THE YOUTH'S COMPANION.
 144 Berkeley Street, BOSTON, MASS.

There was a man heard to say the other day that he was glad that Burke was defeated. We will say this for that same man that Burke has never failed to say a good word for him whenever an opportunity presented itself but we will say this that if anyone thinks that Burke is losing any sleep over this little affair they are mistaken for he is not to lose only being deprived of the daily company of his family but if this is any pleasure to his enemies they are welcome to it for Mr. Burke has a position that will provide for his family.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION.
 The gospel of good cheer brightens every page of THE YOUTH'S COMPANION. Although the paper is nearly seventy-seven years of age, it does not look back on the past as a better period than the present. THE COMPANION believes that the time most full of promise is the time we are living in, and every weekly issue reflects this spirit of looking forward and not back.

To more than half a million American families it carries every week its message of cheer. Its stories picture the true characteristics of the young men and women of America. Its articles bring nearly three million readers in touch with the best thought of the most famous of living men and women.

Annual Announcement Number fully describing the principal features of THE COMPANION'S new volume for 1904 will be sent to any address free.

The new subscriber for 1904 will receive all the issues of THE COMPANION for the remaining weeks of 1903 free from the time of subscription, also THE COMPANION Calendar for 1904, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.
 A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Expeller in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Expeller is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by All Drug Gists.
