New subscribers to the PRESS-JOURNAL this week are: A. L. Hodge of Glen Will. Smoke of Harrison, and Chas. U. Glaze of Crawford.
Mrs. Jackson Mettlen of Snake Creek accompanied her husband to town on last Monday, doing some trading and returning home the same evening.
Rev. Kendall, moved his household effects to his new mission at Marsland on last Monday and his successor Rev. Smith will be here to fill his appointment in our midst on next Sabbath.
C. U. Glaze, of Crawford was a pleasant caller at this office on last Monday, and while here inscribed his name among our readers. Mr. Glaze is engaged in the marble business, any one needing anything in his line may rest assured of receiving fair treatment.
It seemed to us for awhile on last Monday, as if everyone who lived in Sioux county, that is outside of Harrison had come to town, so great was the crowd who were on hand and nearly all of them eager to secure some of the school land which was offered for lease in the afternoon.
Mrs. Petersen, of Omaha, mother-in-law of Mrs. August Meier, who has been a guest at the home of the latter in the valley during the past three weeks expects to leave for home tomorrow.
Mrs. Meier, had the misfortune to run a wheel in her foot a couple of weeks ago, and the doctor has been unable to get it out, having made two or three attempts.
Miss Lizzie Dunn, daughter of Mr. Dunn, of Warbonnet, who has been in Denver for over a year, returned to the valley a few days ago to visit her father and brothers for a week or two. While in town the young lady did not forget to call and pay her respects to the JOURNAL force. Miss Dunn will go from here to Glenaca, Wyo., where she will keep house for her brother John.
A son of Pat Lacy, next younger than John, arrived in Harrison yesterday on a visit with the Lacy family, and also to look up the country with a view of locating somewhere near his father and brothers. Should the country prove satisfactory to him, he and his family will in all probability move to Sioux county next spring. None of Mr. Lacy's friends were looking for him and hence they were all treated to a pleasant surprise.
Commissioner of Public Lands & Buildings, Hon. John V. Wolfe at the Treasurers office Monday leased 28,000 acres or all the vacant school land in Sioux County to different parties, both in and outside of the county. There were not a few sheep men from the south end of the county who were after school land and succeeded in getting a number of sections. The lowest price received by the state was 15c per acre and the highest was $5.75, paid by Henry Warnaka.
