No democrat will allow his more to be used in connection with an office until after the Chicago convention decides "where they are at." It looks now as if the Bryan crowd would get left.

The editor of the Frontier, unlike some people, does not profess to know everything, and one of the things he does not know is, what free silver would do for this country. He knows, however, that he is opposed to free silver at 16 to 1 until after the McKinley tariff shall have had another inning and he has watched its effect upon our monetary and industrial troubles. If a protective tariff, after a fair trial, does not loosen things up then we will think the silver problem is about solved .- O'Neill Frontier.
