The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents near Ardmore on Tuesday of this week. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Borky and is a sister of our county superintendent. We are not acquainted with the groom.

Corbin-Gerlach
The ceremony that united Mr. Elmus Corbin and Miss Cathrine Gerlach in marriage was performed by Judge Wilbermsdorfer at the home of the bride's parents in Harrison yesterday evening, only the relatives and nearest friends of the contracting parties being present. These young people have been raised in this vicinity and are well and favorably known throughout the county. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Harrison's well-known merchant, Lewis Gerlach. For the past few years she has been book keeper for the firm of Gerlach & Sons. The groom is one of Sioux county's prosperous ranchmen and has a well stocked ranch a few miles south of Harrison. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin are people that are highly respected by all. They will commence house keeping at once at the ranch where they will be at home to their many friends. A large circle of friends extend congratulations and wish them a long and prosperous life.
