BIGELOW.

The latest news from Grampa Wright is that he is gradually sinking. A letter from Mrs. Will Bogart, now at Omaha, to post master Bogart here conveys the sad news of the loss by diphtheria, on the 12th inst, of her eldest girl.

Geo. Noland, Rockland, O., says, "My wife had piles forty years. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her. It is the best salve in America." It heals everything and cures all skin diseases.—J. E. PHINNEY.

The new Brand Laws requires all parties that have their Brands recorded with the County Clerk to make application to the Secretary of State on or before the 31st of Dec. 1899. Parties making application after that date will be allowed brands in the order filed with the Secretary of State.

All kinds of nuts for Christmas at BIGELOW'S. Go to the RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE, and take a look at that Montgomery Ward & Co's boys coat which Lew keeps on exhibition, and then price his clothing and you will find he can save you 25 per cent on clothing and give you a better garment at that.

Dr. W. Wixon, Italy, Hill, N. Y., says, "I heartily recommend One Minute Cough Cure. It gave my wife immediate relief in suffocating asthma." Pleasant to take. Never fails to quickly cure all coughs, throat and lung troubles.—J. E. PHINNEY.

Chas. Kalstrom of Glen, was in Harrison this week, doing business at the court house. Charley has just returned from White Wood, S. Dak. where he has been helping Fred Blomberg, get settled, he reports Fred and his family well pleased with their new home.

Candies, Nuts, Figs, Dates, Oranges and Apples at BIGELOW'S. The annual election of officers of the Royal Neighbors, occurred at their lodge room in Andrews block on last Friday evening. The same officers were all re-elected, except Mrs. J. H. Bartell, that lady being elected Oracle of the Camp.

I wouldn't be without DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for any consideration," writes Thomas B. Rhodes, Centerfield, O. Infallible for piles, cuts, burns and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits.—J. E. PHINNEY.

Our special correspondent at Glen, has been busy lately keeping tab on the many weddings, the latest is that of esteemed friend Diedrick Nelson, who has taken unto himself a new wife, whom he wedded and wedded in Minnesota. We hasten to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and hope their lives may be a prolonged round of joy and bliss.

Canned goods of all kinds and of the best quality, at BIGELOW'S.

Go and get a drink of that fresh apple cider at BIGELOW'S.

Mrs. James Bourrett, of Running Water, is the guest of Mrs. Maine this week.

We understand W. H. Davis, rode the Modern Woodman's goat on last Saturday.

All kinds of Notions at one half what you have been paying at the Post Office corner.

No the, the toothless editor of this shoes has quit doing the cooking at home his better half has discharged him.

Go to the RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE, and buy one of those Paxton meat roasters to take your Christmas turkey in. They are cheap.

A Mr. Brammer, of Omaha, was in town Tuesday in the interest of the state Historical society.

John Cortin, came in on last Monday noon, from Rapid City, S. Dak. where he has been the guest of his son Elms, during the past week.

Dr. H. H. Haden, Summit, Ala., says, "I think Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a splendid medicine. I prescribe it, and my confidence in it grows with continued use." It digests what you eat and quickly cures dyspepsia and indigestion.

J. E. PHINNEY.

M. J. Gayhart, and Frank Miller of Montrose, were in town Saturday, remaining over until next day. The former gentleman was doing trading while the latter was doing business at Judge Wilson's court owing to the recent death of his father. While here he inscribed his name among our readers.

The RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE has received a new and fresh supply of canned goods of all kinds.

County treasurer Biehle, has sent Sheriff Holly out this week with distress warrants for the purpose of collecting the delinquent personal taxes due the county.

Julius B. Burke, has been engaged this week in the county clerk's office, to assist Mr. Blewett, in completing his clerical duties, preparatory to turning the office over to his successor, at the close of his term January first.

Oh last Monday T. O. Williams completed drilling Dr. Phinney's well, close by his residence. The well is 392 feet deep and has 125 feet of water in it.

J. E. Ridges, Editor "Democrat," Lancaster, N. H., says, "One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for croup I ever used." Immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles.—J. E. PHINNEY.

The Junior Epworth League, gave a public entertainment at Andrews Hall, on last Tuesday evening. An interesting programme was rendered and an around good time was the verdict of all who spent the evening with the juveniles.

The cheapest place in town to trade is at BIGELOW'S.

The happiest man in Harrison, is our friend A. McGinley, and the reason is, he is beloved by all the children in town and our friend seems to be in his right element when surrounded by the little folks.

You never know what form of blood poison will follow constipation. Keep the liver clean by using DeWitt's Little Early Bowers and you will avoid trouble. They are famous little pills for constipation and liver and bowel troubles.—J. E. PHINNEY.

Hon. W. J. A. Raum, of Cottonwood, county clerk elect, came up last Monday noon and during the week he will acquaint himself with the business of the clerks office, in order that he may be better able to enter upon the discharge of his duties as county clerk, when inducted into office on the first of January.

A large, new stock of boots and shoes, for ladies, gentlemen and children's wear, will arrive at the RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE, about January 1st. Prices to suit everybody.

Through our special correspondent at Glen, we are informed that there is to be a wedding at or near that place, on Christmas day, the contracting parties are said to be James B. Johnson and Miss Lois Puddy, the young couple are highly esteemed in their neighborhood. Wonder if we shall eat some of the wedding cake? Sometimes editors do! Who can tell.

I had dyspepsia fifty-seven year and never permanent relief till I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Now I am well and feel like a new man," writes S. J. Fleming, Murray, Neb. It is the best digestant known. Cures all forms of indigestion. Physicians everywhere prescribe it.—J. E. PHINNEY.

We are in receipt of some poetry, without a signature, and as it is an inviolable rule in all printing offices—our own included—that all matter sent for publication, must bear the writers signature, hence our inability to publish them. Should the writer thereof decide to send their name before our next issue we shall be pleased to publish them, otherwise this matter must be consigned to the waste basket.

LaGrippe, with its after effects, annually destroys thousands of people. It may be quickly cured by one Minute Cough Cure, the only remedy that produces immediate results in coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis pneumonia and throat trouble.—J. E. PHINNEY.

Clars and Tobacco of all kinds at BIGELOW'S.

Quite a little skiff of snow fell last Monday night, which cooled the atmosphere very materially.

Wilts Ernest, came in from the Sand hills Tuesday, stopping until yesterday.

Bert Earnest has been pesting in our midst for two or three days this week.

Chas. Newman, was up from East Springs Tuesday, remaining over until Wednesday, attending to some business.

Just peruse the statement of the Commercial Bank, in another column of this issue of the PRESS-JOURNAL. Isn't it a good glowing?

The other half of ye editor, and the two children who accompanied her, returned from their Iowa and South Dakota trip on last Thursday, all o. k.

Attorney Guthrie has the frame of his new law office up and when finished it will nest and commodious. Who will be next to erect a business house in Harrison?

A letter yesterday, from George Turner at Omaha, to D. H. Griswold, was to the effect that Mrs. Turner was past all danger, and was doing well as could be expected. So we hasten to spread the good news.

We learn through Rev. Smith of this place that Mrs. Andrew Christian, of Pleasant Ridge, who has been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism for the past six weeks, was no better yesterday, and that Dr. Phinney had been dispatched for again. We regret very much to hear of Mrs. Christian's serious illness and hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Marcos Valdez last Friday morning while snaking a log down through the canyon to the saw mill on his place had the misfortune to have his team killed, accidentally by falling over a precipice. Even Marcos had a very narrow escape from meeting death also, in his efforts to save his team. While Marcos may feel the loss of his team in a financial way, yet he feels he has much to be grateful for in his escape from sudden death.

Breezes From The Valley.

The storm arrived in time for Thanksgiving, but in such a mild form it could hardly be called any thing but a pleasant surprise.

J. B. Burke, is assisting county clerk. Blewett, in making up his books for the balance of his term.

Mr. Sarah Jordan went over to Indian creek last Friday, to spend a few days at the Hollingsworth mansion.

Wohlbeiter and sons are going to take out a ditch to catch a little of the surplus water out of Hat creek in the times of plenty.

Rev. C. E. Rice came over from Cottonwood Saturday accompanied by Rev. Wright intending to hold meetings all or part of the week, but Mrs. Rice came over Sunday evening with the intelligence that the Bible institute would convene at Cottonwood Dec. 18th, and some preparations would have to be made for that, so the meeting closed Wednesday evening. A Unique Invitation.

Following taken from the Herald (N. Y.), is a unique invitation sent out by the sheriff of Navajo county, Arizona, to his specially invited guests to attend a hanging exhibition:

Holbrook, Arizona, Dec. 12, 1899.

Mr. GEO. B. STOCUM

You are hereby cordially invited to attend the hanging of one GEORGE SMILEY, MURDERER. His soul will be swung into eternity on December 8, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m. sharp.

The latest improved methods in the art of scientific strangulation will be employed and everything possible will be done to make the surroundings cheerful and the execution a success.

F. J. WATSON, Sheriff of Navajo Co.

The Cape of Mrs. J. H. Thayer of Bodare, which was advertised in last week's PRESS-JOURNAL, as lost, was returned to this office by the finder yesterday. It always pays to advertise. See?

Our local nimrod, F. Avery and his friends Nicholas and Peter Shaefer of Bodare, while out on their hunting trip last week, bagged on fine large Antelope what we ate, was indeed very insipid. However, we are just as well pleased as if we could taste it yet.

We learned only this week Monday that Mr. and Mrs. George H. Turner had gone to Omaha early last week, where Mrs. Turner was taken to the hospital for treatment of tumor of the stomach. A telegram from Mr. Turner to Jeff Hewitt conveys the sad intelligence that Mrs. Turner had undergone an operation and was doing well.

We sincerely hope for Mrs. Turner's speedy recovery and that she may return to her many friends and acquaintances in Sioux county of which she has legions with her health restored and thereby enjoy the society of her husband and friends, for many years to come.
