NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

The rules of the local land office have recently been amended, so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application.

For information read THE JOURNAL.

Call at THE JOURNAL office and have your final proof papers made out. It will cost you nothing.

J. W. Sherill opened the Northwestern hotel to the public on Tuesday, so that Harrison now has two hotels.

Rev. Father Maenich will hold Catholic services at the residence of M. J. Blewett on Friday, November, 9th.

It is reported that Sam Telbet expects to go west, either into Idaho or Colorado, in the spring.

THE JOURNAL is informed that the Elk Horn train will not stop here for meals, but will continue to make stops at Lusk for that purpose.

It looks very much as if winter had set in for keeps, and it came before many were prepared for it, as we usually have nice weather for some time later than this.

W. R. Smith has decided to open a meat market in the building opposite THE JOURNAL office. Two meat markets ought to be able to supply the needs of the town.

At the rate business enterprises in Harrison have been increasing of late it ought not to be long until it becomes a city of the metropolitan class, with all accessories.

John R. Shepherd writes that his estimate of Iowa was not far out of the way as that state gave McKinley 85,000, and he winds up his letter with "Burrage for sound money and property."

No sooner had the work of printing the ballots been completed at THE JOURNAL office than the bar docket for the November term of the district court had to be gotten out, and as court convenes November 10th there was no time to be lost.

Jack Bigart says that the fellow who helped himself to a supply of wood from THE JOURNAL office would do well to select a time for his visits when there is no fresh snow on the ground, as the tracks the thief made last Thursday night gave him away.

Philip Carr arrived from Seward this morning to look after his interests for a few days. He will ship five car loads of cattle to his home place on Monday to put in his feed yards, which will make twelve hundred head which he will fatten to ship to Europe next spring.

The county clerk of Sheridan county had to go with a force of printers to Chadron and draw on the facilities of both printing offices of that town to get out the ballots for the use of the voters of Sheridan county. The job was a hard one to be handled in all the counties, and especially in those far from cities.

Every available room in town and within a reasonable distance around is occupied and still there are not enough to supply the demand. It is necessary for people to get where they can send their children to school, as the settlers have become so few in some districts that they have no school. It will be an advantage to the town to make it an object for such to come here, for people who can afford to follow such a course to educate their children are worth something to the town.

A good deal of work and expense has been necessary to get the steam pump in shape. It was fixed up temporarily so that the water supply could be kept up and repairs ordered, and when those arrive and are put in place it is hoped that it will go all right through the winter. The continuous expense for a water supply is a heavy expense to the people of the town and some way ought to be devised to reduce it. At Gordon a windmill does the work at little or no expense and much more water is required to supply the wants of that town than would be required for this place. Of course there would be quite an expense to start with, but once met it would relieve the town of nearly all running expense for a number of years. At Gordon they have steam fixtures which can be connected in a very short time should it become necessary, but it has seldom been found necessary.

The Election in Nebraska.

The result of the election on Tuesday is anything but comforting to republicans so far as Nebraska is concerned. Not only were the Bryan electors successful, but most of the fusion congressmen and also the state officers, but by what majority is not known.

In Sioux county the largest vote was polled that has been recorded for years, the total vote cast being 180, which is about ninety per cent of the whole number in the county.

The following will show how the vote was on the principal officers:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name, Vote Count. Includes Bryan (308), McKinley (154), and others.

The other state officers received about the same vote as the candidates for governor.

Table with 2 columns: Office Name, Vote Count. Includes For congressman, For state senator, etc.

In all the precincts the voters stuck pretty close to the two principal tickets, but few scattering votes having been cast.

Not one of the proposed amendments to the constitution received a majority in Sioux county.

In this precinct more votes were challenged than ever before, but in all cases except one the challenged parties swore in their vote when the challenge was not withdrawn.

No trouble has been reported, for while the contest was earnest there was little bitterness in it.

Frank Tinkham and Jack Kriesler expect to put in most of the winter developing the gold mining claims in Wyoming, south of Douglas. They believe that they have paying ore and as the country is to continue on a gold basis they propose to have some of the gold. They will start from here the last of the week and drive through.

Arthur Christian, foreman of the 7 box ranch, passed through Harrison with the outfit the first of the week. He was taking a thousand head of young steers which F. G. Coffey purchased in Arizona last spring, from the ranch on Rawhide to the home ranch of Mr. Coffey on Hat Creek. The cattle will be fed on alfalfa during the winter and taken back to Wyoming in the spring.

On Wednesday morning at the church at Montrose Mr. J. J. Henry and Miss May Natto were married by Rev. Father Maenich. In the evening the wedding festivities were held at the home of the bride's parents, about one hundred guests participating. The young people are well known in the north part of the county and have the congratulations and well wishes of all.

James Bourgett came down from Montana the first of the week and on Tuesday he and Miss Jennie Lacey drove to Ardmore, S. D., and were quietly married at 5 o'clock that evening and left for a short wedding trip. Both the young people are well known here and will make their home on the place belonging to the groom, on Running Water, and they have the good wishes of their many friends for happiness and prosperity.

Cap in Hand.

The voters of Sioux County will please accept my thanks for your many favors—I am, gentlemen, very truly, Your obedient servant, B. F. THOMAS.

The Great Barrier To The North Pole.

The great obstacle in finding the North Pole is, of course, the all pervading ice. During the summer, the season of constant sunlight, the Arctic sea opens somewhat and the explorers push their ships farther and farther to the north, with the hope strong within them that they, of all the venturesome spirits who will wage the Pole, will find it, and will win undying glory. But these open seas which stretch out so invitingly, are lurking them to their destruction. Weeks have been passing while the staunch craft of the explorers has been sailing north. The sun sinks lower and lower in the southwest, and at last leaves the region enveloped in the long Arctic night. The pathway of water between the fields of ice slowly closes. The ship, now in all probability pushing her way desperately toward the south, makes less and less progress and finally stops. The ice gathers round her and presses her with an embrace that constantly grows tighter and more deadly. She is in a trap. She groans and cries like a living thing in pain as her frame is slowly crushed; but the remorseless ice only squeezes her the harder, and finally she becomes broken and useless, and those who brought her here leave her to her desolate fate and begin a journey southward over the ice—a journey which, for many, ends in graves in the frozen solitudes.—From "To The North Pole by Balloon," in Demorest's for November.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Coffey were at Harrison Wednesday.

Ed O'Connor returned from Montana the first of the week.

M. J. and Will Gayhart were in Harrison on Monday.

Chris M. Ruffing is expected to arrive from Richfield, Wis., tomorrow.

County Attorney Guthrie goes to Chadron this evening on legal business.

W. E. Pantaus passed through Harrison last week on his way to a station up the line.

M. Beach came down from Wyoming the last of the week to hold down his claim.

Jarvis Richards was in Harrison the last of the week and made a pleasant call at this office.

William Belden has so far recovered from his injuries from which he nearly lost his life, that he came up last week and is stopping on Running Water.

Call for Fourth Annual Convention Nebraska State Irrigation Association.

To the People of Nebraska: The Fourth Annual Convention of the Nebraska State Irrigation Association will be held in Lexington, Nebraska, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 19, 20 and 21, 1895.

The representation in said convention will be as follows: The Governor of the state will appoint twenty delegates at large.

The State Board of Agriculture, the State Labor Commission, the State University and the University Agricultural Department, shall be entitled to ten delegates each.

All Farmers Institutes, Granges, County or Local Agricultural or Horticultural Societies in Nebraska, not heretofore otherwise provided for, ten delegates to each organization, to be chosen or appointed by the officers of the respective organization named shall decide.

Each Irrigation Association larger than a county will be entitled to a delegation of all its officers and ten additional delegates.

Each Local Irrigation Association will be entitled to a delegation of all officers and ten members.

Mayors of cities are requested to appoint ten delegates each, villages five delegates, presidents of Boards of Trade and Commercial Clubs five delegates each, private and denominational colleges, three delegates each, and every labor organization, local or state, shall be entitled to three delegates.

Every regularly organized Irrigation Ditch Company shall be entitled to three delegates.

Editors of regularly based newspapers or periodicals within the state, devoted in whole or in part to the agricultural and commercial development of Nebraska, shall, on presentation of credentials, be entitled to seats and one vote each in the convention.

A cordial invitation is extended to all past and present Members of Congress from this state, all past and present state officials, all members-elect of the Nebraska Legislature, and all county officials now holding office, including County Commissioners, to attend as delegates.

Practical papers on timely topics related to this department of scientific agriculture will be presented to the meeting. Orators and eminent experts in various branches of the art of irrigation will talk or read prepared themes at the busy sessions.

The various appointing agencies are earnestly requested to forward to B. F. Krier, Secretary of the Local Executive Committee at Lexington, a full list of delegates appointed, with postoffice address of each.

Reduced rates will be available on all railroads.

For further information see the daily and weekly press, or write to Robert W. Barton, President of the Local Executive Committee, Lexington, or B. F. Krier, Secretary, same address.

A. G. WOLFEBAUER.

President Nebraska State Irrigation Association.

JAMES L. MCINTOSH.

Secretary. LINCOLN, NEB., Nov 2, 1895.

Sioux County,

THE LAND OF THE HOMESTEADER.

Free Homes for More Than 5,000 Men.

A new county with schools, churches, railroads, etc.,

AND 800,000 ACRES YET OPEN TO HOMESTEAD ENTRY.

Contains over forty-five miles of railroad and has no county bonds.

Sioux county is the northwest county of Nebraska. It is about thirty miles east and west by about seventy miles north and south and contains of land. There are more bright, sparkling, small streams in the county than can be found in the same area elsewhere in the state. It has more pine timber in it than all the rest of the state combined. Its grasses are the richest and most nutritious known so that for stock-growing it is unequalled.

The soil varies from a heavy clay to a light sandy loam and is capable of producing excellent crops.

The principal crops are small grain and vegetables, although good corn is grown in the valleys. The wheat, oats, rye and barley are all of unusually fine quality and command the highest market prices.

The water is pure and refreshing and is found in abundance in all parts of the county.

The county is practically out of debt and has over forty-five miles of railroad within its borders, has a good brick court house and the necessary fixtures for running the county and there has never been one dollar of county bonds issued and hence taxes will be low.

The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad crosses Sioux county from east to west and the B. & M. has about fifteen miles of its line in the northeast part of the county.

The climate is more pleasant than that of the eastern portion of Nebraska.

OVER 600,000 ACRES

of land in Sioux county yet open to homestead entry. It is better land and more desirably located than that for which such rushes are made on the opening of a reservation. There is no railroad land in the county and for that reason its settlement has been slow for so special effort to get settlers was made, as was done in the early days of the settlement of the eastern part of the state.

Good leveled land can be purchased at reasonable rates with government land adjoining so that a person who wants more than one quarter section can obtain it if he has a little means.

There are about 1,500 people in the county and there is room for thousands more.

Harrison is the county seat and is situated on the F. E. & M. V. railroad, and is as good a town as the thinly settled country demands.

School houses and churches are provided in almost every settlement and are kept up with the times.

All who desire to get a homestead or buy land cheap are invited to come and see the country for themselves and judge of its merits. Homesteads will not be obtainable much longer and if you want to use your right and get 160 acres of land from Uncle Sam free it is time you were about it.

DO YOU WANT TO RAISE WATER?

I will put you a machine which will elevate from 300 gallons to 22,000 gallons per minute with the least possible power. It can be operated by windmill, steam, water or horse power. It has been tried and its merits are known. It is just the thing to use in streams where a portion of the water can be used to elevate the other portion. They are cheap. They are durable. They are simple. They are up-to-date. Prices on larger machines or on iron work alone, furnished on application. Write for further information to L. T. POOLE, Agent, Marsland, Neb.
