THE JOURNAL wishes to remind all may desire to make explaination of any act of which editorial mention has been home for a visit, from Hot Springs, S. D.

A person is prematurely old when laidness occurs before the forty-lift year. Use Hall's Hair Renewer to keep the scalp healthy and prevent baldness.

That the blood should perform its vital functions, it is absolutely necessary application for any, but has assisted me it should not only be pure but rich in life-giving elements. These results are lest effected by the use of that wellknown standard blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Our people will do well to investigate the raising of chicory. It can be profitably grown and delivered at shipping points by those living too far away from the railroad to be able to hauf beets with profit. Chicory has been tried in this county and is said to be a sure cropand to yield a good profit.

The entering wedge of a fated some plaint is often a slight cold, which a sions or two of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral might have cured at the commencement. Therefore, it is advisable to have this prompt and sure remedy always at hand to meet an emergency.

With the small boys playing marbles and the big boys playing ball it poorly. makes one feel that summer will soon be here, but when he remembers that the weather prophets have predicted that the worst storm of the season will occur about the 27th of March, the cold chills creep along his spinal column and he draws nearer to the fire.

The results will be watched with much interest and in the mean time it is safe in presume that no live chickens from Fiv-Points will be on the market. That here had no crop failure.

-We received a a letter a few days ago from a person who has considerable interest in Shorx county and be says that the county has a better prospect for prosperity than ever below except for the black spot of cattle rusting. Another party remarked that some people thought the editor of this paper did not put a fair value on steers he said one life was worth more than atlocality thought one steer worth more than all the rustlers in the county.

Sherid's Foreclosure Sale.

From the talk heard among the largers of good acreage of sugar beets and potatoes will be put in by the people of this locality. It would seem that every one within a reasonable distance of a shipping point should go into the growing of crops of that kind now that a sure cash market has been prepared for them.
