Sioux county is the northwest county of Nebraska. It is about therty miles east and west by about seventy miles north and south and contains

OVER 1,300,000 ACRES of land. There are more bright, sparkcan be found in the same area elsewhere in the state. It has more pine timber in it than all the rest of the state combined. Its grasses are the richest and most rufritions known so that for stock-growing it is unexcelled.

The soil varies from a benyy clay to a light sandy loam and is capable of prolucing excellent crops.

The principal crops are small grain and vegetables, although good corn is grown in the valleys. The wheat, oats quality and command the highest market prices.

The water is pure and refreshing and is found in abundance in all parts of the county.

The county is practically out of debt and has over forty-live railes of railroad within its borders, has a good brick court house and the necessary fixtures for running the county and there has never been one dollar of county bonds issused and hence taxes will be low.

The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley radroad crosses Sioux county from east to west and the B. & M. has northeast part of the county.

There is no railroad land in the county and for that reason its settlement has been slow for no special effort to get settlers was made, as was done in the early days of the settlement of the eastern part of the Good deeded land can be purchased at reasonable rates with government land adjoining so that a person who wants nore than one quarter section can obtain it if he has a little means.

There are about 1.500 people in the county and there is room for thousands Harrison is the county seat and is situnted on the F. E. & M. V. railroad, and is as good a town as the thinly settled country demands.

School houses and churches are provided in almost every settlement and are kept up with the times.

All who desire to get a homestead or buy land cheap are invited to come and see the country for themselves and judge of its merits. Homesteads will not be obtainable much longer and if you want to use your right and get 160 acres of land from Uncle Sam free it is time you were about it.
