ALLEN WILL BE SEATED

NO TRUTH IN REPORT THAT HIS APPOINTMENT WOULDN'T HOLD

News of Interest From the National Capital-Resolution to Recognize Boer's Belligerency.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19.—Eastern newspapers in the last two days have contained highly sensational stories under Omaha and Lincoln date lines, outlines, a resulties. outlining a republican war on Senator Allen taking his seat, and stating that the republican committee of the senate was in communication with the republicans of Nebraska as to the course of the opposition to be pursued.

Diligent inquiry among republican senators fails to make good any of the assertions emanating from either Lincoln or Omaha.

Senator Thurston, when approached upon the law points alleged to have been raised by James M. Woolworth as to the right of Senator Allen to take the oath of office as successor to Senator Hayward, said that while there was no exactly similar case as presented from Nebraska. Hayward being de jure senator, his death created a vacancy which the governor had a right to fill. He admitted that he had received one telegram from Nebraska regarding the matter, but had not replied because he thought it was wholly unnecessary in view of the action of the senate in Judge Hayward's case. On the assembling of the senate in regular session, Mr. Hayward's credentials gere laid before that body, raving been in the office of the secretary of the senate ever since last March, when he was elected. Ordinary procedure followed the presentation of his commission fro mgovernor Poynter, and when Hayward's name was called for the purpose of taking the oath, Senator Thurston said that severe lilness prevented his colleague from being present in the senate at that time and Nebraska was passed. Every senator recognized that Judge Hayward had been elected and that there were no reasons why he should not take the oath of elected and that there were no reasons why he should not take the oath of Senator Spooner, when interrogated as to the points raised to seating Allen, said: "He will take his seat without a word of protest, so far as I know. I cannot conceive of any other condition but that a vacancy exists in Nebraska, and the governor, under the constitu-tion, has the power to appoint. Senator Hanna says he knows noth-ing of the situation, but he ragerds the right of the governor to appoint be-cause he believes a vacancy exists. He has received no advices from Nebraska republicans as alleged by telegrams

Senator Kenney of Delaware, in dis-cussing the subject from a democratic standpoint, raised an interesting quesstandpoint, raised an interesting ques-tion which is worthy of some consider-ation "Suppose," said he, "that Hay-ward, elected by a majority of the leg-islature of Nebraska, had failed to qualify in the senate. As long as nis term lasted the governor would have been powerless to appoint, even though the state went without two representa-tives, as provided by the constitution. If living he was senator, then, dead, a yacancy must be created by the very condition of things. The minority of the senate evidently expected no such questions to be presented, for they have designated places on committees which he will fill."

WILSON WILL NOT RESIGN. Secretary Wilson, when asked about the report that he was about to resign from the cabinet on account of ill-health, said: "There is not a word of truth in the statement. I am as strong summer and after getting out my re-port I did say to some of the boys that I intended to go a little slower. The clerks in my department had vacations. I had none and I felt I was entitled to a little rest. I think they might have telephoned me and asked me before publishing such a statement." Nebraska postmasters appointed: Jarvis Richards, at Ellsworth, Sheri-Weir, resigned; H. B. Gillespie, at Lakeside, Sheridan county, vice J. A. Crowther, resigned, and C. E. Lewis, Stanford, Harlan county, vice J. L. Bruner, resigned. Iowa postmasters appointed: J. B. Changed His American Ideas. Changed His American Ideas.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19.—Senator Hoar has written a letter to Former Senator Edmunds, replying to an invitation to be present at a meeting to be held to discuss the Phillippine question. Senator Hoar declines to attend because he thinks that what he will have to say on the Phillippine question will be more effective if said in his place in the senate than elsewhere. He adds:

"I have not changed the existent.

"I have not changed the opinion I formed and expressed last winter, except that it has been confirmed and strengthened by what has happened since. If we had dealt with the people of the Philippines as we undertook to deal with the people of Cuba, who we declared—and they certainly had no better title—of right ought to be free and independent; if instead of undertaking to buy them and then undertaking to buy them and then undertaking to subjugate them by force, we had assured them of our purpose to respect their rights, to protect them against foreign interference, to aid them to restore order and to leave them whenever they should desire to the blessing of freedom and self-government, we should have had no large expenditure of money. the glory—with which the glory of no other country in history could be compared—of being the great liberator in both hemispheres.

Terrible mischief has already been accomplished through the biunder of last winter's treaty. But it is not too late to retrace our steps. Congress has not yet committed itself to the policy of imperialism. Still less are the American people so committed. It is not too late to assure the people of the Philippine islands that we will not trample under foot, or compel them to obey us against their will; that we will protect them against foreign cupidity; that we will aid them to restore order; the capture of Aguinaldo and the obtaining of an order from him for the troops to surrendere the american and only the sacrifice without any increased hope of success under commanders that the insurgents and other Filipino officers who have surrendered have been taken to Vigan. But he died before he could take the oath, and now hair-splitting is our power to establish for themselves such government as they may desire; that hereafter our relations to them should only be that of friends and

"If that were done peace would be restored in an hour. Order and pros-perity and happiness would prevail, in-stead of war and devastation. The flag of the United States, which it is sought to make the symbol of conquest and oppression, would be as it has ever been oppression, would be as it has ever been till now, a symbol of liberty and hope, to all nations of the earth. New York, Dec. 19.-Five minutes of active trading on the stock exchange at the opening Saturday demonstrated that the market was to be allowed to run into unopposed demoralization. Running sales at the opening showed quotations far apart. Extreme de-clines in the internationally listed stocks ran up to 2½ points, in sympathy with the demoralization caused on the London stock exchange by the unexpected disaster to General Buller in South Africa. The trading at the opening was attended by considerable excitement, and indeed, the Wall street district showed unwonted signs of activity before the stock market opened. The news in the morning papers of General Buller's reverse brought brokers and stock opera-tors early on the ground to make pre-parations for the demands upon them. Many did not wait for the opening of the New York exchange, but cabled buying orders to London, thus helping on the rally there before the trading began in New York. Lincolnville, Kan., Nov. 22, 1896.

Drs. Thornton & Minor, Kansas City, Mo.;
Gentlemen—It has been six years since you treated me for bleeding piles, with which disease I had been afflicted for twenty years. By chance I heard of your success and placed myself under your care, though I confess I had little faith that I would be cured, as I had been treated by four other physicians, who gave me no relief.

You cured me thoroughly and permanently, for which I can never thatk you sufficiently. I carnestly recommend you to all similarly afflicted. Very respectfully,
T. J. WISE.
