

Call for Grandchildren's Meeting.

The Board of county Local Officers of Sioux county, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet at the office of the county clerk, at Harrison, Thursday, Dec. 28, 1899, for the transaction of ordinary county business.

M. J. BLEWETT,
County Clerk.

New Year's Dance.

We are requested to announce a grand ball to be given at Harrison, Friday night, Dec. 29, 1899. Good music will be furnished. Every body are invited to come and have a good time.

COMMITTEE.

—Chas. Coffey, shook hands with his Sioux County friends yesterday.

—John Herman, of Indian creek, spent a couple of days in town this week, on business.

—Attorney Guthrie, will have his new office ready for occupancy by the first of next week.

—Mrs. Zimmerman, and Mrs. Thayer, of Bodare, greeted us yesterday, with a pleasant call.

—Remember if you want to buy a suit of clothes, be sure you go to the RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE for them.

—Sheriff Holly has a force of mechanics at work on his new dwelling and will soon have it ready for occupancy.

—The RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE handles the best full patent flour in town. Buy a sack of it and you will have no other.

—Owing to lack of space, we have been obliged to lay over some interesting matter, which will appear in our next issue.

—You can buy Groceries and Dry Goods at the RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE cheaper than at any other store in Harrison.

—Chas. Hanson commenced plastering his new residence on last Monday afternoon and will have it finished by the last of the week.

—The two sons of Mr. Wright, who were here to attend their father's funeral, returned to their respective homes on last Monday evening.

—There will be mass at the Court House, in Harrison, on Sunday Dec. 31st at 10, 30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

—George Turner returned from Omaha, on last Saturday, and brought the good news that his wife is getting along very nicely and the attending physician gave him the assurance that Mrs. T. will soon be all right.

—"I wouldn't be without DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for any consideration," writes Thomas B. Rhodes, Centerfield, O. Infalible for piles, cuts, burns and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits.—J. E. PHINNEY.

—The new Brand Laws requires all parties that have their Brands recorded with the County Clerk to make application to the Secretary of State on or before the 31st of Dec. 1899. Parties making application after that date will be allowed brands in the order filed with the Secretary of State.

—Dr. H. H. Haden, Summit, Ala. says, "I think Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a splendid medicine. I prescribe it, and my confidence in it grows with continued use." It digests what you eat and quickly cures dyspepsia and indigestion.—J. E. PHINNEY.

—John Stratton is now comfortably settled in his new house which he just recently completed on his claim in the canyon. We are glad to see John doing so well.

—J. E. Bridges, Editor "Democrat," Lancaster, N. H., says, "One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for croup I ever used." Immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, gripe and all throat and lung troubles.—J. E. PHINNEY.

—Through the Chadron News, we learn that George Walker a former Sioux Co., resident during its earlier days, is now a resident of Manila, P. I., where he is at present engaged in the saloon business. We were never acquainted with him, but old timers who still live here knew, and can testify to his character. Not knowing Mr. Walker, except from hearsay, we refrain from commenting on his past life as far as it relates to his residence in Harrison, or Sioux county. Mr. Walker has a wife and three children living 10 miles south of town the oldest daughter is the wife of John Anderson, with whom Mrs. Walker and the other two children make their home.

—Lagrippe, with its after effects, annually destroys thousands of people. It may be quickly cured by one Minute Cough Cure, the only remedy that produces immediate results in coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis pneumonia and throat trouble.—J. E. PHINNEY.

—The little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis, who has been sick at Grandpa McGinley's during the past week is up and around again all o. k.

—"I had dyspepsia fifty-seven years and never permanent relief till I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Now I am well and feel like a new man," writes S. J. Fleming, Murray, Neb. It is the best digester known. Cures all forms of indigestion. Physicians everywhere prescribe it.—J. E. PHINNEY.

—Dr. Phinney's new well is finished, the wind mill and tower raised, the pump placed and everything ready for pumping water.

—You never know what form of blood poison will follow constipation. Keep the liver clean by using DeWitt's Little Early Bitters and you will avoid trouble. They are famous little pills for constipation and liver and bowel troubles.—J. E. PHINNEY.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—At the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Wright on Friday Dec. 18 1899, James Wright aged 68 years. The deceased was born in Yorkshire England Aug 26th 1831 but emigrated with his parents to this country in his early childhood and settled in New York State, where he grew to man's estate and was married to Miss Catherine Paterson on Dec. 4th 1852. The companion of his youth preceded him to the other shore, only a few short months ago, and since that time Grandpa has seemed lonesome and anxious to break the bonds which held him captive here, in order that they may be reunited in the better land where parting is no more and as they had walked faithfully for 35 years towards the "gate" together, Grandpa soon found the voyage of life devoid of charms to his lone worn out body, most natural then for him to hail with joy the invitation of him who has said "come to all ye who labor and are heavy burdened and I will refresh you". The funeral obsequies were held at the M. E. church, on Sunday Dec. 17th, and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Smith, who had known the deceased during 14 years' taking as his subject "mortality and immortality". In our opinion the most beautiful tribute which can be paid to the memory of this patient sufferer, is that he wished to teach all who approached his bed of suffering, the true spirit of christian fortitude in his dire agony, he had striven to teach his children how to live, it now remained for him to teach them how to die, which he did as only a true devotee of the "Master" can. Grandpa is gone but the sweet odor of his virtues will cause his memory to live not only in the hearts of his children, but likewise with all those who came in contact with him. He was always the same, patient, and charitable to all.

He is not dead, the one we mourn
In deep but chastened sorrow,
His spirit has not gone to dwell
Where ours may be to-morrow.
There cometh ever to our grief,
And our sighs and weeping,
The blessed and consoling thought,
He is not dead, but sleeping.

CARD OF THANKS.

To our many friends and neighbors, who kindly assisted us during the sickness, death and burial of our father, we sincerely thank them and take this way of making it known.

MR. MRS. AND W. B. WRIGHT,
AND THE OTHER CHILDREN.

In Memory of F. P. Miller, Died Nov. 29, 1899.
(Contributed by M. L. at Antmore, S. D.)

One more dear friend is called away
From the world of sorrow and care;
He has gone to a happier home above,
And will know no sorrow there.

This dear old, known to all as grandpa,
Will be missed by many here;
But he has crossed the shining river,
Brighter far than this earth so dear.

Seventy-four long years he labored here,
Striving to do his best,
Till the angel of death should come at last,
And bid him be at rest.

Those patient hands lay folded
Upon the still cold breast,
We will hear no more that voice we loved,
Till we too, meet with the best.

God has called away our loved one,
We have seen him leave our side;
With our savior we shall meet him,
When we, too, have crossed the tide.

We all know how sad the parting,
When one is numbered with the dead,
But we have one blessed assurance,
We shall meet again as God has said.

May God be near to cheer the sad and lonely
Through the dark and lonely way,
Helping them to bear their burden,
Till their shall come a brighter day.

Yes, Grandpa has gone to that heavenly land
Where white-robed angels are;
We know at last he's gathered safe
From pain and toll and care.

When we are called from sorrow and care,
And we stand with the angels of light,
Oh what a meeting in Heaven there'll be,
In that land without shadow or night.

We shall sleep but not forever,
In the cold and silent grave,
Blessed be the Lord that taketh,
Blessed be the Lord that giveth.
