.

D. H. Griswold's mother, after a pleasant visit of some weeks, started for her home at Avoca, Iowa, last evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Kendall were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Coffey the first of the week.

W. E. Pontius is assisting at Marsteller Bros. while Supt. Davis is looking after institute work.

Ed Case started for his home in Michigan last Monday evening, but he will be likely to become a resident of Sioux county before many moons.

Sheriff Dew left for Omaha Monday evening where he helped yesterday to name the men who will have charge of the affairs of the state after Jan. 1, 1895.

Mrs. F. G. Simmons and children left for their home at Seward last Thursday evening, after a pleasant visit with THE JOURNAL family. Mr. Simmons preceded them some days as his business demanded his attention.

Democratic Mass Convention.

To the voters of Sioux county, Nebraska.

The undersigned, who are supporters and adherents of the principles of political economy so ably advocated by Jefferson and Jackson, believing that the best interests of the people require that such principles should be preserved and spread abroad in the land, for the purpose of perfecting a proper organization by which to accomplish this and to bring together all willing to labor for this great end, hereby request and cordially invite every voter in this county, who is interested in such doctrine, to attend a mass convention to be held at the court house, at Harrison, Nebraska, on Saturday, September 1, 1894, at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of organizing the democratic party of Sioux county, and for the purpose of nominating one county attorney, one county judge, and of electing delegates to the democratic state convention to be held at Omaha, delegates to the congressional convention of the sixth district, delegates to the senatorial convention of the 14th district, delegates to the legislative convention of the 5th district (representation to each of said convention as shall be apportioned by the democratic state central committee and at times and places which shall be designated) and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention:

—Large quantities of fine wild fruits are being gathered and put up by the people which will be very toothsome during the winter.

—W. T. Jones had the misfortune to lose one of his horses a few days ago. The animal stepped into a hole, fell and broke its neck.

—It is predicted that this season will have a tendency to induce better farming in the future. It is being demonstrated year after year that small tracts well tilled yield better returns than large tracts indifferently cultivated.

—Active steps are being taken to repair the damage done to the M. E. church by the recent storm. Liberal contributions are being made by the people, regardless of denomination, and the Epworth League and Ladies Aid society are also assisting in the work. It is the intention to do the job thoroughly or not at all and put the building in better condition than ever before.

—It is reported that the sand hills of Cherry county are being filled up with cattle from the eastern part of the state and people are considering the plan of shipping stock to this locality from Iowa as there is no feed there. Some of our people contemplate going east in the near future to buy cattle to bring here so that it looks as if this country would be pretty well stocked in the near future.

Independent County Convention.

The independent county convention which was held on last Saturday was a very tame affair, but six precincts being represented, which were Andrews, Antelope, Bowen, Cottonwood, White River and Warbonnet.

M. J. Weber was made chairman, and B. F. Thomas, secretary. Resolutions were adopted in line with the Omaha platform and Robert Wilson was nominated for county judge.

W. J. A. Rano, R. S. Q. Hamaker and M. J. Weber were elected delegates to the state and congressional conventions, and are said to favor Keo for congress, but their preference for governor was not learned.

G. Guthrie, Thomas Reidy and J. W. Langdon were elected to the senatorial and representative conventions, and are opposed to H. G. Stewart.

M. J. Weber was selected chairman of the county central committee and B. F. Thomas, secretary.

No funds were raised to help put the fellows who are at the head of the machine into fat places without expense.
