Institute Notes.

Monday night Prof. Percy Purviance, of Lincoln, who is instructor at the Ina guest at the home of her daughter stitute this week, gave an interesting Lecture at the M. E. church for the benefit of the teachers, who are attending the county institute here this week. His subject was: "physiology of the brain," and those who listened to it acknowledge it was very instructive.

The following evening Prof. Gillette, of Chadron, academy, who is assisting at the institute here this week, lectured at the church, his subject being "Lions -Leroy Wright, who has occupied in the way." The Proffessor handled his subject without gloves and showed conclusively that he knew well what he was talking about. He shewed by his lecture that people, in this day and age house will now have it plastered and fin- of the world, to be successful in life night. should get rid of the imaginary lions in the way, and use the commonest kind of sense in the persuit of a calling or proffession and we will be pretty sure of success through life.
