Republican Judicial Ticket. For judges, 15th district, M. P. KINKAID, ALFRED BARTOW. County Ticket. For county clerk, W. S. NICHOLSON. For county treasurer, HENRY COVEY. For sheriff, DAVID BARTLETT. For superintendent of public instruction, W. H. DAVIS. For county judge, W. O. PATTERSON. District Ticket. For commissioner, 3d district, B. F. JOHNSON.

The long and short of the republican judicial convention at Valentine on Tuesday was Kinkaid and Bartow. At the polls in November their opponents will be short on votes.

The Seward Reporter began its twenty-sixth year last week. The fact that the writer was for many years connected with the Reporter makes him feel more than an ordinary interest in it and it seems to improve with age and bids fair to live to be a century old.

An earthquake lasting four days occurred in Yotapan, Honduras, last week. The houses of the town rocked like cradles and the loss of life and property was simply awful. Flames in the mountains shot up hundreds of feet and rumblings like the heaviest thunder accompanied the earthquake.

In the second race between the American and English yachts the latter won on a foul. The former protested and the committee gave the race to the American boat. The captain very properly declined to accept it so that the race might be sailed over again. It is not simply to win by technical rules but to determine which nation can build the best vessels that the races are arranged.

The jury in the Morrison murder trial which was heard in the district court at Chadron last week brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree and fixed the penalty of death. It was a surprise to a great many. The evidence seemed to have been strongly against the defendant and the feeling of the public seemed to be that he should pay the penalty of his crime. Of course his attorneys will endeavor to get a new trial and resort to all the methods known to delay or defeat the law.

It was announced a few days ago that Senator John M. Thurston was very sick and later the report came that he was dead. The senator denied the report, however, and the populist papers which were so quick to announce that Gov. Holcomb would have the appointing of his successor ought to hide themselves. The death of John M. Thurston would be a great loss to the state, but some people can see nothing but the spoils of office.

During the past ten years the one aim of Attorney W. H. Westover has been to see how many murderers and thieves he could get acquitted and turn loose on an outraged public. Personally Mr. Westover is a good fellow, but as district judge the class of people referred to would be absolutely free from annoyance of prosecution, and that is why the Grip will not support him.—Alliance Grip.

The fall term of the supreme court opened on Tuesday and the decision in the Omaha fire and police commission case was handed down. It was endorsed by all of the judges and commissioners and sustained the law and the acts of the majority of the board on every point. That demonstrates that the governor and his advisor were wrong and from that it is but fair to presume that he is no nearer right in the other cases where he and his appointees have set the laws at defiance.

Some of the eastern papers are advocating General Manderson as good presidential timber for the party to take up in 1896. Gen. Manderson has a great many friends all over his own state and in fact, throughout the entire nation. He is well fitted for the place and is in a position to make a good fight. He is thoroughly posted on matters of public interest, is a fluent speaker and his experience in the United States senate for twelve years gave him a knowledge of the conduct of the affairs of the nation which would prove of great advantage to him. Should he decide to go into the race there is no doubt that Nebraska would be enthusiastically for him.

Republican Judicial Convention.

The republican judicial convention for the nomination of two candidates for judges of the 15th district was held at Valentine on Tuesday. It passed off in a most pleasant and harmonious manner, leaving no sore spots to beal as the result of disappointed ambitions. Several of the counties had given their delegation to favorite sons that in case opportunity offered could enter the contest but none of them were ardently pushing their claims. It was generally admitted that Judge Alfred Bartow during his present term on the bench had made a record for fairness, impartiality and strict adherence to the law in all of his work which entitled him to an endorsement at the hands of his party for a second term and a majority of the delegates went there prepared to carry out that view. For the candidate for the east end of the district there was no opposition to Judge Kinkaid from any part of the district and no aspirant cared to contest him at the hands of the people. Under such conditions all other aspirants decided to keep out, except J. Wesley Tucker who had the Cherry county delegation instructed for him and he insisted that the delegation cast its vote for him. The work of organizing passed off quickly and smoothly and on motion an informal ballot for two candidates was taken by calling the roll of counties. Every county was represented and fifty-eight votes were cast. Kinkaid and Bartow got the solid vote of each county until Cherry was called and the chairman of that delegation announced six votes for Kinkaid and six for Tucker. The roll call proceeded and all of the other counties went solidly for Bartow and Kinkaid, and at the close, before the result was announced, Cherry county changed its six votes from Tucker to Bartow, and moved that the informal ballot be declared formal and that the rules be suspended and that Alfred Bartow and M. P. Kinkaid be declared the nominees of the convention, unanimously by acclamation. The motion passed amid much enthusiasm. Speeches were made by the nominees and representatives of different parts of the district which indicated that the most cordial support will be given to the nominees in all parts of the district. The convention closed its session with the best of feeling prevailing and every member determined to make every effort to secure the election of the candidates at the polls.

The Ticket. At the head of our columns appears the nominees of the republican county convention with the exception of two. The nominee of that gathering for coroner is not a candidate for office and his name will not appear on the ballot so it is omitted from the ticket, and the name of the nominee for surveyor is omitted for reasons too well known to the readers of THE JOURNAL to need repeating here.

To the personnel of the rest of the ticket there can be no objection. They are men of good repute and if elected will perform the duties of their respective offices in such a manner as to give satisfaction to their constituents.

W. S. Nicholson, the nominee for county clerk is a resident of Whistle Creek precinct where he has a small bunch of cattle and he is popular with his neighbors.

Henry Covey, the nominee for county treasurer, is a resident of Highland precinct, having come here from Seward two years ago last spring and opened up the farm on which he resides.

David Bartlett, the candidate for sheriff has been a resident of Bowen precinct for so long that he is considered one of the old timers and he is known to most of the people who visit Harrison.

W. H. Davis, the nominee for superintendent of public instruction, has grown up here in Harrison and the vote he received two years ago demonstrated that he was known and popular all over the county, and his work of the past two years as the superintendent of the schools of the county has made him more generally known.

W. O. Patterson, the nominee for county judge is also a resident of Harrison and has long been a resident of Sioux county. Last year he was a candidate for the office of county attorney against the present incumbent so that the people of the county know something of him.
