

L. J. SHIMONS, Proprietor.

HARRISON, - NEBRASKA.

Banker Rose, who recently challenged for the America's cup, has broken his collar bone.

A 14-year-old girl has been arrested for stealing horses in Indian Territory.

A Grand Rapids paper shrieks editorially: "The Russian thistle already is in our midst."

The total railway mileage in this country at the close of 1884 is reported at 178,708.

Advices from San Francisco say that there is a prospective corner in prunes, and prices have advanced one-half a cent.

Nellie Bly should be somewhat charitable when she starts out with a gun and a determination to shoot enough private detectives for a mess.

The Kansas City Journal says: "Chicago insists that the tops of its skyscrapers were unmoved by the recent earthquake."

The late E. D. Jordan, the Boston dry goods millionaire, was a fatherless boy who went to work on a farm at the age of 14 for $4 a month.

A court in Texas is struggling with a case in which the mother and two sisters of one Allen Taylor, deceased, lay claim to an insurance of $1,500 on his life in favor of a young lady to whom he was engaged to be married.

According to Prof. A. H. Sayce, the searches of the last few years confirm a previously entertained idea that Syria and Palestine were under Babylonian domination long before the days of Abraham.

Two important lessons are suggested by the wreck of the eastern-bound fast mail train on the New York Central Railroad.

Chicago Times-Herald: Mrs. Stanton's "Woman's Bible" is almost ready for the public, and from its advance sheets the real character and scope of it become for the first time apparent.

What will be the biggest bridge in Central America is now building at Oakland, Cal. After it is completed it will be taken apart and shipped to its destination.

with its inception. Coming so soon after the magnificent tributes paid by American womanhood to Elizabeth Cady Stanton on her 80th birthday, this revelation of her actual present mental status is painful in the extreme.

One of them is Representative Broderick of Kansas, who was a member of the judiciary committee in the last congress.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 11.—A broken on the mining exchange yesterday tried to bear the market on one of the cheap stocks.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Dec. 11.—While the volume of trading in the Cripple Creek gold stocks on the local exchange yesterday did not reach the phenomenal figures of Monday, DEMING, N. M., Dec. 11.—Another murder of a family is reported from the San Simon valley, in Arizona, by the renegade band of Apache Indians from the San Carlos reservation.

Twelve years ago Leander Lindsay, of Lawrenceville, Ind., placed a catfish in an eight-foot spring of water on his farm.

What will be the biggest bridge in Central America is now building at Oakland, Cal. After it is completed it will be taken apart and shipped to its destination.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

JERKED INTO ETERNITY.

He Goes to his Death with a Sneer Upon his Face.

MURDERER OF MISS GING DIES EASILY.

Death Came Instantaneously—The Drop Falls at 2:10 and Hayward Dies Quietly.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 12.—"Keep up your courage, boys; pull her tight. I stand pat. Good by."

At 1 o'clock Father Timothy of the East Side, and Rev. William Wilkinson visited Hayward. The ministers did not pray with him nor did he seem to want them to.

The death march began at 1:55 a. m. The little procession slowly wended its way to the cage door and passed out into the short corridor connecting the north and south cell rooms.

"Good evening, gentlemen," said the prisoner, as he walked up the almost perpendicular stairway to the gallows and stood upon the drop.

"Have you any statement to make, Mr. Hayward?" asked Sheriff Holmberg, Hayward replied that he had and then he began:

MADE A STATEMENT. "The people think that I am a kind of a devil, and if they knew my past life they would be well aware of that fact."

With these words he turned to Deputy Megaarden and indicated that he was ready to die.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—A Stillwater, Minn., special to the Journal says: When Claus A. Bixt was told of the rumor that Harry Hayward had confessed to investigating the murder of Lena Olson, a domestic in Duluth, in the fall of 1894, he said:

DEMINING, N. M., Dec. 11.—Another murder of a family is reported from the San Simon valley, in Arizona, by the renegade band of Apache Indians from the San Carlos reservation.

Twelve years ago Leander Lindsay, of Lawrenceville, Ind., placed a catfish in an eight-foot spring of water on his farm.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

Hebraska Notes

Baron Littlefield is making the Nebraska Progress a very spicy paper.

G. W. Fike, formerly of the Tobias Tribune, has purchased the Western Wave.

Ethan Allen, it seems is still on earth. He lives in Franklin county and is one of the early settlers.

Work on the bridge across the Missouri at South Sioux City is becoming very hazardous. Two men fell from a swinging scaffold the other day.

Charles Brown, an emporer of the Cudahy Packing company at South Omaha, filled a gasoline tank by lamp-light with the customary result.

The Riverton Review regrets that there are several people within a thousand miles of there who are taking too much liquor for their own welfare.

The Oakland Independent was sweet sixteen last week. It says it has lived to see land in Burt county jump from $5 to $50 per acre.

The Burlington officials are making arrangements to protect the big bridge across the Missouri at Plattsmouth.

THEORETICALLY, Durrant will remain for 7 times at least, at the county jail. Judge Murphy granted him a stay of execution for twenty days.

When he made the order Judge Murphy admonished Durrant's attorneys that he would expect them to prepare the bill of exceptions and have it ready at the end of twenty days.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—A Stillwater, Minn., special to the Journal says: When Claus A. Bixt was told of the rumor that Harry Hayward had confessed to investigating the murder of Lena Olson, a domestic in Duluth, in the fall of 1894, he said:

DEMINING, N. M., Dec. 11.—Another murder of a family is reported from the San Simon valley, in Arizona, by the renegade band of Apache Indians from the San Carlos reservation.

Twelve years ago Leander Lindsay, of Lawrenceville, Ind., placed a catfish in an eight-foot spring of water on his farm.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

At the Alter.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—In the music room of her father's country palace, Rockwood Hall, Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, Miss Emma Rockfellow, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockfellow, was wedded at noon yesterday to Dr. D. Hunter McAlpin, jr., son of Dr. Hunter McAlpin of New York city.

The bride wore a gown of rich ivory satin made in princess fashion and resplendent with exquisite velvet lace with a draped scarf of the same material on the front of the skirt, fastened here and there with a cluster of orange blossoms.

The Rev. Dr. Armitage of St. Batholomew's church New York, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Harris of Yonkers, performed the ceremony.

During the rendition the bridal couple remained under the canopy and received the usual congratulations, at the conclusion of which the choir sang, assisted by the orchestra, the march from "Tannhauser."

The record in the Durrant case will be the most voluminous that has ever gone to the supreme court, as his attorneys intend to incorporate in it not alone all the testimony adduced upon the trial, but all the matter included in the various affidavits presented on motion for a new trial.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—A Stillwater, Minn., special to the Journal says: When Claus A. Bixt was told of the rumor that Harry Hayward had confessed to investigating the murder of Lena Olson, a domestic in Duluth, in the fall of 1894, he said:

DEMINING, N. M., Dec. 11.—Another murder of a family is reported from the San Simon valley, in Arizona, by the renegade band of Apache Indians from the San Carlos reservation.

Twelve years ago Leander Lindsay, of Lawrenceville, Ind., placed a catfish in an eight-foot spring of water on his farm.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

Hebraska Notes

Baron Littlefield is making the Nebraska Progress a very spicy paper.

G. W. Fike, formerly of the Tobias Tribune, has purchased the Western Wave.

Ethan Allen, it seems is still on earth. He lives in Franklin county and is one of the early settlers.

Work on the bridge across the Missouri at South Sioux City is becoming very hazardous. Two men fell from a swinging scaffold the other day.

Charles Brown, an emporer of the Cudahy Packing company at South Omaha, filled a gasoline tank by lamp-light with the customary result.

The Riverton Review regrets that there are several people within a thousand miles of there who are taking too much liquor for their own welfare.

The Oakland Independent was sweet sixteen last week. It says it has lived to see land in Burt county jump from $5 to $50 per acre.

The Burlington officials are making arrangements to protect the big bridge across the Missouri at Plattsmouth.

THEORETICALLY, Durrant will remain for 7 times at least, at the county jail. Judge Murphy granted him a stay of execution for twenty days.

When he made the order Judge Murphy admonished Durrant's attorneys that he would expect them to prepare the bill of exceptions and have it ready at the end of twenty days.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—A Stillwater, Minn., special to the Journal says: When Claus A. Bixt was told of the rumor that Harry Hayward had confessed to investigating the murder of Lena Olson, a domestic in Duluth, in the fall of 1894, he said:

DEMINING, N. M., Dec. 11.—Another murder of a family is reported from the San Simon valley, in Arizona, by the renegade band of Apache Indians from the San Carlos reservation.

Twelve years ago Leander Lindsay, of Lawrenceville, Ind., placed a catfish in an eight-foot spring of water on his farm.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The attention of Senator Gorman was called to a paragraph in a Baltimore paper yesterday which stated that he did not propose to be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.