Don't forget that the printer needs what you owe him and needs it bad.

For reliable, first class dental work of any kind, go to T. J. Gibson, Crawford, Nebraska.

Remember that THE JOURNAL office is headquarters for job printing.

Next Tuesday is election day. Be careful how you vote.

P. N. Kirkpatrick had a valuable horse killed last Sunday by a vicious bull.

Peter Schaefer loaded a car with potatoes the first of the week and shipped them to Stanton.

A. J. Bogart expects his son to arrive in a few days from the eastern part of the state. He is driving through.

FOR SALE.—A first-class sewing machine, new. Inquire at THE JOURNAL office.

District court convenes Monday November 12th. One week from next Monday.

So far none of the factories have been made a certainty for Chadron. It is hoped that all will not fall through.

Sioux county potatoes are becoming recognized for superior qualities. Some of the railroad officials in Omaha have sent here for their winter supply.

FOUND.—On October 27th, on the Warbonnet road, a hand corn planter. Owner can have the same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

One of Peter Schaefer's teams broke loose on Tuesday and started to do things up but was stopped before much harm was done.

D. H. Griswold was appointed administrator of the estate of the late Alexander Steele, by County Judge Wilson on last Monday.

The yield of beets in some instances in the vicinity of Chadron was as high as thirty-six tons per acre. At five dollars a ton it would be a paying crop.

It is reported that steps are being taken to have a grand ball here on Thanksgiving night. As all such affairs here are enjoyable it is safe to predict a good attendance if the ball is a go.

The B. & M. has put on its through train to Billings, Montana, and great prospects for the future are predicted on that line. It gives another through line across the continent.

The new church at Bodarc is neatly completed and the dedication of the building is expected to take place in the near future. Due notice of the date will be given in THE JOURNAL.

The Northwestern has put on a fast train from Chicago to Deadwood. It is a great thing for the people along the line but it makes no changes in the service west of Chadron.

Extensive fires have done much damage in the sand hills of late and two men are known to have been burned to death. Thousands of tons of hay have been destroyed which will prove a severe loss.

While passing a pile of lumber a few days ago a board struck G. W. Hester on the face, breaking his nose. It will be necessary for Mr. Hester to have some kind of an accident proof contrivance constructed around him for he does not recover from one injury before he receives another.

A number of prairie fires have occurred in this county of late. No damage has been reported except the burning of the grass, but that is quite a loss for in addition to the feed destroyed it injures the grass roots to an extent from which they will not recover for some years. Too much care cannot be exercised to prevent fires.

On account of the weather on last Thursday the number who heard Scamahorn and Daugherty was not as large as was expected. The meeting was presided over by Henry Covey, chairman of the county central committee, and was opened with prayer by Rev. C. E. Connell. J. A. Scamahorn then made an interesting talk and clearly showed that if he was elected to the state senate his efforts will be used for the benefit of the northwest district in particular, and not for some outside territory. He was followed by Hon. Matt Daugherty who showed up Stewart's record of fighting irrigation bills at the beak of a female lobbyist and gave several reasons why that individual should be allowed to stay at home. Those who heard him were soon convinced that he was much better fitted to go to congress than the nonentity who has been drawing the salary for the past four years for doing nothing. Daugherty is a man of action and if elected he will make himself known in the next congress. He is a western Nebraska man and has interests in this locality other than getting an office. Both he and Scamahorn will receive a good vote here next Tuesday.

J. C. Mong and Claus Christensen were at the county seat yesterday on business connected with taking the case involving the use of the water of Hat creek to the supreme court.

A sawmill arrived here last week and will be set up in the timber belt a few miles northwest of town. There is no mill being operated near here now so that it ought to be successful. It belongs to Bert Hamlin.

Superintendent Harris and Chief Engineer Berry, made a trip over this division the last of the week. It is not known that any change will occur but it is hoped that the time will come when better train service will be provided.

The storm of last Sunday was an unseasoned three days before it was due. Here it was nothing but wind and a very little snow but further east it was more of a storm. It would be a good plan if the coming of storms could be more generally made known in the winter season.

H. A. Cox was in Harrison last Thursday looking after the chances of his being elected as the next representative of the northwest district. He is all sound on the irrigation question and that is one of the most important things for this county and Mr. Cox should receive a large vote. He has been entrusted with various important positions by the people of Chadron, having been twice elected mayor of that city, and it is safe to say that he will protect the interests of this district in every way possible if elected to the legislature.

A stranger came to the 7 box L ranch on Rawhide Monday and although he could not speak any language understood by the people present his actions indicated that he desired to be cared for. John Coffee looked at the new-comer, and decided that he saw a family resemblance and concluded to keep him at the ranch, although some of the older people present suggested that he would make a sheep herder. John has been trying to teach him to call him "Papa" and to have him bring his boots to him, and believes he will succeed in a few months. Mrs. Coffee is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

A law has been provided whereby pensioners may make out vouchers before fourth class postmasters. Such officers may charge not to exceed twenty-five cents for each voucher so attested and upon the tender of that fee cannot refuse to perform the duty. This will prove a great convenience to many who draw pensions who have in the past been compelled to go a long distance to reach a person authorized to certify to their vouchers. The charge of twenty-five cents does not appear to be compulsory so that if a postmaster wishes to do the work without charge it is his privilege to do so, but it will be much less trouble for the pensioner to pay that amount than to travel to the county seat.

Church Services Next Sunday.
