Governor Cleveland is deeply grieved over the 15 to 1 feature in the Democratic platform adopted at Kansas city. Glad to hear it.

The Democratic party was never before in a better position to wage successful battle. All it needs to do is to hold to American ideas and appeal to the patriotism of the people. And the powers of evil and Mark Hanna shall not prevail against it.

The war in China, which the European powers, together with the United States are just at present engaged in, is fair to be more costly in human blood and money than the Philippines to Uncle Sam or the Transvaal to England. And all for greed.

Senator Gier of Iowa, died very suddenly at his hotel in Washington, D. C., last Friday.

If the people of this nation expect the Republic to endure, then every voter in the United States should vote the democratic ticket, for it is our honest opinion that another four years of McKinley administration we'd find then it is too late to save the republic from distraction.

Imperialism, which is the strongest issue before the people, is made the paramount issue of the campaign, and on that point every Democrat can give Mr. Bryan his most cordial support. The Democrats are in a majority in the United States, and withal of them in line for Mr. Bryan his triumphal election in November will surely follow.

My God forbid, that another Peace congress, such as the one held at the Hague in 1899 for the disarmament of all nations be. One more such disarmament conference would put every nation on the earth at war with each other. The full result of the first one is not yet apparent, it may mean universal war yet. These are perilous times.

Belmont, the next governor of Nebraska, did you say? Ahem, better wait until after election, and then you may have to acknowledge otherwise. He who laughs last invariably laughs best.

It is disgusting to say the least to read in so many administration organs the epithets they use in alluding to the fusion party. Here are a few of their choicest:

Copperheads, Three ringed circus peapacots, demopops, fools, and others too numerous to mention, but here is the point, and we hope every friend of fusion will read it and weigh it in the balance of justice. These same papers who so unbecomingly slur the fusion party expect in a measure to receive support and, as a matter of fact, find it among their subscribers fully one half who belong to the fusion ranks, and these same papers consistently abuse their friends to their own detriment, simply to please Mark Hannaism.

From what we can learn of the republican candidate for governor, about the only redeeming quality he possesses is that he is a German. There is not one single word said about his being a gold standard, national banker, and that Mr. Detrick stands for everything that the national administration represents, foreign expansion, murder in the Philippine islands entangling alliances with Europe &c. &c.

It makes the cold shivers creep up one's back almost, to read how Admiral Seymour, was obliged to kill all his wounded soldiers after a battle with the "Boxers," to keep them from being horribly murdered and mutilated by the Chinese "devils."

President McKinley and his foreign policy and the open door in China, is proving to be about as expensive to the combined powers as the Philippine and Transvaal wars to the United States and England.

Lots of Truth in This.

Dear Philippines, do you not know what a good thing you are raising by not wanting to become citizens of this grand country of ours? There is everything in it under the sun. You ought to send a delegation over to see us, this land of churches and 400,000 licensed saloons, forts and guns; houses of prayer and licensed houses of prostitution; millionaires and paupers, theologians and thieves, libertines and clars, christians and churchgoers, politicians, poverty, schools, seafarers, trusts and tramps, virtue and vice. A land where you can get a table for fifty cents and a drink of bad whiskey for five cents; where we have men in congress with three wives and lots in jail for having two wives; where some make sausage of their wives and some want to eat them—bleed raw; where men make bologna sausage of dogs, canned beef of horses and sick cows, and corpses of the people that eat it; where we put men in jail for not having the means of support and on the rockpile for asking for a job of work; where we license bawdy houses, and fine men for telling the truth on the streets; where we have a congress of four hundred men to make the laws and a supreme court of nine men to set them aside; where good men make bad whiskey, and good whiskey make bad men; where newspapers are paid for suppressing the truth and made rich by telling a lie, where professors draw the convictions and salaries from the same source; where business consists in getting property in any way that will not land you in the penitentiary; where trusts hold you up and property holds you down, where men vote for what they do not want for fear they will get what they want by voting for it; where niggers can vote and white women can't; where the girls who go wrong are outcast, and her main partner flourishes like a gentleman; where women wear false hair and men dock the horse's tails; where men vote for one thing and cuss it for three hundred, and sixty-five days; where we have prayers in the national capitol, and whiskey in the basement; where we spend five thousand dollars to buy a congressman who is rich and ten dollars to buy a workingman who is poor; where to be virtuous is to be lonesome, and to be honest is to be called a crank; where gold is a substance—the one thing sought for—and God is a waste basket for our better thoughts and resolutions; where we pay fifteen thousand dollars for a dog and fifteen cents a dozen to a poor woman for making shirts; where we teach the "untutored Indian" eternal life from the bible and kill him with bad whiskey; where we put a man in jail for stealing a loaf of bread and in congress for stealing a railroad; where check books fall, and in walks in broad daylight, justice in sleep, crime runs amuck corruption permeates our social fabric, and the devil laughs from every street corner.

Come to us Filipinos! We've got the greatest congregation of good things. Big and little things, cold and hot things, soft and hard things, all varieties all colors, ever exhibited under one tent. If you don't come we'll fetch you that's what our guns are for. Of course when you fellows join us, you will have to stop eating each other. You will be our meat then. Our people won't stand it to see meat wasted that way. You can eat dog bologna or canned horse. It will be almost as healthy, and will expand our meat trade. Come to our arms.—Ex.

The republicans, first go to the Populists and free silver republicans and tell them how the democrats have upheld Charles A. Towne, out of the nomination for vice president, and then they go to the democrats and complain how the populists at the state convention, only gave the democrats one office, thus driving in every possible way to create dissension in the fusion ranks. It won't work though.

Bryan and Stevenson, will be officially notified of their nomination at Indianapolis, Ind., August 9th.

The McKinley republicans are about the only persons who are making any kick, because Hon. Chas. A. Towne, did not receive the nomination at Kansas City, for vice president on the Democratic ticket.

The Democratic convention at Kansas city exceeded the hopes of its well wishers and confounded the expectation of its enemies. All that remains now is to push the campaign vigorously on the three paramount and burning issues of the platform—antagonism to imperialism, to militarism and to greedily and oppressive trusts—and in this way to make certain the election of the candidates, Bryan and Stevenson, who stand squarely and firmly on these planks.—Cleveland Plain Dealer (old Jam.)
