There seems to be lots of sickness in the county this spring. The children are suffering quite a good deal from what seems to be grip and which tends to run into lung fever.

LEE, one of the best Photograph workmen, in the United States, will be in Harrison Neb., about April 1st. He has made arrangements to have a building made in Harrison, so he can make you the best picture you ever saw.

We regret we have to announce that our better half who has been a source of so much assistance to us in the newspaper work since coming to Harrison, is quite sick and is threatened with lung fever. She is somewhat better today than yesterday.

Come and see our five cent counter, everything you need in the house.

BIOWLOW.

Dr. Reichard is having all he can do in the dentist line, while here this trip. We have to hear the first complaint in condemnation of his work since he made his first professional visit to our town. So far as we know we can recommend the Doctor's professional work to any body in our vicinity who needs dental work done.

Yes, Coffee, Spruce and a full line of canned goods of the best quality at the Post office building.

We acknowledge receipt of a copy of a book, published by Word and Works at St. Louis, and edited by Mrs. Emily Hicks who is over 80 years old. The book is entitled the Only Hope of a Republic and treats on "A Bimetallic Currency." Every voter in Sioux county should have a copy of it. The price of the book is 50 cents and is worth it for the information it imparts on the finance question.

Report comes from the south end part of the county, that some miscreants, supposed to be outlaws who make a habit of Dr. Reichard's visit will stop on the lower posts with some baby during a dark night some place on the last thirty days and be kidnapping the mill had topped over some party Dr. Reichard to considerable profit and cost.

Mr. O'Connell of Glen was in town, Tuesday on business.

Len Christian killed a Canada goose one day last week. It weighed nearly twelve pounds, but Len said that it seemed to weigh twice that amount while he was carrying it home.

Mrs. J. H. Newlin and Mrs. Harry Deneel went to Harrison yesterday and had several tooth pulled.

Say Mister! hasn't the wind just been on a tear for some time? For eight days it just blew a perfect gale without any intermission.

A brother of C. E. Andrews, arrived from Exira, on last Tuesday. He expects to make Wyoming his future home.

While hauling a load of about 60 bushels of wheat to town for Andrew Christian on last Thursday Mr. Zambren got stuck in a pond in Mr. Wilson's field and it looked for a while as though he would not get out. After hitching on a six horse team and pulling it apart, it was decided to get another wagon.

ZERKEL.

At the Democratic state convention at Lincoln, the 19th, which elected 16 delegates to the National Convention at Kansas City, Mo., July 4th, next, the following gentlemen were named including delegates from each congressional district and four at large: W. H. Thompson, James Tibbets, R. L. Metcalf and M. D. Oldham.

1st Dist.—Joseph H. Miles, and C. E. Cotton.

2nd Dist.—J. H. Creighton and L. J. Piatti.

3rd Dist.—Phil H. Kohl, and Jonas Welch.

4th Dist.—H. Metzger and W. H. Taylor.

5th Dist.—G. W. Tebbets and Patrick Walsh.

6th Dist.—M. C. Harrington and T. P. Mahoney.

It would be as reasonable for Lord Salisbury to tender to the president of these United States, the good offices of her majesty's government in the interest of peace in the Philippines Islands, as it was for Mr. McKinley to tender the good offices of the Washington government to bring about a peaceable termination of the South African war between Great Britain and Transvaal and Free state republics. Conciliatory? is a priceless jewel.

As long as D. Clem Deaver was permitted a good, lucrative office under Gov. Holcomb, fusion was all O. K., but soon as Gov. Poynter displaced him for some other fusionist, then Mr. Deaver became a defusionist. To read his paper the True Republican, one would think Deaver was an angel of light. But the good book is authority for the statement that his satanic majesty, "if it were possible," would "deceive the very elect."

The republican party's policy of collecting impurity from the Penro Rican people to the amount of $2,000,000 and then turning around and giving it back to that people, is by the leaders of the g. o. p., considered to be a wonderful amount of charity bestowed upon starving humanity.

The republican Congress are fearfully afraid that any legislation they may enact into law for Uncle Sams Colonial possessions may in some way get the Constitution of these United States mixed up in it, and ruin all their calculations for carrying out the parties imperial policy.

President McKinley's obligations to the money power, which he incurred in 1896 for cash contributions to his campaign fund, was discharged—partially—when he officially signed the single gold standard bill, recently passed by congress.

The Warden, Idaho, "bull pen" investigation now going on in Washington, D. C., by the congressional committee, proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that the party in power are opposed to labor unions.

Krupp Gun Religion.

Now the point that I want to press, and upon which I venture to hope I shall have your cordial sympathy, is this, that the idea of carrying the Gospel to the Philippines with the aid of shot and shell is not only no quotation from the Gospel, but it distinctly antagonizes the divine utterances which the Gospel records and the divine spirit with which, from the beginning to the end, that Gospel is inspired; and that bringing to them the story of the Cross under the cover of our gunboats—redemption in one hand and shot in the other—is an infidel method of accomplishing evangelical results.
