NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

The rules of the local land office have recently been amended so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application.

For information read THE JOURNAL. Call at THE JOURNAL office and have your final proof papers made out. It will cost you nothing.

Two cars were loaded with cattle on Monday evening by Brewster & Anderson.

While riding near Whitney last Sunday morning Dave Colville was thrown from his horse and one of the ribs in his right side was broken.

Hon. Chester O. Bradley, of Casper, was an eastbound passenger Monday evening and in conversation with the writer stated that there was no doubt of Wyoming giving her electoral vote to McKinley.

Precinct tickets were received at the office of the county clerk after the time provided by law for filing the same had expired, so if the names are not found on the ballots no one need be blamed except those who helped make up such tickets.

John L. Kay and Miss Anna D. Miller were united in marriage at Eddyville, Iowa, on October 1, 1896. They arrived in Harrison on last Thursday and will make their home in Sioux county, of which Mr. Kay has long been a resident and where he has many friends.

It has been asked why THE JOURNAL does not give the details of the reports concerning a former resident of Sioux county who went west and recently had his record looked up and it was found to have been so bad that he did not stay to face it.

The ballots to be used in voting on the proposed amendments to the constitution are in the hands of County Clerk Blewett and samples can be had by applying to him as the law provides.

The Norfolk sugar factory is now in full operation and it was decided by those interested in the development of the sugar industry in northern Nebraska that a practical exhibit to representatives of the localities in that part of the state would be a good thing.

The following is the list of those who were drawn to serve as petit jurors at the fall term of the district court, which will convene on Monday, November 9, 1896:

PERSONAL.

S. B. Coffey returned Thursday from his trip to Omaha.

Joe Stastny was down from Wyoming the first of the week.

C. F. Coffey was in town Monday, having been kept at home for two weeks by an attack of rheumatism.

County Attorney Guthrie and Sheriff Bartlett were in the east part of the county on business last week.

A. T. Clark returned Monday evening from a profitable trip in central Wyoming. His next trip will be along the B. & M. in that state.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Simmons and two of their daughters arrived from Seward on Saturday and remained until Monday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smedes started yesterday for Clarinda, Texas, where Mr. Smedes has a position with the railroad. Jerry Will will have charge of their place until their return.

Miss Nellie L. Simmons, eldest daughter of THE JOURNAL family, arrived home on Saturday after spending more than a year with her grandparents at Warrensburg, Mo.

Andrew Christian was down from Pleasant Ridge on Saturday and informed us that men in his state were leaving the Bryan camp and getting into the McKinley ranks at a rate that is very satisfactory to the republicans.

J. W. Sherrill has leased the Northwestern hotel building and will re-open it to the public.

It is reported that arrangements are being made for the trains to stop at Harrison for dinner and supper. It may be the cause of a change of time.

J. W. Earnest arrived from Utah the first of the week with about two hundred and fifty head of young cattle. He reports as pleasant a trip as could have been expected.

The time for getting names on the official ballot expired yesterday and as soon as the copy is received from the secretary of state the work of printing the ballots will begin.

We desire to again urge upon all those who are indebted to this office to arrange to settle. It is numerous small amounts which in the aggregate makes a large sum to us. We do not wish to annoy any who are making an effort to pay but there are those who show no inclination to pay and they need not be surprised to have their accounts placed in the hands of a collector.

A good audience assembled at the court house on last Saturday to listen to Dr. W. B. Ely, candidate for state senator for the 14th district. The position for which Dr. Ely is a candidate has nothing to do with the national issues but for more than thirty years he has made a study of the financial question and the history of money, outside of politics, and he presented his conclusions in a manner which was clear and convincing.

County Clerk Blewett and J. W. Hunter each have a fine 3-year-old colt which all admit should go together. Of course no one would buy anything in the horse line so that the prospects of fitting up a nice team did not appear to be very good.

List of Jurors.

For Free Range.

In order to place before the voters of the 53d representative district of Nebraska my position concerning the question of free range, I hereby announce that I am in favor of, and if elected, will endeavor to procure the passage of a law for free range with provisions connected therewith. That a grazing tax be imposed upon each and every head of cattle, horses and sheep brought upon the range in this district by parties who are not resident land owners, of $1.00 per head upon cattle and horses, and 50 cents per head upon sheep, collectable and payable monthly in advance to the county treasurer of the county wherein such stock is grazed.

I believe that in this district, where it is the next thing to an impossibility for any small holder of stock to own and fence pasture enough to supply his stock, that many thousands of dollars will be saved to such owners of small herds by thus avoiding the expense now incurred for herding.

I believe that the above free range law, with its protective and prohibitory provisions as to stock of non-resident owners, will induce the further investment of capital in stock-raising by our resident citizens, cheapen the raising of the same, increase our tax list, and decrease the rate of taxation by the increased valuation following our increased stock interests.

I believe that the above provisions will make the stock business more profitable for the owners of small herds. Yours truly, SMITH P. TUTTLE, Candidate for Representative, 53d Dist.

Every voter should vote for the proposed constitutional amendment to be found at the head of the constitutional amendment ticket for the increase of the number of supreme judges from three, the present number, to five, the number proposed, thus dispensing with the three supreme court commissioners, because: First—The large amount of work of the supreme bench renders such an increase necessary.

Second—Because it is more in accordance with the principles of our government that judges be elected than that commissioners be appointed by the court. Third—Because by the substitution of two judges for the three commissioners there will be a saving in salary of $2,500 for one commissioner and $1,000 for his stenographer, amounting to $3,500 per annum.

Fourth—Unless the constitution can be thus amended at this election a constitutional convention will be provided for, occasioning an expense of at least $150,000.00.—O'Neill Frontier.

Populist Appointments.

The populists have arranged the following appointments for Sioux county: A. E. Sheldon, populist nominee for representative, will speak at the Serres school house on Monday evening, October 26th, and at the Montrose school house on Tuesday evening, October 27th.

Hon. H. G. Stewart will speak at the Bodare school house on Friday evening, October 30th; at Harrison on Saturday afternoon, October 31st; at Fairview school house, Whistle Creek precinct, on Monday evening, November 2d.

Interests You.

Offer of cheap reading matter you can't afford to miss. During the great campaign people want newspapers and want them while they are fresh and newsy.

The Semi-Weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., supplies the demand, as it will be mailed twice a week from now until January 1, 1897, for 25 cents, or from now until January 1, 1898, for one dollar. The twenty-five-cent proposition takes you all through the campaign, gives you the election returns, and through the balance of this year. A dollar for the great twice-a-week paper from now until January 1, 1898, is the biggest offer ever made to readers.

By virtue of an Order of Sale issued by the Clerk of the District Court of the County of Sioux, and State of Nebraska, upon a decree rendered by said Court in favor of Samuel Southworth, plaintiff, and against Lewis M. Babo, a single man, Adelle F. Dungan and William G. Dungan, defendants, I will on the 31st day of October, A. D. 1896, at the hour of 2 o'clock, p. m., at the east front door of the Court House in Harrison, in said county, offer and sell the following described real estate to-wit: The South west quarter of section Twenty-four, Township Twenty-seven, north, Range Fifty-three, West 4th P. M., in Sioux county, Nebraska, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said Order of Sale in the sum of Two Hundred and Forty-two and 10/100 Dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the 29th day of November, A. D. 1895, and costs and accruing costs. DAVID BARTLETT, Sheriff of said County. Alvin T. Clark, Plaintiff's attorney.

The Toledo Weekly Blade and Campaign of 1896.

With a great presidential campaign coming next year, every thoughtful citizen will need, besides his local paper, a great national weekly. The greatest and most widely known of these is the Toledo Weekly Blade. For thirty years it has been a regular visitor in every part of the Union, and is well known at almost every one of the 70,000 post-offices in the country.

Address The Blade, Toledo, Ohio.

Sioux County, THE LAND OF THE HOMESTEADER.

Free Homes for More Than 5,000 Men.

A new county with schools, churches, railroads, etc., AND 800,000 ACRES YET OPEN TO HOMESTEAD ENTRY.

Contains over forty-five miles of railroad and has no county bonds.

Sioux county is the northwest county of Nebraska. It is about thirty miles east and west by about seventy miles north and south and contains OVER 1,300,000 ACRES of land. There are more bright, sparkling, small streams in the county than can be found in the same area elsewhere in the state. It has more pine timber in it than all the rest of the state combined. Its grasses are the richest and most nutritious known so that for stock-growing it is unexcelled.

The soil varies from a heavy clay to a light sandy loam and is capable of producing excellent crops.

The principal crops are small grain and vegetables, although good corn is grown in the valleys. The wheat, oats, rye and barley are all of unusually fine quality and command the highest market prices.

The water is pure and refreshing and is found in abundance in all parts of the county.

The county is practically out of debt and has over forty-five miles of railroad within its borders, has a good brick court house and the necessary fixtures for running the county and there has never been one dollar of county bonds issued and hence taxes will be low.

The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad crosses Sioux county from east to west and the B. & M. has about fifteen miles of its line in the northeast part of the county.

The climate is more pleasant than that of the eastern portion of Nebraska. There is still OVER 800,000 ACRES of land in Sioux county yet open to homestead entry. It is better land and more desirably located than that for which such rushes are made on the opening of a reservation. There is no railroad in the county and for that reason its settlement has been slow for no special effort to get settlers was made, as was done in the early days of the settlement of the eastern part of the state.

Good deeded land can be purchased at reasonable rates with government land adjoining so that a person who wants more than one quarter section can obtain it if he has a little means.

There are about 1,500 people in the county and there is room for thousands more.

Harrison is the county seat and is situated on the F. E. & M. V. railroad, and is as good a town as the thinly settled country demands.

School houses and churches are provided in almost every settlement and are kept up with the times. All who desire to get a homestead or buy land cheap are invited to come and see the country for themselves and judge of its merits. Homesteads will not be obtainable much longer and if you want to use your right and get 160 acres of land from Uncle Sam free it is time you were about it.
